CLEVELAND INDIANS ORGANIZATION REMEMBERS BOB FELLER

On December 15, 2010, the Cleveland Indians lost a valuable member of their family.

It is a combination of so many other aspects of Feller's life that make him stand out from other great players. As Midwesterners, fans loved that his arm strength came from working on a farm in Iowa. As Americans, we are filled with pride by the fact that he enlisted in the Navy on the day after the attack on Pearl Harbor and immediately volunteered for combat service. He was the first MLB player to do so. Feller was once asked, "What is the most important game you ever won?" He responded, "World War II." Following the war, despite missing four seasons during what many considered his prime years, Feller returned to old form and never once regretted serving his country before himself.

Feller's life, much like his fastball, never seemed to slow down. He remained an ambassador to the game and helped form the Major League Baseball Players Union. Feller constantly maintained a presence in Greater Cleveland and frequently attended Indians games. As evidenced by the Bob Feller statue outside Progressive Field, no player has meant more to the Indians organization, both during and after his career, than Feller.

Many things have changed since Feller was a kid learning the game from his father on their farm in Van Meter, IA. However, kids still play baseball and playing this game lends itself toward dreaming about becoming one of the greats. As an organization, the Cleveland Indians could not be more proud to have had one of those greats so close, for so long. He was more than a hero. Bob Feller was a legend.

Feller spent every one of his 18 seasons in Major League Baseball proudly wearing a Cleveland Indians uniform, epitomizing the loyalty this city has shown its teams for generations. Signed by the Indians at age 17, he started 484 games and won 266 of them. Of those wins, 19 occurred during the 1948 season when the Indians last celebrated a World Championship. He had a lifetime ERA of 3.25, threw three no-hitters-including the only Opening Day no-hitter in MLB history on April 16, 1940 - 12 one-hitters and 44 career shutouts. In 1946, he pitched a remarkable 36 complete games.

To honor Bob's memory, contributions can be made to Cleveland Indians Charities (www.indians.com), the Bob Feller Museum (www.bobfellermuseum.org), and the National Baseball Hall of Fame (www.baseballhall.org).

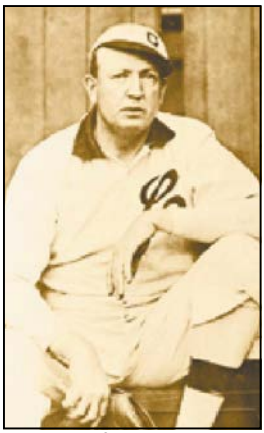
A HISTORY OF THE CLEVELAND INDIANS

From its start on April 24, 1901, Cleveland's American League franchise is in its 111th season, one of just four Charter A.L. clubs (along with Chicago, Boston, and Detroit) to play continuously in one city. In fact, professional baseball in Cleveland is one of the city's oldest traditions, dating well back into the 19th century and approaching its 143rd year in 2011.

From its roots to the present, Cleveland baseball has been distinguished by great ballplayers and great moments. It is through the fortunes of the men that have played for the Indians, and the memories they have created, that the history of the Cleveland Indians is learned and appreciated.



Cy Young

Cleveland professional baseball began June 2, 1869 with a match up between the Cleveland Forest Citys and the Cincinnati Red Stockings. The Forest Citys represented Cleveland in baseball's first profesionalleague, the National Association of 1871. That club disbanded in 1872. Cleveland's return to pro baseball came in 1879 in the National League (established in 1876). After six seasons, Cleveland dropped from the N.L. before the 1885 campaign. In November of 1886, a Cleveland team was admitted to the major league American Association, replacing Pittsburgh's team that moved to the N.L. Following two seasons in the A.A., Cleveland returned to the N.L. in 1889.

In 1890, Cleveland had two major league teams, one in the N.L. and one in the new Players' League. The P.L. folded after the 1890 season, which also marked the end of the A.A. and left the N.L. as a major league baseball monopoly.

Cleveland enjoyed ultimate success and failure in the N.L. from 1891 through 1899. Led by Hall of Fame pitcher Cy Young, the Cleveland Spiders began play at a new ballpark, League Park, located at the corner of East 66th Street and Lexington Avenue, on May 1, 1891. Cleveland never led the N.L. in wins, but earned three trips to the N.L. equivalent of today's World Series (1892, 1895, and 1896). Cleveland lost a postseason championship series to Boston in 1892, defeated Baltimore to win the Temple Cup championship series in 1895, and lost a Temple Cup rematch with Baltimore the following year. The Spiders began a tradition of championship professional baseball that would be joined by the Indians in 1920 and 1948 and the Cleveland Buckeyes of the Negro Leagues in 1945.

A newsworthy addition to the 1897 Spiders was Louis Sockalexis. Considered a supreme baseball talent, Sockalexis played just 94 games for the Spiders from 1897 through 1899 and his downfall mirrored that of Cleveland's N.L. club. When club owner Frank DeHaas Robison, who also owned the N.L.'s St. Louis franchise, sent Cleveland's best players west to St. Louis, the remaining players stumbled to the worst season in pro baseball history (20-134). Cleveland was dropped from the N.L., opening the door for a new franchise in a new league.

By the turn of the century, Cleveland was an established major league city, perfect for the designs of Ban Johnson who moved to turn his minor league Western League into major league competition for the N.L. Aided by the finances of Clevelander Charles Somers, Johnson's Western League became the American League and, after a year of minor league play in 1900, went head-to-head with the N.L. starting in 1901. The new franchise played at Cleveland's established baseball home, League Park.

Cleveland had the honor of playing in the first A.L. game in its major league history, April 24, 1901 at Chicago. All the other games scheduled for that date were rained out.

Cleveland's biggest baseball star in the early days of its new franchise was Napoleon Lajoie. After its inaugural big league A.L. season in 1901, Somers acquired the greatest batsman in baseball from Connie Mack's Philadelphia Athletics. When Lajoie, who jumped from Philadelphia's N.L. team to its competitor in the A.L., became emerged in a legal tug-of-war, Mack, owner and manager of the A's, sent Lajoie to Cleveland to bolster the junior circuit. (Somers had helped Mack with finances to establish his Philadelphia club.) Cleveland also acquired another future Hall of Famer in rookie pitcher Addie Joss.

Initially known as the Blues (1901) and Broncos (1902), Cleveland's nickname became Naps, in honor of Lajoie, in 1903. With a first class ballpark, solid ownership, and future Hall of Famers in second baseman Lajoie, Joss, and outfielder Elmer Flick, Cleveland had the makings for championship contention.

Under player-manager Lajoie, Cleveland peaked in 1908 in a down-to-the-wire pennant race with Chicago and

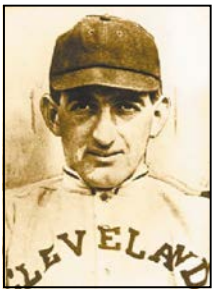
Addie Joss

Nap Lajoie

Detroit. Other key players for Cleveland included third baseman Bill Bradley, first baseman George Stovall, and shortstop Terry Turner. Despite perhaps the greatest game ever pitched, Joss' 1-0 perfect game victory against Chicago's Ed Walsh on October 2, the Naps finished second.

Managing took its toll on Lajoie. Returning to player-only status in 1909, Nap reversed a declining batting average and engaged Ty Cobb in a memorable batting race in 1910. Baseball historians still argue whether Cobb or Lajoie deserves designation as 1910 A.L. batting champ. In 1910, another legendary batter joined the Cleveland roster in Joe Jackson. Like Lajoie, Jackson was acquired from Connie Mack's Athletics. While "Shoeless Joe" would supplant Lajoie as Cleveland's all-time batting leader, he could not bring the Naps close to a championship. Tragedy struck in 1911 when Joss was stricken with spinal meningitis and died on April 11 at age 31.

A benefit game, to raise money for Joss' survivors, was held on July 24, 1911 at League Park. A forerunner of today's All-Star Game, the benefit game featured future Hall of Famers Cobb (wearing a Cleveland uniform since he forgot his Detroit uniform), Tris Speaker, Eddie Collins, Frank "Home Run" Baker, Sam Crawford, Bobby Wallace, and Walter Johnson along with Cleveland players Lajoie and Cy Young. Young, the winningest pitcher in major league baseball history, had returned to Cleveland in 1909 to close out his illustrious career that began with the Cleveland Spiders.



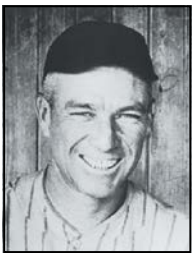
Joe Jackson

Cleveland endeavored to build another contender with Lajoie, Jackson, shortstop Ray Chapman, catcher Steve O'Neill, and pitchers Cy Falkenberg and Vean Gregg. Those efforts were undercut by a challenge from the upstart Federal League. The Feds raided both A.L. and N.L. teams, with Cleveland hit particularly hard with the loss of Falkenberg. The Naps lost a then franchise record 102 games in 1914 and attendance sank to disastrous lows as the Lajoie era in Cleveland came to a close. Lajoie's departure, following the 1914 season, prompted a name change for the Cleveland franchise.

On January 17, two Cleveland newspapers (The Leader and The Plain Dealer) reported that Indians had been chosen to replace Naps. The Plain Dealer said, "President Somers invited the Cleveland baseball writers to make the selection. The title of Indians was their choice, it having been one of the names applied to the old National League club of Cleveland many years ago." When Chief Sockalexis first arrived, baseball in Cleveland suffered an abrupt downturn in fortune. Now, the Indians would rise to glory with a new owner and star player.

The release of Lajoie and the trading of Jackson to Chicago for three players and much needed cash was not enough to keep the Somers' ownership afloat. Into the picture stepped Clevelander Jim Dunn. "Sunny" Jim helped finance a deal that brought the great center fielder Tris Speaker (embroiled in a contract dispute with Boston Red Sox ownership) to Cleveland. Dunn succeeded Somers as owner of the Indians. Led by Speaker and manager Lee Fohl, the Indians narrowly missed the pennant in 1918. When miscommunication resulted in a key loss in 1919, Dunn dismissed Fohl and made Speaker player-manager. Cleveland finished a close second again in 1919.

By 1920, Speaker led a distinguished baseball squad. The 1920 Indians led the A.L. in runs scored, doubles, triples, RBIs, walks and batting average (.303). Speaker, outfielder Elmer Smith, and third baseman Larry Gardner each drove in over 100 runs. Jim Bagby led the A.L. in wins (a club record 31), winning percentage, games, starts, complete games and innings pitched. Stan Coveleski became the first of many Tribe pitchers to lead the A.L. in strikeouts. Coveleski won 24 games, plus three more in the World Series, and former Yankees ace Ray Caldwell added 20 victories.



Tris Speaker

The talented club was put to the ultimate test when its star shortstop, Ray Chapman, was fatally beaned by pitcher Carl Mays of the Yankees on August 16 at the Polo Grounds in New York. Rookie Joe Sewell replaced Chapman and remarkably began his own Hall of Fame career. Late season call-up Duster Mails was a perfect 7-0 and helped hold off the Yankees and White Sox.

Cleveland's five games to two win in the best-of-nine games World Series against Brooklyn was punctuated by Elmer Smith's grand slam (the first in World Series history), Bagby's home run (first by a pitcher in World Series history), and Bill Wambsganss' unassisted triple play (the only unassisted triple play in World Series history), all in the fifth game on October 10, 1920 at League Park.

The Speaker/Dunn era featured two other contending teams (1921 and 1926). George Uhle, a relief pitcher in 1920, emerged as Cleveland's star pitcher and led the A.L. in wins twice (1923 and 1926). Uhle joined Speaker and Sewell as mainstays of the Indians as the 1920s progressed. The Gray Eagle departed abruptly following the 1926 campaign amid an ultimately unproven gambling scandal. Dunn passed away in 1922, but his estate maintained ownership of the club through the 1927 season.

The two decades following Speaker's departure brought some great stars and memorable moments. This period saw the arrival of Earl Averill, Mel Harder, Bob Feller and Lou Boudreau (the first four Indians to have their uniform numbers retired), a new stadium, and new ownership. A syndicate led by John Sherwin and Alva Bradley purchased the Indians from the Dunn estate on November 17, 1927. The Bradley ownership would be the longest in franchise history, but would not yield a championship.

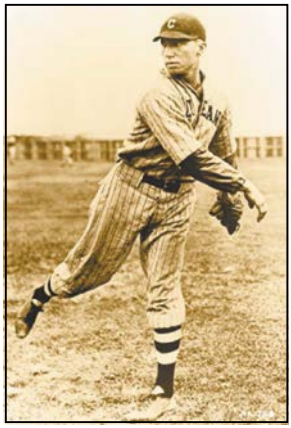
Stan Coveleski

After playing all home games in League Park, the Indians began play at the mammoth new Cleveland Municipal Stadium on July 31, 1932 as Philadelphia's Lefty Grove edged Harder 1-0 before more than 80,000 fans. The grand stadium evidenced grand dreams for Cleveland and its baseball club, but those dreams were not fulfilled during the Bradley ownership.

The Indians played home games exclusively at the lakefront stadium for the remainder of 1932 and all of 1933. High costs and the size of the stadium drove the club back to League Park from 1933-36, and then for all but Sunday and holiday games starting in 1937. Night games were played at the Stadium beginning on June 27, 1939 with Feller's one-hitter against the Tigers (lights were never installed at League Park).

Other highlights of the Bradley ownership period included Wes Ferrell's four straight 20-win seasons, Lew Fonseca's 1929 batting title, hitting heroics of Hal Trosky and Cleveland's sandlot star turned pro Joe Vosmik, temperamental Johnny Allen's 15-game winning streak in 1937 and the infamous shirtsleeve incident of June 7, 1938. Umpire Bill McGowan ordered Allen off the mound for wearing a uniform with a tattered sleeve. Allen was fined $250. Bradley pacified the pitcher by purchasing the uniform for display at Higbee's department store. From there, the uniform went to the Hall of Fame in Cooperstown.

Five managers served the Bradley ownership, including Hall of Fame pitcher Walter Johnson and former Tribe players Roger Peckinpaugh and Steve O'Neill. Ossie Vitt, fresh off a 109-win season as manager of the International League Newark Bears in 1937, replaced O'Neill. Despite an abrasive style Vitt guided the Tribe back toward the top of the A.L.



Mel Harder

By 1940, a veteran Cleveland team bolstered by rookies Boudreau and Ray Mack offered legitimate pennant hopes, and Feller launched the season with a no-hitter against the White Sox in Chicago. But, players mutinied against Vitt and went to Bradley to request the ouster of the manager.

Ray Chapman's Grave

Bradley refused and the story became national news. Cleveland's players were branded "The Crybabies." Thwarted by a late season hitting slump, the Indians finished a game behind the Tigers, concluding Vitt's career as a major league manager.

Cleveland's near miss in 1940 could not diminish the brilliant season of the magnificent right-handed fastball hurler Bob Feller. Bob won 27 games in 1940, a win total not equaled by any Tribe pitcher since. From his arrival in Cleveland in 1936 to his enlistment in the U.S. Navy in 1941, Feller was the focus of Cleveland's baseball attention. Signed by superscout Cy Slapnicka, the 17-year old Feller became the youngest player ever to play a regular season game in a Tribe uniform. Among his 14 regular season appearances in 1936 was a 15-strikeout effort against the St. Louis Browns (in his first major league start), and a then major league record 17 against the Athletics. During his first six seasons, Bob won 107 games and led the A.L. in strikeouts four times (consecutively from 1938-41). He had a record setting 18-strikeout game against Detroit on October 2, 1938. His departure for military service came just as Boudreau was becoming player-manager at the tender age of 24.

Boudreau won the A.L. batting title in 1944 (he also led all major league players with 1,578 hits during the 1940s), but the Indians were out of the running throughout the war years. Feller returned to a hero's welcome in 1945 and returned to the forefront of big league pitchers in 1946, leading the majors with 26 wins and a club record 348 strikeouts.

Colorful Bill Veeck ushered forth the next great era in Tribe history when he led a syndicate to purchase the club on June 21, 1946. Veeck put the Indians in Cleveland Municipal Stadium on a full-time basis starting with the 1947 season. His innovative promotions helped spark record attendance. His solid baseball judgment built a pennant contender. Gambles such as signing Larry Doby, the A.L.'s first African-American player (in 1947) and venerable Satchel Paige (in 1948) paid off handsomely. Keeping Boudreau, player-manager since 1942, rather than trading him to the St. Louis Browns, might have been the best non-trade in club history.

Earl Averill

The 1948 Indians' was Veeck's masterpiece. The '48 Tribe led the A.L. in batting average, ERA, and fielding average. Boudreau won the MVP award, rookie sensation Gene Bearden joined infielder/outfielder-turned-pitcher Bob Lemon as a 20-game winner, and Feller added 19 wins.

Bob Feller and Manager Steve O'Neill

Ken Keltner, Joe Gordon, and Eddie Robinson joined Boudreau to form a great infield and Jim Hegan was an outstanding backstop. The Indians took the A.L. pennant in a sizzling pennant race capped by a historic one-game playoff against the Red Sox at Fenway Park, and then beat the Boston Braves in six games to win the World Series.

Veeck departed in 1949, but Hall of Fame slugger-turned-executive Hank Greenberg remained as general manager. Greenberg dismissed Boudreau after the 1950 season in favor of Al Lopez. "El Senor" began a Hall of Fame managerial career at the helm of the Tribe in 1951. Also that year, the 50th anniversary of the A.L., the Indians established a team Hall of Fame. The first 10 inductees were Trosky (1B), Lajoie (2B), Joe Sewell (SS), Keltner (3B), Speaker (OF), Averill (OF), Jackson (OF), O'Neill (C), Young (P), and Harder (P), who chosen by fan balloting, comprised an all-time team for the first 50 years of the Indians.

The Lopez-managed Indians, dominated by pitchers Lemon, Early Wynn, and Mike Garcia, never finished lower than second place and won the third pennant in club history with a then A.L. record 111 wins in 1954. Throughout his regime, Lopez' Indians were thwarted by New York teams, finishing behind the Yankees five times and losing the '54 World Series to the Giants in a shocking four game sweep. The slugging Cleveland offense, led by Doby, Al Rosen and Luke Easter, actually out-powered the Bronx Bombers in the 1950s, leading the A.L. in home runs six times.

Next in line to succeed the aging Lopez-Greenberg Indians were such young talents as 1955 Rookie of the Year Herb Score, Rocky Colavito, Roger Maris, Jim Perry and Jim Grant. Tragedy struck again in 1957 when Score was felled by a line drive off the bat of New York's Gil McDougald.

Coupled with the early retirement of Rosen, the Tribe slid back in the A.L. pack under new manager Kerby Farrell. And home attendance accordingly diminished.

Cleveland's fortunes were little better in 1958 when Score's comeback was curtailed by a sore arm.

Cleveland had a new management team in place in 1958 with William R. Daley as club president and Frank Lane replacing Greenberg as general manager. Notoriously known as "Trader Lane," Lane made 60 separate deals from December 2, 1957 to December 15, 1959 (one sending Maris to the Kansas City Athletics). In the process, the Indians vaulted back into contention in 1959, finishing a close second to the White Sox. The 1959 Indians led the A.L. in HRs, runs scored, batting average and slugging percentage. Tribe home attendance was up 125%, trailing only the Yankees, Dodgers, and Braves.

Lane dealt Tribe fans a crushing blow by trading Colavito to the Tigers for A.L. batting champion Harvey Kuenn on April 17, 1960. Rocky had been co-HR champ in 1959, blasted 129 homers over four seasons, including four in a game at Baltimore on June 20, 1959, and had become the most charismatic Tribesman of his era.

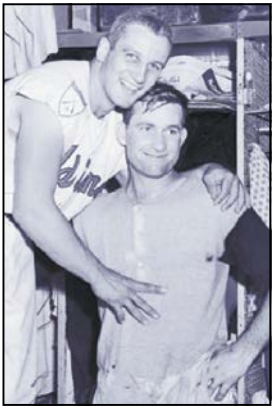
The brief, tempestuous tenure of Lane was followed by an era of Tribe baseball dominated by new general manager Gabe Paul. Paul was (at different times) general manager, part owner, and CEO of the club from 1961-73 and 1978-84.

Like Cleveland itself, the Indians suffered economically during the 1960s and 1970s. The club underwent seven ownership changes in 25 years (as many as occurred in the first 60 years of the franchise), and endured constant rumors that it would relocate to Seattle, Atlanta, New Orleans, or elsewhere.

Bill Veeck and Larry Doby

Al Lopez

Teams of 1962, 1965 and 1968 were perhaps a player away from serious pennant contention. The 1968 team, owned by Vernon Stouffer, managed by Alvin Dark, and led by pitcher Luis Tiant, was the only Tribe team from 1960 through 1993 to finish as high as third place, but teams of 1962 and 1965 battled for first place beyond mid-season before fading. In a move aimed at the box office as much as the won-loss record, Colavito was reacquired following the 1964 season. His return sparked a good season and markedly improved attendance, but the cost included future stars Tommy John and Tommie Agee. Tiant's brilliant 1968 season (with 21 wins, league leading 1.60 ERA) was followed by arm trouble and departure. "Sudden" Sam McDowell was a four-time strikeout leader during the 60s. His 1965 season included a league-low 2.18 ERA, league-high 325 strikeouts (most ever by a Tribe lefty) and two consecutive one-hitters.



Al Rosen and Bob Lemon

For all his brilliance, including a 20-win season in 1970, McDowell's inconsistency mirrored that of the Tribe during those times. Colorful outfielder Ken Harrelson, 1968 A.L. RBI champ, was acquired amid much fanfare in 1969, broke his leg in 1970 and retired. Catcher Ray Fosse seemed destined for stardom until he was injured (by Pete Rose) in a memorable home plate collision to end the 1970 All-Star Game. Lack of stability and finances in this period placed an emphasis on immediate benefits rather than a long-range plan to achieve consistent success. Accordingly, there were memorable individual accomplishments but little team glory.

Gaylord Perry, acquired with Frank Duffy for McDowell in 1972, brought the Cy Young Award to Cleveland with a spectacular 24-win season. Perry worked for a new Tribe management including owner Nick Mileti and manager Ken Aspromonte. When Paul departed to run the Yankees, Phil Seghi became general manager of the Tribe in 1973.

Herb Score

Perry was even better during the first half of 1974, fashioning a 15-game winning streak (tying Johnny Allen's club record). The 1974 Indians, managed by Aspromonte and featuring Perry, Buddy Bell, George Hendrick and Charlie Spikes, were just a half game from first place on July 4 and in second place as late as August 22 before falling to fourth. The 1974 season also featured the ignoble Beer Night fiasco on June 4.

On October 3, 1974, Executive Vice President of the Indians Ted Bonda introduced Frank Robinson as the first black manager in MLB history, giving Cleveland another giant first in baseball's integration efforts. Robinson's first at-bat, an opening day home run in 1975, was voted the most memorable moment in club history (by a poll of Tribe fans). His 1976 Indians were the first with a winning record since 1968, but a slow start in 1977 made Robinson another short-lived Tribe skipper. From the departure of Al Lopez to the arrival of Mike Hargrove (1957-1991) no Tribe manager lasted four full seasons on the job.

Rocky Colavito and Frank Lane

Gabe Paul and Phil Seghi

In the steal of the decade, Seghi obtained first baseman/designated hitter Andre Thornton from Montreal for pitcher Jackie Brown. Thornton battled injuries and personal tragedy to become one of Cleveland's all-time leading home run hitters and most respected players. Less successful was Cleveland's first foray into big-time free agency. In 1976, the Tribe signed Pitcher Wayne Garland to a 10-year, $2.3 million contract. Garland hurt his arm and won just 55 games in five seasons with Cleveland.

Sam McDowell

Gaylord and Jim Perry

F.J. "Steve" O'Neill rescued the financially troubled Cleveland franchise in 1978. O'Neill had been a minority stockholder in the club before departing, with Gabe Paul, to take an ownership in the Yankees in 1973. O'Neill brought Paul back to Cleveland as CEO of the Indians.

The first half of the 1980s were dominated by individual performances such as Joe Charboneau's rookie season and Len Barker's perfect game. Charboneau, Cleveland's third Rookie of the Year, was the star of 1980 and the subject of a book, song, and fan support unseen since Colavito. But, back trouble cut Joe's promising career short. Barker's gem on May 15 punctuated the strike-torn 1981 season.

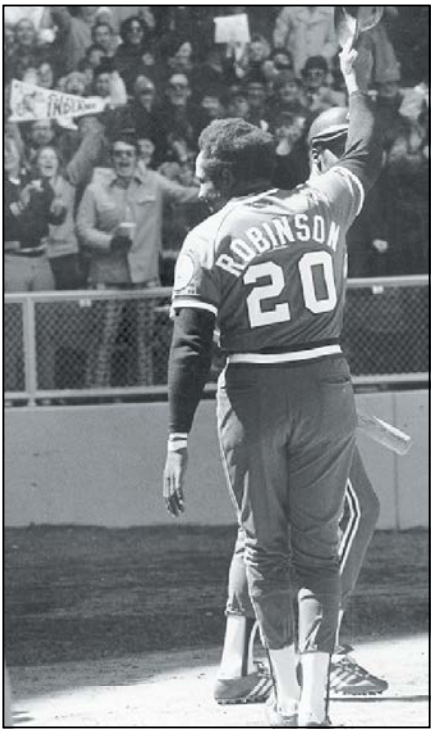
Cleveland took baseball's center stage on August 9 when it hosted the 1981 All-Star Game that signaled the end to the 50-day long players' strike. Cleveland set its third All-Star Game attendance record with a crowd of 72,086 at the Stadium. Despite an impressive pitching staff led by Barker, newcomer Bert Blyleven, John Denny, Rick Waits, and Garland, the Indians could not reach the top in either half of 1981's split season format.

The All-Star Game was but one indication that Cleveland was a city making a comeback. In 1986, the Indians were back with the best offense in baseball, leading the A.L. in runs for the first time since 1959 and attracting the highest attendance to the Stadium since then. Along with Thornton, who made his own courageous comeback in 1982 after missing all of the 1980 and most of the 1981 seasons, leading the Cleveland offense were Joe Carter, Cory Snyder, Brook Jacoby, Brett Butler, and Julio Franco. The Tribe improved by 24 games for its most wins since 1968.

This latest evidence that Cleveland would support an exciting, winning ballclub preceeded the sale of the franchise from the estate of "Steve" O'Neill to brothers Richard and David Jacobs. Any illusions that there was not much work left to do vanished in a woeful season of 101 losses in 1987. The Jacobs hired former Tribe Farm Director Hank Peters to begin a complete rebuilding process. The new leadership would emphasize player development and Dick Jacobs would make it clear that a new baseball park was essential to the survival of the Indians in Cleveland.

Andre Thornton

In 1984, Cleveland voters defeated a ballot issue created to fund a new, domed stadium. Six years later, Cleveland voters narrowly approved a tax on alcohol and cigarettes to fund a sports complex including a new ballpark for the Indians. Gateway became the target at which the Indians and their fans focused on to mark the complete revival of Cleveland's baseball fortunes.



Frank Robinson

When the Indians "Blueprint for Success" was first put into action, the Indians farm system was one of the weakest in baseball. Starting with Peters, a flow of on and off field talent began from Baltimore. John Hart was brought over and groomed to succeed Peters. Dan O'Dowd was brought in to run the farm system. In 1992, the Indians were honored as baseball's "Organization of the Year" by Baseball America and there was no doubt that the Tribe was a team on the rise.

Cleveland's new management team smartly gained a measure of cost control by extending long-term contracts to young players. A corner stone of the effort was the acquisition of Sandy Alomar Jr. and Carlos Baerga from San Diego for Joe Carter. Alomar became Cleveland's fourth Rookie of the Year. Struggles continued, including a club record 105 losses in 1991, but progress was made as the improved farm system began to produce winning talent.

On the road to Cleveland's new baseball fortunes would be a nostalgic curtain call at Cleveland Stadium in 1993. But, tragedy found Tribe baseball again on March 22 in a boating accident on Little Lake Nellie in Clermont, Florida. Steve Olin and Tim Crews were fatally injured and Bob Ojeda was seriously injured. Led by manager Mike Hargrove, the Indians battled through an emotional season. Attendance at the Stadium topped two million fans for the first time since 1949, climbing over two million during "The Final Series" when Cleveland hosted Chicago in the final baseball games at Cleveland Stadium.

Cleveland's new, state-of-the-art ballpark signaled that the Indians intended to be a baseball force again. The new look organization attracted two key free agents, both ex-Orioles in pitcher Dennis Martinez and first baseman Eddie Murray. Martinez and Murray were accustomed to winning. These veterans joined an emerging young powerhouse featuring Alomar, Baerga, Kenny Lofton (swiped by Hart from Houston in a 1991 trade) and Cleveland farm products Albert Belle, Jim Thome, Manny Ramirez and pitcher Charles Nagy. The Tribe slugged its way into a first place battle with the White Sox in the new A.L. Central, only to have the excitement halted by a players' strike starting August 12. The player-owner dispute wiped out the rest of the season and all postseason play.

Joe Charboneau and Rick Manning

When play began in 1995 (after 18 games of the 1995 schedule were lost before players and owners finally came together on a new agreement), the Indians fashioned one of the great seasons in baseball history, winning the club's first championship since 1954 and running away with the A.L. Central by a MLB record of 30 games. In Tribe history, only the 1954 Indians won more games or had a higher winning percentage than the 1995 club. Cleveland's offensive juggernaut was matched with outstanding pitching, bolstered by the acquisition of free agent Orel Hershiser. For the first time since 1968, Cleveland's pitching led the A.L. in ERA. Belle became the first player ever to combine 50 2B and 50 HR in the same season and the first to collect 100 EB hits in a season since Stan Musial in 1948. Jose Mesa, another former Oriole acquired by Hart in '92 in exchange for a minor leaguer, was forceed into the closer roll and responded with a near perfect 46 saves (a club record) in 48 chances. Cleveland swept past Boston in the A.L. Division Series and dispatched Seattle in the A.L. Championship Series. Only the overpowering pitching of the Atlanta Braves kept Cleveland from an absolute dream season as Atlanta, making its third World Series appearance in five years, shutdown the Tribe in six games.

Cleveland fans showed unprecedented support for a MLB club by selling out the entire 1996 season prior to opening day. The Tribe proved its 1995 season was no fluke by winning another 99 games (best in the majors for the second straight year), again leading the A.L. in batting average and ERA, and capturing another A.L. Central Championship with relative ease, despite a disappointing season from free agent acquisition and expected pitching ace Jack McDowell. Belle and Lofton became the club's all-time leaders in home runs and stolen bases, respectively. The postseason was a different story as the Orioles shocked Cleveland by winning the A.L. Division series in four games. Hart and company proved able to retool on the fly in 1997. After losing Belle to the White Sox via free agency, Hart acquired slugger Matt Williams via trade. Another daring deal, just prior to opening day, sent free agent to be Lofton to the Braves and brought outfielders Marquis Grissom and David Justice to Cleveland. Cleveland struggled to a third straight division title with a record of 86-75 (second worst of any 1997 playoff team). The postseason was another story. Led by Alomar, who had a storybook season, Cleveland embarked on one of the most exciting months in franchise history. Thrilling victories over the Yankees (in five games) and the Orioles (in six games) put Cleveland back in the World Series for the second time in three years. The Indians and Florida Marlins went past the wire, taking the seventh game of the Series into extra innings before the Marlins prevailed in, perhaps, the most heartbreaking loss in Tribe history. Cleveland had twelve new players on its 1997 postseason roster that were not on the roster for the 1996 Division series. Unlikely October heroes for the

Carlos Baerga

Steve Olin

'97 Indians included rookie pitcher Jaret Wright, pitcher Chad Ogea, and infielder Tony Fernandez.

By 1998, Cleveland was clearly dominant in the A.L. Central and the Tribe's fourth straight division crown was almost a foregone conclusion. Lofton was back, reacquired as a free agent, and Travis Fryman replaced Williams as Cleveland and Arizona swapped third basemen. After winning the Central with a record of 89-73, Cleveland won another Division series from the Red Sox to earn a third ALCS berth in four years. Cleveland was the only team to win any postseason games from the record-setting 1998 Yankees, but lost the ALCS in six games.

For 1999, the Indians promised a greater regular season effort and delivered with a 97-65 record and a fifth straight A.L. Central Division title. Only two other MLB teams have won as many as five-straight Division titles. Led by Manny Ramirez and Roberto Alomar (another ex-Oriole signed as a free agent), Cleveland set a club record with 1,009 runs scored, only the seventh team overall to score 1,000 or more runs in a single MLB season. Ramirez drove in 165 runs to break Hal Trosky's club record (162) set in 1936. Robbie Alomar set club records for home runs (24) and RBI (120) by a switch-hitter. R. Alomar and Vizquel both earned Gold Gloves for defense, the sixth-straight for Omar. Young Bartolo Colon's 18 wins matched the most by a Tribe pitcher since Blyleven's 19 in 1984. Once more though, Cleveland's ultimate goal was denied when the Red Sox defeated the Tribe in five games in the Division Series. After the season Hargrove, the second winningest manager in club history (721 wins), was dismissed and hitting coach Charlie Manuel was hired as his successor. Manuel led Cleveland's Triple-A affiliates to league titles in 1992 and 1993.

Dennis Martinez and Orel Hershiser

The Jacobs Era of Indians baseball ended in February 2000 when Lawrence J. Dolan and family trusts acquired all outstanding stock in the Cleveland Indians Baseball Company, Inc. The first year of the Dolan era of Indians baseball was one of the most exciting in club history, despite the end of Cleveland's run of division titles. Cleveland's first true race for a postseason berth since 1959 ended on the final day of the regular season when Seattle edged the Indians for the A.L. Wild Card. Cleveland reached the 90-win mark (90-72) for the fourth time in six seasons. Free agent acquisition Chuck Finley tied Dave Burba for the club high in wins (16). Cleveland's sellout streak reached 454 consecutive games (ended at 455 in 2001) and Cleveland led MLB in attendance for the first time since 1948.

In 2001 the Indians returned to the top of the Central Division standings, sporting a record of 91-71 to garner their sixth A.L. Central Division flag in seven seasons since 1995. Jim Thome hit the most homers in club history by a left-handed hitter (49) with a career-high 124 RBI and Juan Gonzalez, in his only year with the Indians, added 140 RBI. Twenty-one year old sensation C.C. Sabathia, the Tribe's #1 pick in the 1998 draft, won a team-high 17 games and came in second in the A.L. Rookie of the Year balloting.

Sandy Alomar

The success of the 1990s, which included eight straight seasons from 1994-2001, caught up to the innovative Mark Shapiro after he replaced John Hart on November 1, 2001 after Hart's 11 seasons at the helm. Years of picking late in the first round and a depleted farm system - from the trades of upper level prospects to keep the major league team at championship-level in the late 1990s - finally caught up to the Indians and Shapiro in 2002. The Indians stumbled to a 74-88 record and a third place A.L. Central finish in 2002 as Joel Skinner managed the club in the second half after Charlie Manuel was removed in his third season at the helm. Individually the season was highlighted by Jim Thome's single-season club record of 52 homers in his final year with the Tribe, departing with a career-record total of 334 home runs as an Indian.

Kenny Lofton and Mike Hargrove

1997 "Clinch" Celebration

Eric Wedge was named the club's 39th manager for the 2003 season as the Indians posted a mark of 68-94 in his first season and played .500 ball from May thru the end of August. The Indians recorded the fifth lowest ERA (4.21) in the A.L. in 2003 as Jody Gerut led the team in HR and RBI on his way to Sporting News Rookie of the Year honors. The Indians improved by 12 wins (80-82) in Wedge's second season and were only 1.0 game out of first place in August. Victor Martinez established a new franchise record for RBI by a catcher (101) and Travis Hafner plated 109 runs as the Indians offense finished fifth in the league in runs scored (858). The 2004 campaign was also the final season of all-time Indians great shortstop Omar Vizquel, who played in the second most games in franchise history at the position.

With an impressive nucleus already in place, the Indians added 69 years of Major League and 19 years of postseason experience for 2005 as the vision of Shapiro and leadership of Wedge paid major dividends in the form of a record of 93-69. It was the sixth best record in MLB and the eighth highest win total in club history despite narrowly missing the playoffs on the season's final day. The consecutive double-digit win increases from 2003-05 were the first for the club since 1946-48. They were only the third team in baseball to accomplish it since 1970 over a full season.

Cliff Lee (18-5) led the A.L. in winning percentage and Kevin Millwood became the first Indians pitcher since 1982 to lead the league in ERA as Carl Willis' stable of pitchers won the team ERA title for the first time since 1996.

After a fourth place finish in 2006 (78-84), the Indians again laid claim to the A.L. Central Division title in 2007 with a MLB-best equaling record of 96-66 and advanced to their first A.L. Championship Series since 1998 after defeating New York in four games in the Division Series, clinching game four in Yankee Stadium before losing to Boston in seven games.

C.C. Sabathia (19-7, 3.21) became the first Indians pitcher since 1972 to win the A.L. Cy Young and Eric Wedge was named A.L. Manager of the Year (first Indians manager ever so honored). Fausto Carmona came out of nowhere to win 19 games and finished second in the A.L. in ERA to give the Indians the best 1-2 tandem in baseball. Victor Martinez led the club with 114 RBI and finished seventh in the A.L. MVP voting. Grady Sizemore finished fourth in the league with 118 runs scored and won his first Rawlings Gold Glove. Indians starters led the A.L. in ERA as the Indians finished third in total team ERA.

The Indians clawed their way to an 81-81 record in 2008 after being 15-games below .500 in early August as Cliff

Lee became the second consecutive Indians pitcher to capture the Cy Young Award going 22-3 with a 2.54 ERA in 31 starts (223.1IP, 214H, 63ER) after not making the Tribe's postseason roster the year before after a stint in Triple-A. It was the most wins by an Indians pitcher since Gaylord Perry in 1972 and the second highest winning percentage (.880) in club history.

It was the poor start of 2008 to go along with the expiring contracts of Casey Blake and C.C. Sabathia that led the Indians to go a younger, more competitive and athletic direction after trading deadline acquisitions of Carlos Santana, Michael Brantley and Matt LaPorta. This direction was further amplified in 2009 when the Indians finished with a 65-97 (.401) in Eric Wedge's final season as manager of the Indians. Lingering injuries to Grady Sizemore and a pitching staff that posted a team ERA over 5.00 led the Indians to trade Lee, Victor Martinez, Ryan Garko and Mark DeRosa in trades that netted the Indians promising players in the form of Chris Perez, Carlos Carrasco, Justin Masterson, Jason Donald and Lou Marson.

The hiring of Manny Acta in 2010 brought a fresh, energetic voice to the franchise as he guided the Indians to a fourth place A.L. Central finish (69-93) in his first season, including a mark of 35-39 (.473) in the second half, the 3rd best mark in the A.L. Central after the break with the youngest club in Major League Baseball to end the season. Shin-Soo Choo, acquired in 2006 from Seattle for Ben Broussard, became the first Indian in club history to record consecutive seasons of 20 home runs and 20 stolen bases going along with a .300 batting average. Closer Chris Perez recorded the second lowest relief ERA in the A.L. (1.71).

The acquisitions of 2008-09 coupled with a revamped draft strategy (7 of the club's top 10 prospects were drafted from 2008-10 and 2010 was rated MLB's best by Baseball America) and successful player development system have the Indians poised to field an exciting, championship-caliber team for seasons to come. Under the leadership of Chris Antonetti, who succeeded Mark Shapiro after the 2010 campaign, the Indians look to build on 2010's improvement and add to the current influx of talent.

History of Cleveland Names

1869 FOREST CITYS

Cleveland was known as the Forest Citys.

1889 SPIDERS

The 1889 Cleveland club was comprised of so many tall and skinny players, the management decided to accent their features, and changed the name of the club to Spiders.

1900 BLUES

Referring to the bright blue uniforms worn by the team.

1902 BRONCHOS

The 1902 Cleveland players didn't like the name Bluebirds. They voted and chose the more forceful nickname Bronchos.

1903 NAPS

The team discarded the blue uniforms and a local daily newspaper sponsored a naming contest. "Naps" was selected in honor of Napoleon Lajoie.

1915 INDIANS

Upon Lajoie's leaving Cleveland for Philadelphia following the 1914 season, team officials determined a new name was in order for the 1915 season.

According to The Plain Dealer of January 17, 1915, team owner Charles W. Somers invited the Cleveland baseball writers to help in the selection of a new club name. The writers solicited their readers for suggestions. Through this process the name "Cleveland Indians" was selected. "Indians" was one of the names used by the National League club of Cleveland two decades earlier.

LOUIS FRANCIS SOCKALEXIS

Louis Francis Sockalexis (1871-1913) was a Penobscot Indian from Old Town, Maine and the first American Indian to play major league baseball and be clearly recognized as an Indian. Half Sioux, half white, James Madison Toy played in the late 1880s through the early 1890s, but there are no indications that his contemporaries knew of his Native American heritage. That was hardly the case with Sockalexis, whose very presence during Cleveland's spring training of 1897, caused a sensation wherever he went. Indeed, the 1997 season marked the 100th Anniversary of Sockalexis' first season in a Cleveland uniform, a season comparable only to that of Jackie Robinson and Larry Doby as a landmark campaign featuring an athlete attempting to hurdle prejudice to succeed.

Sockalexis was considered one of the greatest collegiate baseball players of his day. He batted well over .400 in two seasons at Holy Cross College in Worcester, MA. In addition to his slugging prowess, "Sock" was known for his legendary long, accurate throws from the outfield to cut down runners and his base-stealing skill (he once stole six bases in one game against Brown University). So spectacular were his feats on the diamond at the school that, in 1956, when the Holy Cross Athletic Hall of Fame was created, Sockalexis was the very first athlete inducted.

Baseball Hall of Fame player-manager Hughie Jennings wrote of him: "At no time has a player crowded so many remarkable accomplishments into such a short period of time as Sockalexis. He should have been the greatest player of all times - greater than Cobb, Wagner, Lajoie, Hornsby or any of the other men who made history for the game."

In spite of the presence of three future Hall of Fame stars on the 1897 Cleveland Spiders club - Cy Young, Bobby Wallace and Jesse Burkett - it was Sockalexis everyone turned out to see play. And they were not disappointed.

RingTheBell.tv on Archive.org

Against Hall of Fame pitcher Amos Rusie, possessor of the fastest and nastiest breaking pitch of his day, Sockalexis powered a long home run in his very first at bat in New York City at the Polo Grounds.

Louis Sockalexis was inducted into the Maine Sports Hall of Fame in 1985. He was also inducted, along with his second cousin, marathon runner Andrew Sockalexis (Boston Marathon second place finisher 1912 and 1913, 4th place finisher in the 1912 Olympic Marathon at Stockholm), into the American Indian Athletic Hall of Fame in April, 2000 in ceremonies in Tulsa, OK.

The old National League club began to be referred to as the "Indians" upon the arrival of Louis Francis Sockalexis, a Penobscot Indian from Old Town, Maine, who was a member of that club in 1897.

The following day on January 18, 1915, on page eight of The Plain Dealer, the choice of the name "Indians" was further amplified.

"Many years ago there was an Indian named Sockalexis who was the star of the Cleveland baseball club. As batter, fielder and baserunner he was a marvel. Sockalexis so far outshone his teammates that he naturally came to be regarded as the whole team. The "fans" throughout the country began to call the Clevelanders the "Indians." It was an honorable name, and while it stuck the team made an excellent record.

It has now been decided to revive this name. The Clevelands of 1915 will be the "Indians." There will be no real Indians on the roster, but the name will recall fine traditions. It is looking backward to a time when Cleveland had one of the most popular teams of the United States. It also serves to revive the memory of a single great player who has been gathered to his fathers in the happy hunting ground of Abenakis."

PROGRESSIVE FIELD

Historians are certain to identify the year 1994 as a significant time in the history of the city of Cleveland. The Gateway Sports and Entertainment Complex, consisting of Progressive Field (formerly Jacobs Field), the current home of the Indians, and Quicken Loans Arena (formerly Gund Arena), will be remembered as the crowning jewel in the city's ever-changing urban landscape.

Progressive Insurance purchased the naming rights to the ballpark on January 11, 2008.

Gateway was made possible by its own 50/50 public/private partnership- through the support and cooperative efforts of the Cleveland business community, government, the Indians, our neighbors the Cavaliers, sports fans, and most importantly, the people of Cuyahoga County.

Progressive Field is an urban ballpark in the truest sense, both architecturally and aesthetically. Built within the physical boundaries of the three main streets in downtown Cleveland (Ontario to west, Carnegie to south, and East 9th Street to the east), Progressive Field offers a fan-friendly facility featuring an intimate environment. The exposed steel design, which matches that of the many bridges on the north coast, and the vertical light towers, which match the smoke stacks of Cleveland's industrial zone and the high-rise office buildings in Cleveland's downtown area, are just a couple of Progressive Field's architectural features that blend with Cleveland's cityscape.

Progressive Field initially opened its gates to fans on Saturday, April 2, 1994 for an exhibition game against the Pittsburgh Pirates, but the official opener occurred on Monday, April 4, 1994. The Indians came from behind in exciting fashion to defeat the Seattle Mariners 4-3 on an 11th inning single by Wayne Kirby. The opener included all of the pageantry of Opening Day, highlighted by President Bill Clinton throwing out the first pitch.

Two Cleveland institutions - the Cleveland Indians and Progressive Insurance - joined forces on January 11, 2008 to help bring the excitement of championship baseball to fans everywhere. What was known as Jacobs Field since 1994 is now Progressive Field.

Progressive, a leading car, motorcycle and commercial auto insurer, partnered with the Indians on a 16-year deal for the naming rights to the ballpark and will also become the Official Auto Insurer of the Cleveland Indians. Progressive's payments to the Indians over the 16-year term of the agreement will average approximately $3.6 million annually.

Now entering its 18th season, Progressive Field has been the site for the World Series twice (1995 and 1997), postseason play seven times (1995-1999, 2001, 2007 - 34 home games, 1,517,431 fans), and the 1997 All-Star Game. It led Major League Baseball in attendance in 2000, sold out prior to Opening Day five seasons (1996-2000), set a Major League record for consecutive sellouts with 455, and has entertained more than 42 million fans.

HERITAGE PARK

Located in the center field area of the ballpark, Heritage Park is available to all fans before, during and after all home games and is also available daily for special events throughout the season. Fans are able to explore and honor the rich 108-year history of the franchise as Heritage Park houses three distinct areas honoring the club's past – the Indians Hall of Fame (membership is below), a two-tiered monument park setting that honors 37 of the greatest names in club history, 38 memorable moments in club history placed throughout the area at ground level and the Top 100 Indians Roster as selected during the 100th Anniversary Celebration in 2001. The top-tier rotunda area (pictured above) honors the 15 members of the Indians Hall of Fame who are also enshrined in Cooperstown.

INDIANS DISTINGUISHED HALL OF FAME

(Established 2009)

Bill Veeck/Owner – 1946-49	Inducted in 2009
Richard E. Jacobs/Owner – 1986-2000	Inducted in 2009
Cy Slapnicka/GM & Scout – 1935-61	Inducted in 2010

CLEVELAND INDIANS HALL OF FAME

The Cleveland Indians Hall of Fame was established in 1951 to recognize those players who achieved greatness in a Cleveland uniform. Selected by a committee consisting of baseball historians, writers, broadcasters and executives, inductees must have been active at least three seasons for Cleveland and be retired at least one year.

In 2009, the Indians organization established the Distinguished Hall of Fame to honor those non-uniformed personnel whose contributions made a significant impact on the fortunes of the franchise.

Sandy Alomar (1990-2000) – C — Inducted in 2009

Set club record for home runs by a catcher (91) as the team leader during the most exciting decade in Indians history. The six-time All-Star led Cleveland to five consecutive (1995-99) A.L. Central Division titles. He won the 1990 A.L. Rookie of the Year Award and a Gold Glove after being acquired from San Diego. His best season of 1997 followed several injury-marred years. He homered and was MVP of the All-Star Game in Cleveland; batted .324 with 21 homers and 83 RBI to lead the Tribe to its second World Series in two years; and had five homers and 19 RBI in the 1997 postseason.

Earl Averill (1929-39) – OF — Inducted in 1951

The "Earl of Snohomish" was the third player to have their number retired (#3) by the Indians (1975). His 226 home runs with the Tribe was a club record until 1996. The six-time A.L. All-Star is the Tribe's all-time leader in runs (1,154), triples (121), RBI (1,084), total bases (3,200) and extra-base hits (724). He had a .322 average with 1,903 hits in 1,509 games for the Indians and hit .378 (A.L.-best 232 hits) in 1936. He was elected to National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1975.

Jim Bagby Sr. (1916-23) – RHP — Inducted in 2007

"Sarge" went 122-85 with 131 complete games for Cleveland, including 23-13 with a 1.96 ERA in 1917. His "Fadeaway Pitch" found fame in 1920 while he led the A.L. in wins (31-12 record), complete games (30) and innings (339.2), helping the Indians win their first World Series. He was the first pitcher to hit a World Series homer – a three-run shot to the centerfield bleachers at League Park that helped beat Brooklyn, 8-1, in Game 5. His son Jim, Jr., went 55-54 for the Tribe (1941-45).

Lou Boudreau (1938-50) – SS — Inducted in 1954

Most popular player of his era, the "Boy Manager" was driving force behind Tribe's 1948 World Series Title. The shortstop was A.L. MVP in 1948 (.355, 18 HR, 106 RBI). He was the winningest manager in club history (728-649) as player-manager from 1942-50. Boudreau made seven All-Star Game appearances and was the batting champion (.327) in 1944. He was the second Tribe player to have their uniform number (#5) retired. Among the clubs all-time leaders in games, runs, hits, doubles and extra-base hits. Lou was elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1970.

Bill Bradley (1901-10) – 3B — Inducted in 1957

The native Clevelander anchored hot corner in first decade of club's franchise history. He jumped his contract with the Chicago Cubs in 1901 to join Cleveland. He set a number of career highs (.304, 11 HR, 77 RBI, 104 runs) in 1902 and had a career-best 84 RBI in 1904. Led A.L. third baseman in fielding percentage four times and hit .272 in 1,231 games with the Indians. Led the club in doubles and triples three times, runs scored twice and is among Tribe leaders in triples and steals. Bradley hit for the cycle on September 24, 1903 at Washington. After his playing days, he became a long time scout for the Indians.

Ray Chapman (1912-20) – SS — Inducted in 2006

Standout shortstop was fatally beaned by pitcher Carl Mays of the Yankees on August 16, 1920 at Polo Grounds in New York, and died the next day. "Chappie" had been Cleveland's starting shortstop since 1913 and batted .300 or better in three of his final seasons. His 52 steals in 1917 was a club record until 1980. Led A.L. in runs (84) and walks (84) in 1918 and led club in runs scored three times. Hit .278 with 233 stolen bases in 1,015 games and was a fine fielder. Ranks among Tribe leaders in steals and triples.

Rocky Colavito (1955-59, 1965-67) – OF — Inducted in 2006

Electrified fans with power bat and strong throwing arm. "The Rock" tied Major League record with four consecutive HR June 10, 1959 at Baltimore. He hit 300 homers faster than all but four players in the history of baseball. Led the A.L. with 42 HR in 1959 and 108 RBI in 1965. In 1966, Colavito led the A.L. in slugging (.620) in 1958, home runs (42) in 1959, RBI (108) in 1965, and walks (93) and fielding (1.000) in 1966. He's among Tribe's all-timeleaders in home runs and slugging percentage, hitting 190 homers in 913 games for the club and 374 in his career (1955-68). The three-time A.L. All-Star (1959, 1965-66) was voted most memorable personality in club history in a poll conducted in 1975.

Stan Coveleski (1916-24) – RHP — Inducted in 1966

Fourth winningest pitcher in club history and was mound star of 1920 World Series, tying Series record with three wins and brought a championship to Cleveland with 3-0 victory in the seventh game vs. Brooklyn. He allowed just two runs (0.67 ERA) in the three complete-game victories the entire series. Won 20+ games in four consecutive seasons (1918-21). Coveleski pitched a club-record 19 innings on May 14, 1918. Went 172-123 with 2.80 ERA, 31 shutouts and 194 complete games in nine years with Indians and was elected to National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1969.

Larry Doby (1947-55, 1958) – OF — Inducted in 1966

First African-American player in A.L. history. He helped the Tribe to two A.L. pennants as an all-around star outfielder. Doby, 23, was signed by Bill Veeck in 1947 after starring with the Negro League Newark Eagles. Hit .318 in 1948 World Series, including a decisive home run in game four. The outfielder led the A.L. in homers (32) and runs (104) in 1952 and homers (32) and RBI (126) in 1954. Among Tribe's all-time leaders in HR, RBI, walks and slugging percentage. Was the fifth player to have uniform number retired (#14) by Indians and was elected to National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1998.

Bob Feller (1936-56) – RHP — Inducted in 1957

Feller is arguably the greatest pitcher in club history. He is the Tribe's all-time leader in wins (266), strikeouts (2,581), walks (1,764) starts (484), complete games (279) and innings (3,827). "Rapid Robert" led the A.L. in wins six times and strikeouts seven times. He set club single-season records for strikeouts (348), innings (371), shutouts (10) and complete games (36) in 1946. Feller pitched a club-record three no-hitters and 12 one-hitters. The eight-time A.L. All-Star tossed 44 career shutouts and was the first player to have his uniform number retired (#19) by the Indians. A true patriot, Bob proudly served in the U.S. Navy from 1941-45. He was elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1962.

Wes Ferrell (1927-33) – RHP — Inducted in 2009

The only pitcher in MLB history to win 20 or more games in each of his first four full seasons, he was 91-48 during that time (1929-32). Compiled a 102-62 record with 113 complete games during his career in Cleveland. Overall with six teams through 1933, he had a 193-128 record. Holds the MLB record for home runs by a pitcher (37). Overall, he hit .280 with 38 homers and 208 RBI. Though he twice won 25 games, his most complete season was 1931 with Cleveland. He had a 22-12 record, 27 complete games, three saves, nine homers, 30 RBI and a .319 batting average. Owns the third best winning pct. (.622) in club history (based on 1,000 or more innings pitched).

Elmer Flick (1902-10) – OF — Inducted in 1963

The speedy Bedford, Ohio native won 1905 A.L. batting title (.308). He led the league in triples three times (1905-'07) and steals twice. Ranks third in club history with 106 triples and sixth in steals (207). His career peaked from 1904-07 with four consecutive seasons batting over .300. The Tribe turned down Detroit's trade offer of Ty Cobb for Flick, who hit .299 in 935 games with Indians and .313 with 353 steals in his 13-year career. He was elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1963.

Mike Garcia (1948-59) – RHP — Inducted in 2007

"The Big Bear" had a 142-96 record and 21 saves for Cleveland as he joined Hall of Famers Bob Feller, Bob Lemon and Early Wynn in the Indians' famed "big four" rotation. A three-time All-Star (1952-54), he twice led the A.L. in ERA (2.36 as a rookie in 1949 and 2.64 in 1954 as Cleveland won 111 games and the A.L. pennant). Garcia won 18 or more games in four straight seasons from 1951-54.

Joe Gordon (1947-50, 1958-60) – 2B/Manager — Inducted in 2008

The acrobatic second baseman teamed with shortstop Lou Boudreau to form one of the finest double-play combinations in franchise history. "Flash" hit 32 home runs with 124 RBI in 1948 as the Indians were crowned World Series Champions. During his 11 year career, Gordon was a nine-time All-Star, including tree times with Cleveland (1947-49). An inspirational leader, he became manager of the Indians in 1958 and guided the club to a second place finish in 1959. Gordon was involved in one of the most bizarre trades in baseball history when, as manager of the Indians in 1960, he was traded to Detroit for Tigers Manager Jimmy Dykes. It was the only time in baseball history that managers were traded.

Mel Harder (1927-47) – RHP — Inducted in 1951

Revered legend made his mark as a pitcher and pitching coach, wearing an Indians uniform for 36 consecutive seasons. His 20 consecutive seasons as Tribe player and 582 games pitched are club records. He had a 223-186 career record and is second to Bob Feller in innings pitched, wins and starts. Harder's 13 scoreless All-Star innings, over four games (1934-37), is a Major League record. He won 15 or more games eight times and led the Indians in wins five times, innings pitched and ERA four times. For 16 seasons, Harder was the Tribe's pitching coach for 16 seasons (1948-63) before being the fourth Indians player to have their uniform number retired (#18).

Mike Hargrove (1979-99) – 1B/Manager — Inducted in 2008

"Grover" spent 21 years with the Indians organization – including eight and a half seasons as the Tribe's manager (1991-99) and seven as a player (1979-85). He batted .325, .304 and .317 in his first three seasons with the Tribe, including a 23-game hitting streak in 1980. Hargrove compiled a 721-591 record as Indians manager, winning two A.L. pennants (1995 and 1997) and five consecutive A.L. Central Division Titles (1995-99). His 721 wins as manager ranked second to Lou Boudreau's 728 and his .550 winning percentage as Tribe skipper ranked third all-time to Boudreau and Al Lopez.

Jim Hegan (1941-57) – C — Inducted in 1966

Was the catcher for the great Tribe pitching staffs of the 1950s, including the championship teams of 1948 and 1954. Known as a brilliant defensive catcher and handler of pitchers. Hegan caught 100+ games each season from 1947-56 and holds the catchers' club record for games (1,491) and putouts (6,959). He led A.L. catchers in double plays four times, putouts three times and assists twice. Caught three no-hitters and six different 20-game winning pitchers with the Tribe. Was a five-time A.L. All-Star, playing in 1,526 games over his 14 seasons with the Indians.

Joe Jackson (1910-15) – OF — Inducted in 1951

"Shoeless" Joe Jackson, in 674 games, is the franchise leader in career batting average (.375). He set the club single-season records for batting average (.408) and hits (233) in 1911. Jackson led the A.L. in hits (226) and triples (26) in 1912 and hits (197), doubles (36) and slugging (.551) in 1913. Considered one of the greatest pure hitters in baseball history, only Ty Cobb and Rogers Hornsby have a higher Major League lifetime batting average than Jackson's .356. He was traded to Chicago (A.L.) in 1915 and barred from MLB in 1921 for involvement in the 1919 Black Sox scandal.

Addie Joss (1902-10) – RHP — Inducted in 2006

Joss is the owner of a perfect game, tossed on October 2, 1908 in the heat of a pennant race. The 1-0 win against Chicago ranks as one of baseball's all-time top pitching performances. Set the club record for ERA (1.16) in 1908. Throughout his time with the Tribe, he went 160-97, including a no-hitter against the White Sox on April 29, 1910, and is the Tribe's all-time leader in ERA (1.89) and shutouts (45), second in winning percentage (.623) and complete games (234). The righthander had four 20-win seasons (1905-1908), but died tragically in 1911 at the age of 31 of tubercular meningitis. He was elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1978.

Ken Keltner (1937-49) – 3B — Inducted in 1951

A seven-time All-Star at the hot corner with a glove and bat, Keltner made two brilliant defensive plays to help halt Joe DiMaggio's 56-game hitting streak in 1941 at Cleveland Stadium. He is the club's all-time leader at third base in games, putouts, assists and double plays. He totaled 163 homers, 850 RBI and .276 average in 1,513 games with the Indians. Had career highs of 31 HR, 119 RBI, 91 runs in 1948 and .325 average in 1939. He is also among the Tribe All-Time Leaders in games, at-bats, hits, doubles, home runs, total bases, RBI and extra-base hits.

Napoleon Lajoie (1902-14) – 2B — Inducted in 1951

An all-time great second baseman, he revived Cleveland baseball upon his arrival in 1902. He led the A.L. in batting average in 1903-04 and 1910. The team name of Naps from 1903 to 1914 was in his honor. He is the Tribe's all-time leader in hits (2,046) and at-bats (6,043) and among leaders in games, runs, doubles, triples, total bases, RBI, extra-base hits, batting average and steals. The player-manager from 1905-09, is a member of the 3,000 hit club and was elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1937.

Bob Lemon (1946-58) – RHP — Inducted in 1960

Conversion from position player to pitcher launched his Hall of Fame career that included 37 home runs and a no-hitter. A seven-time 20-game winner, led the A.L. in wins three times (1950, 1954-55). Trails only Bob Feller and Mel Harder in club wins (207), starts (350) and innings pitched (2,850). Lemon, a seven-time All-Star, went 207-108 with 22 saves in 460 games and is among the Tribe's All-Time Leaders in strikeouts, shutouts, winning pct. and complete games. He won two games in the 1948 Fall Classic and was the sixth Tribe player to have their number retired (#21). He was elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1976.

Kenny Lofton (1992-96, 1998-2001, 2007) – OF — Inducted in 2010

Among the most popular Indians ever as the catalyst atop the lineup of the great Cleveland clubs of the 1990s. Played 10 seasons becoming all-time club leader in stolen bases with 452. Ranks 3rd all-time in runs scored (975); 9th in hits (1,512); and 11th in walks (611). Led American League in stolen bases five straight season 1992-96. Established AL and club rookie record w/66 stolen bases in 1992. Led league in hits in 1994 w/160, and in triples in '95 w/13. Dynamic style and athletic ability earned him four gold gloves. Was a five-time A.L. All-Star. Member of Indians 100th Anniversary Starting Lineup.

Al Lopez (1951-56) – Manager — Inducted in 2006

"El Senor" guided Tribe to 1954 A.L. pennant and five second place finishes to the NY Yankees in six seasons at helm of Indians. Winning percentage of .617 (570-354) is best in club history. Earned 1,140 career wins as manager and is among the All-Time Major League leaders. The Hall of Famer was a standout catcher for 19 seasons, one with the Tribe (1947).

Sam McDowell (1961-71) – LHP — Inducted in 2006

"Sudden Sam" overpowered A.L. hitters, winning five strikeout titles (1965-66, 68-70). He twice topped 300 "Ks"-325 in 1965 and 304 in 1970. An imposing lefthander ranks second to Bob Feller in club history with 2,159 strikeouts in 2,109 innings. Among Tribe all-time leaders in ERA, shutouts, innings pitched and starts. The six-time A.L. All-Star went 122-109 with a 2.99 ERA in Cleveland and had a career-best 1.81 ERA in 1968.

Charles Nagy (1990-2000) – RHP — Inducted in 2007

A member of the 1988 US Olympic team and first-round draft pick, Charlie became a three-time A.L. All-Star (1992, 96, 99). He was Cleveland's most consistent starter, posting a 129-103 record for a team that won six A.L. Central Division Titles in seven years. The best years include 1992 (17-10, career-best 2.96 ERA, 10 complete games and three shutouts) and 1996 (17-5, 3.41 ERA). His single in 1992 was the first hit by a pitcher in an All-Star Game in 29 years. He currently ranks 10th in innings pitched and fifth in strikeouts in Indians history. Nagy was among the most popular players in the era, pitching in 15 postseason games, including the World Series in 1995 and 1997.

Steve O'Neill (1911-23) – C — Inducted in 1951

O'Neill spent his first 13 years of 17-year career in Cleveland, catching 149 of 154 regular season games in the 1920 Championship season. Had a streak of nine straight seasons (1915-23) with 100+ games behind the plate. He is the Tribe's career catching leader in assists and double plays. Hit .300 or better three straight seasons (1920-22). Played in 1,365 games for Indians and had a 199-168 record as the team's Manager from 1935-37.

Satchel Paige (1948-49) – RHP — Inducted in 1965

Daring signing of Paige by Bill Veeck made difference in the 1948 A.L. pennant race. The Negro League legend won six of his seven decisions down the stretch with a 2.48 ERA as a 42-year old rookie. His appearance in the 1948 World Series was the first ever by an African-American pitcher. He won hundreds of games from 1924 to 1948 before signing with the Indians. Paige was 10-8 with six saves in 52 games for the Tribe and was an all-time fan favorite, while pitching professionally into the 1960s. He was the first player inducted to the National Baseball Hall of Fame for his performance in the Negro Leagues (1971).

Al Rosen (1947-56) – 3B — Inducted in 2006

A stellar career was highlighted by an A.L. MVP season in 1953, the last Indian to do so. "Flip" came within one hit of winning the 1953 Triple Crown (.336 BA, 43 HR, 145 RBI), ending up losing the batting title that year by .001. He also led the AL that season in runs and hits (201). Rosen twice led the A.L. in homers and RBI (37 in 1950 and 105 in 1952, respectively being the other years). He had five straight 100+ RBI seasons from 1950-54 and is among the Tribe's All-Time Leaders in HRs and slugging percentage. In his last seven years (1950-56) before retiring at age 32, he averaged 27 homers, 86 runs, 102 RBI and a .287 average. The four-time A.L. All-Star was the hero of the 1954 All-Star Game in Cleveland when he hit two homers with five RBI.

Herb Score (1955-59) – LHP — Inducted in 2006

A dazzling pitching career, cut short by injury, was preceded by 30+ years as a beloved voice of Indians Baseball. The left-handed flame-thrower was the A.L. Rookie of the Year (16-10, 2.85 ERA) in 1955 and 20-game winner (20-9, 2.53 ERA) in 1956. The two-time All-Star led the majors in strikeouts both seasons (fanned 245 in 1955 and 263 in 1956). Having fanned 547 in his first 512 innings, Score never equaled his early success after being hit by a line drive on May 7, 1957, and retired in 1962 with a 55-46 mark. He began broadcasting Indians Baseball on TV in 1964, moved to radio booth in 1968 where he remained until his retirement after 1997 season, a total of 34 years as a Tribe broadcaster.

Joe Sewell (1920-31) – SS — Inducted in 1951

After replacing Ray Chapman in 1920, the rookie helped the Indians to a pennant and World Series kick-starting his Hall of Fame career. Having amazing bat control, this shortstop set a league-record for fewest strikeouts (only four in 608 ABs in 1925; just 114 in a 7,132 career ABs) and played in 1,103 straight games (1922-1930). Sewell topped A.L. shortstops in fielding percentage three times and led the A.L. in doubles (45) in 1924. He's among the Tribe's all-time leaders in games, at-bats, runs, hits, doubles, total bases, RBI, extra-base hits, batting average and walks. His younger brother, Luke, played for the Tribe (1921-1932, 1939). Sewell was elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1977.

Louis Francis Sockalexis (1897-99) – OF — Inducted in 2006

A Penobscot Indian from Old Town, Maine, Louis Sockalexis caused a nationwide sensation playing baseball in Cleveland in the spring of 1897 as the first American Indian to play professional baseball. Sockalexis was considered one of the top collegiate baseball players of his day, earning Hall of Fame honors at Holy Cross. "Sock" was known for his powerful bat, swiftness on the base paths, and his legendary long, accurate throws from the outfield. The Cleveland Indians organization is proud to acknowledge Louis Francis Sockalexis, a Native American who has left his mark on America's national pastime and inspired the nickname used to this very day.

Tris Speaker (1916-26) – OF — Inducted in 1951

The legendary center fielder, acquired from the Boston Red Sox for $50,000, was an Indians star and leader throughout his career in Cleveland. A player-manager from 1919-1926, the "Gray Eagle" led the Indians to the 1920 World Championship. He won the 1912 MVP and A.L. batting title (.387) in 1916. He is the Tribe's all-time leader in doubles (486) and outfield assists (449) and had 3,515 hits for a career .344 average. Speaker is the all-time Major League leader with 792 doubles. He was elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1937.

Andre Thornton (1977-87) – 1B/DH — Inducted in 2007

One of the Indians' great sluggers, "Thunder" provided consistent offense for a decade. The two-time All-Star totaled 214 homers, 419 extra-base hits, 1,954 total bases and 749 RBI, playing in 1,225 games in a Tribe uniform. He hit for the cycle at Boston's Fenway Park on April 22, 1978. Thornton had 33 homers, 105 RBI in 1978; 32 homers, 116 RBI in 1982 and 33 homers, 99 RBI in 1984. His 119 home runs are the most by an Indians player at Cleveland Municipal Stadium. A man of deep faith, Andre was the recipient of the Roberto Clemente Award for playing excellence and exemplary community service in 1979.

Hal Trosky (1933-41) – 1B — Inducted in 1951

The slugging first baseman burst on the scene in 1934 with 35 HR, 142 RBI and a .330 BA. He held the club record for single-season RBI (162) from 1936 to 1999. Led the club in HR six times and RBI five times. In his 1,124 games with Cleveland (1933-41), Trosky totaled 216 homers, 911 RBI and a .313 average. He had career highs of 42 homers, 162 RBI, 124 runs and a .343 average in 1936. His career was curtailed after the 1941 season by migraine headaches.

Early Wynn (1949-57, 1963) – RHP — Inducted in 1972

The burly, tough hurler won 164 of 300 big league wins in an Indians uniform, including four 20-win seasons. For 10 years in Cleveland, his overall record with the Tribe was 164-102 with 10 saves and a 3.24 ERA. He led the club in innings pitched five times (1951, 1954-57) and strikeouts five times (1951-54, 1957). His 300th victory came in an Indians uniform on July 13, 1963 after a five-year stint with the White Sox. Wynn, a six-time All-Star (three with the Indians), was the Tribe's pitching coach from 1964-66. He was elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1972.

Cy Young (1889-99, 1909-11) – RHP — Inducted in 1951

The winningest pitcher in Major League Baseball History hailed from Newscomerstown, Ohio. "Cy" established his legend with the Cleveland Spiders of the National League. He led the Spiders to a Temple Cup Championship in 1895. From 1890 to 1898, Young won 241 games with the Spiders. After 10 years away from Cleveland, he returned to pitch in 63 games for the Indians (1909-11), winning 29 of his 511 big league victories. Young's complete career record included winning 20 or more games 15 times and 30 or more five times. He was elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1937, the second year players were inducted.

OWNERSHIP OF THE CLEVELAND INDIANS

Lawrence J. Dolan

Lawrence J. Dolan is the Owner of the Cleveland Indians Baseball Company Limited Partnership.

Dolan, 79, acquired all outstanding stock in the Cleveland Indians Baseball Company, Inc. (the sole general partner of the Limited Partnership) in a cash merger in February of 2000. He also acquired all of the limited partnership interests in the partnership.

The son of an inventor, Larry has invested his entire life in Cleveland, with the exception of his education at the University of Notre Dame in South Bend, Indiana, where he received his bachelor's (Arts and Letters, 1955) and law degrees (1956), and two years of service (1956-58) as a First Lieutenant in the United States Marine Corps.

In 1958, Larry returned to Northeast Ohio, accepting the position of assistant county prosecutor for Geauga County, and joined what is now known as Thrasher, Dinsmore & Dolan. Specializing in business, labor and civil litigation, he soon became a partner in the firm and later was named president and managing partner. For nearly 25 years, Larry managed the firm's practice and professional development, building a reputation of excellence regionally in general, civil and business law.

Larry currently actively participates in a variety of business interests and has provided financial resources and management to several start-up ventures throughout Northeast Ohio. He recently received an Honorary Doctor of Laws Degree from Cleveland State University. He is on the Major League Baseball Ownership Committee and the Executive Council. He is the Chairman of the recently created MLB Diversity Committee.

He and his wife Eva are active with the Catholic Church in a number of endeavors. Mrs. Dolan serves on the Ursuline College Board and is a participant of Mission Possible, a group that actively supports Haitian refugees in the Dominican Republic.

Larry and Eva have six children and fourteen grandchildren.

Larry Dolan's vision for the Cleveland Indians Baseball Club centers on investing in the three areas that matter most to Indians fans – 1) the Major League roster; 2) the Scouting and Player Development System, and 3) the continued improvements to Progressive Field, one of the premier sports facilities in North America.

The Dolan ownership has committed more than $780 million in player payroll and has consistently ranked among the top five in all of MLB in player development and scouting expenses. The two largest payrolls in club history have come during Dolan's reign as owner. Together, these combined resources have provided the foundation for developing Major League talent and securing long-term commitments to core players, including Grady Sizemore, Travis Hafner and Fausto Carmona. The club's player development system has consistently ranked in the top 10 in combined winning percentage since 2000 as the Indians were the only team in Major League Baseball with two full-season club's capturing league titles in 2010. The farm system was recently ranked among the top 10 in MLB by Baseball America and ESPN.com. The Dolan regime has also allotted significant resources to the First-Year Player Draft and in the last three years alone the club has added Lonnie Chisenhall, Alex White, Jason Kipnis, Drew Pomeranz, LeVon Washington, Tony Wolters and Joe Gardner - all of whom were named top 10 prospects in the organization entering 2011 by Baseball America. The Tribe's 2010 First-Year Player Draft was hailed by Baseball America as the top draft in MLB, indicative of ownership's commitment to developing players for the continued long-term success and stability of the franchise.

Paul J. Dolan

Chairman/Chief Executive Officer

Paul Dolan is starting his 12th season with the Cleveland Indians.

Dolan was born and raised in nearby Chardon, Ohio where he attended high school at Gilmour Academy in Gates Mills. He graduated with a B.A. degree from St. Lawrence University in 1980 and received his Juris Doctorate from the University of Notre Dame's Law School in 1983. Previously to joining the Indians, Paul was a partner at Thrasher, Dinsmore & Dolan, a Chardon, Ohio based law firm.

Paul is involved with many philanthropic and civic boards throughout the Northeast Ohio community and supports many causes, as well as a variety of business interests.

Paul and his wife, Karen, reside in Geauga County with their children.

"Our belief is that the key to the next championship era of Cleveland Indians Baseball is our commitment in the area of Player Development and Scouting. We are not entering this process blindly for a one-time chance at a title, but instead are building the franchise from the ground up in order to achieve and sustain championship success for years to come."

~ Larry Dolan, Owner, Cleveland Indians

CLUB EXECUTIVES

Mark Shapiro

President

Mark Shapiro enters his 1st season as President of the Cleveland Indians after spending the previous nine (9) seasons from 2002-2010 as Executive Vice President and General Manager of the club.

Shapiro was elevated to Club President following the 2010 season as 2011 season marks his 20th season overall with the organization since 1992. As President Mark is responsible for overseeing the Baseball and Business Operations Departments of the organization. In particular, he is currently leading the organization in an effort to shape and clarify its strategic vision and planning relative to Progressive Field and the business and brand development of the franchise.

During Shapiro's nine-year tenure as Executive Vice President and General Manager from November 2001 thru 2010 the Indians twice won 90 or more games (2005, 2007) and in 2007 the Indians captured the American League Central Division title with a Major League best-equaling record of 96-66 and advanced to within a game of the World Series. From 2004-2010, the club won 80-or-more games in four of seven seasons. The 96 wins in 2007 and 93 wins in 2005 represent the 7th and 9th highest win totals in Cleveland Indians franchise history, respectively.

Following both the 2005 and 2007 seasons Shapiro was named the Sporting News Executive of the Year, at the time the only active GM in Major League Baseball to win the award twice. He was also named the Executive of the Year by Baseball America in 2005. After the 2006 season, the Cleveland Indians organization was named "Organization of the Year" by TOPPS for the first time ever. Mark's 9-year tenure ranked 6th among the 30 current General Managers in Major League Baseball prior to his elevation to Club President in 2011.

During Mark's tenure as General Manager he re-constructed the Major League club and revitalized the Player Development system after inheriting an aging club with a depleted farm system. Through a series of shrewd trades and resourceful free agent signings the Indians consistently found themselves in contention and are poised to field competitive teams for seasons to come after a recent string of strong drafts and one of the deepest Player Development systems in all of Major League Baseball to go along with the current stable of Indians players acquired under Shapiro's reign (Grady Sizemore, Shin-Soo Choo, Carlos Santana, Asdrubal Cabrera, Travis Hafner, Chris Perez, Michael Brantley, Matt LaPorta, Carlos Carrasco, Justin Masterson, Mitch Talbot). The Indians were the only organization in Major League Baseball to have two full-season affiliates win league titles in 2010.

Prior to becoming General Manager, 43-year old Shapiro spent three seasons from 1999-2001 as Vice President, Baseball Operations/Assistant General Manager under John Hart after spending five seasons as the Tribe's Director of Minor League Operations from 1994-98.

During his tenure as Director of Minor League Operations Mark oversaw all aspects of the Tribe's player development system and Latin American operations. He implemented the Winter Development Program, now in its 14th year, and installed a system of individual player plans for every Tribe minor leaguer in the farm system. The system he helped to create and oversaw is based on a holistic philosophy of development and providing cutting edge resources to the Indians players in the mental, physical and fundamental domains. Mark Shapiro's career with the Cleveland Indians began in January of 1992 as an assistant in Baseball Operations and he was promoted to Assistant Director of Minor League Operations the following year.

The Baltimore, MD native played 4 years of football for Princeton University Tigers, graduating in 1989 with a degree in history. Following his graduation from Princeton, he worked in the real estate development industry in Southern California before latching on with the Tribe in 1992.

Mark was named to the elite "40 under 40" by Sports Business Journal recognizing the top 40 sports executives under the age of 40 and was on Baseball America's "Ten to Watch" list in 2007. His father, Ron, was a universally respected agent who represented Hall of Famers Cal Ripken, Jr., Kirby Puckett, Jim Palmer and Eddie Murray and has authored 3 books - including the "Power of Nice" and NY Times bestseller, "Dare to Prepare".

In December 2009 he was named by Commissioner Bud Selig to the Special Committee for On-Field Matters, a 14-man committee of baseball managers and executives to address on-field issues relative to Major League Baseball in its present form. The committee consists of Shapiro, Andy MacPhail, Terry Ryan, John Schuerholz, Chuck Armstrong, Paul Beeston, Bill DeWitt, Dave Montgomery, Tony La Russa, Jim Leyland, Mike Scioscia, Joe Torre, Frank Robinson and George Will.

Mark lives in Bentleyville, OH with his wife, Lissa Bockrath, a talented Cleveland-based artist. The couple has a son, Caden (8), and a daughter, Sierra (6). His brother-in-law, Eric Mangini, has been a head football coach in the NFL for the Cleveland Browns and New York Jets.

Dennis Lehman

Executive Vice President, Business

Dennis Lehman joined the Indians in September, 1988 as Senior Vice President, Business and was promoted to Executive Vice President, Business in December, 1992. Lehman is responsible for business aspects of the organization, including ballpark operations, merchandise, food and beverage, human resources, finance and broadcasting. He is also the liaison with the Gateway Economic Development Corporation of Greater Cleveland, which was responsible for the building of Progressive Field.

Prior to joining the Indians, Lehman spent eighteen years in baseball management with the Philadelphia Phillies.

Lehman is civically active in the Cleveland community, currently serving as a Board member of the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame & Museum, the Greater Cleveland Sports Commission, Business Volunteers Unlimited and Suburban Temple Kol Ami. He is a graduate of Leadership Cleveland, Class of 1991. He is Chairman Emeritus of the Cleveland Chapter of the American Red Cross; and Past Chairman of the Convention & Visitors Bureau of Greater Cleveland.

A native of Philadelphia, Lehman is a 1973 graduate of LaSalle University with a degree in Political Science.

Dennis and his wife, Ginny, reside in Chagrin Falls with their three sons.

Ken Stefanov

Senior Vice President, Finance & Chief Financial Officer

Ken Stefanov, entering his 22nd season with the Cleveland Indians, joined the Club in November, 1990 as Controller and was later promoted to Vice President, Finance and Chief Financial Officer in January, 1995. Ken began his career with the Indians in March, 1990 as an intern in the Community Relations Department. Stefanov oversees the Finance Department, Information Technology Department and all of the Business Operations associated with the Goodyear, Arizona Spring Training Operations, which include management of the Indians' Development Complex opened in 2009. Stefanov also oversees all risk management areas of the Club including player related insurance issues.

Over the course of his tenure at the Indians, Stefanov has been involved with many major financial and operational projects of the organization which included the planning and financing of Jacobs Field (now called Progressive Field), taking the club public on the NASDAQ exchange in 1998, taking the club private during the Dolan Family purchase of the Indians in 2000 and playing a major role in the transition of the Spring Training Operations from Florida to Arizona in 2009. Ken is currently a member of the Major League Baseball Non-Uniformed Personnel Pension Plan Committee and heads up an eight-team regional CFO group comprised of eight Midwest Major League Baseball teams which meets monthly to discuss various baseball financial and operational issues.

Prior to joining the Indians, Ken was employed with the Audit Division of Arthur Andersen & Co. from 1979-1982, and worked in several different financial positions with the May Department Stores in Cleveland from 1982-1989.

Stefanov, born and raised on the southeast side of Cleveland, is a graduate of Holy Name High School. He attended Bowling Green State University and graduated with a degree in Accounting in 1979. Ken subsequently received his Masters Degree in Sports Administration from Kent State University in 1990. He is also a non-practicing Certified Public Accountant in the state of Ohio.

Ken currently serves on the board of the Cleveland Animal Protective League and is active with Cleveland Indians Charities events. Past affiliations with other boards include the Achievement Centers for Children and the Northeast Ohio Leukemia and Lymphoma Society. His hobbies include reading, music, movies and golf.

Ken resides in Brecksville, Ohio with his wife, Kathy Roberts.

Vic Gregovits

Senior Vice President, Sales and Marketing

Vic Gregovits will begin his seventh season as the Indians Senior Vice President of Sales and Marketing after being named to the position on November 15, 2004.

As Senior Vice President, Sales and Marketing, Vic oversees all aspects of Indians ticket sales (premium seating, seasons, groups and single-game sales), as well as the club's marketing initiatives (advertising, broadcasting, corporate partnerships, communications and in game entertainment).

This is Vic's second stint with the Indians organization, having previously spent six seasons with the club from 1990 thru 1995 as Director of Ticket Sales, overseeing the sales and operations of the ticketing and premium seating areas. During his first tenure, Vic's efforts helped the Indians set franchise records for both season and group sales as the team made a successful move from Cleveland Stadium to Jacobs Field.

After leaving the Indians he became the Vice President of Sales for the Philadelphia Eagles, where he was responsible for all aspects of ticket sales and premium seating. In 1997, Vic was hired as the Vice President of Marketing and Broadcasting for the Pittsburgh Pirates. In this capacity, he managed all advertising, broadcasting, corporate partnerships, communications, premium seating and ticket sales.

Most recently, Vic was the Chief Executive Officer of the Island Sports Center at Robert Morris University in Pittsburgh, PA, where he oversaw all aspects of the sports complex operation - including advertising, marketing, facility management, memberships and leagues, retail, and coordination of the Sports Center's use by University athletics.

Gregovits, 49, holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration, with a Sport Management Major from Robert Morris University. He is a member of the Board of Directors of the American Cancer Society, a member of the Board of Trustees at Robert Morris University and was elected to Robert Morris University Sport Management Hall of Fame in 2006. Gregovits began his professional career with the Minnesota Strikers indoor soccer team in 1986, where he worked for one season before joining the Cleveland Cavaliers basketball club as a sales executive.

Vic and his wife, Patty, have two children (Jason, Samantha) and reside in Avon Lake, OH.

Bob DiBiasio

Vice President, Public Relations

Bob DiBiasio is entering his 33rd season in Major League Baseball, his 32nd with the Indians. He started in 1979 as Assistant Public Relations Director and was named Director of Public Relations in 1980. The Lakewood, OH native was promoted to his current position in 1988. His lone season away from the Tribe was 1987 when he served as Public Relations Director for the Atlanta Braves.

DiBiasio was the 1999 recipient of the prestigious Robert O. Fischel Award for Public Relations Excellence in Major League Baseball. He was also inducted into the Lakewood High School Distinguished Alumni Hall of Fame in 1999. In 1986, DiBiasio was named the Public Relations Director to Sports Illustrated's Dream Team. Received the ALS Cleveland chapter Lou Gehrig "Iron Horse" Award for Community Service in 2009, and also won the Mel Harder Distinguished Service Award for Community Involvement in 1997.

He serves as the President of Cleveland Indians Charities, is an Honorary Member of both the Executive Board of the Boys and Girls Clubs of Cleveland, and the Board of the Cleveland Baseball Federation. Is also a member of the Athletic Advisory Board at Notre Dame College.

DiBiasio graduated from Lakewood High School in 1973. He earned degrees in journalism and education from Ohio Wesleyan University in 1977. While at Ohio Wesleyan, Bob was sports editor of the school paper "The Transcript"; was the student Sports Information Director; and did color on OWU football and basketball broadcasts. DiBiasio also played one year of basketball and two years of baseball at OWU.

In 1978 he earned his Masters Degree in journalism from The Ohio State University and started a stint as Assistant Sports Editor of the Fremont (OH) News Messenger before joining the Indians.

DiBiasio resides in Solon, OH with wife Penny, daughter Julie and son Patrick.

Jim Folk

Vice President, Ballpark Operations

Jim Folk enters his 30th season in Major League Baseball and his 20th with the Cleveland Indians. Folk joined the organization in June of 1992 as Director of Ballpark Operations and was elevated to Vice President of Ballpark Operations in November of 2001.

In his role, Jim is responsible for all activities at Progressive Field - including ushering, security and police, guest services, construction & renovation, maintenance, custodial, playing field, and parking. He works with Gateway on lease and management issues and with the city of Cleveland on the staffing of the public safety crews at Progressive Field. Jim was heavily involved in the design and construction activities of the ballpark and oversaw the 1993 final series at Cleveland Stadium and 1994 opening at the then Jacobs Field. He recently acted as the Cleveland Indians Project Manager for the Goodyear Spring Training/Player Development Complex and Ballpark, overseeing design and construction activities on behalf of the club.

The Naperville, Illinois native's career in baseball began with the Chicago White Sox in 1979. He worked for the Sox for 10 seasons, spending five from 1984-88 as the Assistant Director of Ballpark Operations. Prior to joining the Indians he was the Director of Operations of the Florida Suncoast Dome (now Tropicana Field) from 1989-92 where he was involved in the construction and opening of the dome in 1990.

Jim, who earned a degree from Loyola University of Chicago in 1984, is a member of the American Society of Industrial Security, the International Association of Venue Managers, the National Fire Protection Association, the Stadium Managers Association, and serves on several advisory committees to Major League Baseball's Security & Facility Management Department. He is the immediate Past President of the Stadium Managers Association, immediate Past Chairman of the Board of Directors of Saint Joseph Academy in Cleveland and immediate Past Chair of the Historic Gateway Neighborhood Corporation Board of Trustees.

He resides in Westlake with his wife, Sue, and daughters, Kelly and Erin.

Sara Lehrke

Vice President, Human Resources & Chief Diversity Officer

Sara Lehrke enters her 25th season in the Indians organization, her first as Vice President of Human Resources and Chief Diversity Officer.

As Vice President, Human Resources and Chief Diversity Officer, Lehrke is responsible for all aspects of employee recruitment, training and development, and compensation for the organization. Her responsibilities include the coordination, delivery and compliance of all employee benefits, compensation and assists with the negotiation of the various labor unions represented by the employees of the Cleveland Indians. Sara's leadership role as Chief Diversity Officer led to the development and execution of an exemplary Diversity Plan that formed the foundation for more diverse business partnerships with the Club, while celebrating the many different cultures of our team at Progressive Field.

Lehrke began her career with the Indians in 1985 as Administrative Assistant to the Vice President of Business. She has also worked in Ballpark Operations, Personnel and Benefits, and was responsible for the creation of the Customer Service department for the Club. However, Sara's association with the Indians goes back even further to her involvement as the President of a player fan club.

The Lakewood, OH native resides in North Ridgeville, OH with her husband, Dale, daughter, Jessy and son, Ben.

Dan Smith

Vice President, Food and Beverage

Dan Smith is beginning his fifth season with the Indians after joining the team as a Food Service Consultant at the beginning of the 2007 season and joined the team's executive staff in July of that season.

A veteran hospitality executive with more than 40 years of experience in the Food and Beverage areas, Mr. Smith arrived in Cleveland in April of 2004 to oversee the grand opening and operate the House of Blues on East 4th Street. Prior to his arrival in Cleveland he served as the General Manager of the HOB - New Orleans from 2001-04 and served as Director of Operations for the HOB - Disneyworld from 1998-2001.

He began a culinary career at resorts and restaurants in his native Florida Keys, eventually rising to the position of Executive Chef of the Park Suite Hotel in Dallas. In 1985, he joined Holiday Inn Worldwide [HIWW] and during his tenure he served in various Food & Beverage Executive capacities with the company, including a stint as Florida Regional General Manager for Embassy Suites in the early 1990's.

Since arriving in Cleveland he has worked closely with The Diversity Center, The Greater Cleveland Chapter of the American Red Cross and The Rock and Roll Hall of Fame. He is a member of the Ohio Restaurant Association and a past Board Member of the Historic Gateway Neighborhood Corporation. He is currently an officer of the Kent State University Hospitality Management Program Advisory Board.

Mr. Smith's purview is to oversee all aspects of Food and Beverages including Hosted Events, Concessions and Premium Dining areas on behalf of the Club.

A native of Marathon, Florida, Mr. Smith attended the University of Florida in Gainesville. He is a graduate of the Center for Creative Leadership at Eckerd College and a Certified Food & Beverage Executive through the American Hotel and Motel Association.

He and his wife, Julie, reside in Strongsville and are proud parents of four adult children - Michael, Danielle, Michelle and Sean.

Joe Znidarsic

Vice President, General Counsel

Joe Znidarsic is in his 8th season as the club's Vice President, General Counsel.

Joe previously served as lead legal counsel for the Lawrence Dolan family in the acquisition of the Cleveland Indians franchise and remained as the Indians' outside legal counsel until 2004 when he was promoted to his current position as chief legal counsel for the club. Joe also played a significant role in the planning and creation of SportsTime Ohio, the Dolan family-owned regional sports network, for which he also serves as legal counsel and is a member of its Board of Directors.

A native of the Cleveland area, Joe attended St. Joseph High School (now Villa Angela-St. Joseph) and graduated from Bowling Green State University in 1973 with a degree in business administration. He attended law school at Case Western Reserve University, graduating in 1976.

Znidarsic remains a partner of the Chardon, Ohio law firm of Thrasher, Dinsmore & Dolan, which he joined in 1977. During his years practicing law Joe developed significant experience counseling business clients in the areas of mergers, acquisition, governance, finance, income tax and estate planning, in addition to his expertise in Sports Law.

Joe lives in Lake County with his twin daughters. He is an active participant in many charities, local boards and business groups.

Andrew Miller

Assistant to the President

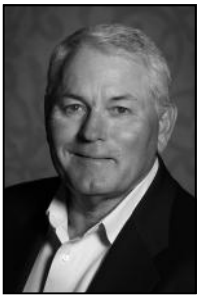
Andrew Miller is in his first season in the role of Assistant to the President and his sixth season with the organization.

Andrew joined the Indians organization in 2006. Andrew served as Baseball Operations Assistant starting in June 2007 and was promoted to Assistant Director of Baseball Operations in November 2008, spending two seasons in that role before promotion to his current role. In Andrew's Baseball Operations roles, he has been involved in every aspect of the Club's Major League team operations focusing on financial, contractual and strategic elements of player acquisitions and negotiations. Andrew also coordinated the development, construction and operations of the club's Goodyear Player Development Complex.

Andrew currently serves as the primary assistant to Mark Shapiro, contributing to strategic planning, research and analysis in all areas related to business operations, branding and Progressive Field strategy and development, in addition to advising Baseball Operations on strategic issues and decision-making. Andrew helped lead the development and execution of the inaugural Indians Snow Days event and also coordinates the Indians Executive Development Fellowship program.

Prior to joining the Indians, Andrew spent nearly seven years working in the investment banking and venture capital industries before completing a JD-MBA at Northwestern University in 2007. Andrew graduated with a BS in Business Administration in 1997 from the Haas School of Business at UC Berkeley, where Andrew also spent four years as a left-handed pitcher on the Cal baseball team.

Andrew's brother, Geoff, is entering his first season as Mental Skills Coach for the Atlanta Braves, having spent the previous six seasons in a similar role for the Pittsburgh Pirates and Washington Nationals.



Mike Hargrove

Special Advisor

Indians Hall of Famer Mike Hargrove rejoins the organization as Special Advisor in 2011 after being named to the position in January 2011.

Hargrove was a member of the Cleveland Indians family for 21 seasons from 1979 to 1999, spending 8 ½ seasons as the Indians Manager from 1991-99. The 54-year old Perryton, TX native compiled a record of 721-591 (.550), posting the 2nd highest managerial win total in franchise history behind Lou Boudreau's 728 victories. Hargrove led the Indians to five straight American League Central Division titles from 1995-99 and two American League Pennants in 1995 & '97, the only Indians Manager in club history to win multiple AL titles.

Hargrove also spent four seasons (2000-03) managing the Baltimore Orioles and three seasons with the Seattle Mariners (2005-07) and recorded a career major league managerial record of 1188-1173 (.503) over 16 seasons. Mike played for the Indians from 1979-85 and was named Indians "Man of the Year" in 1980 & 1981 and won the Frank Gibbons "Good Guy" Award in 1985. He finished his major league career as a .290 (1614-5564) hitter in 1666 games from 1974-85, earning A.L. Rookie of the Year honors with Texas in 1974 (.323, 4HR, 66RBI). Mike led A.L. with a .432 on-base percentage in 1981. His best year in Cleveland was 1980 when he hit .304 with 11 homers, 86 runs and 85 RBI.

The 2008 Indians Hall of Fame inductee will assist the Indians organization in a variety of roles including assisting Manager Manny Acta's coaching staff in spring training, joining the STO broadcast team on select telecasts and serving as a resource for the many business, community and charitable endeavors of the franchise.

Mike lives in Richfield with his wife, Sharon. They have five children and eight grandchildren. The couple grew up in Perryton, Texas and are active in many local charities, including Make-A-Wish Foundation, Providence House, Aluminum Cans for Burned Children, Coats for Kids, ALS, Cystic-Fibrosis and Our Lady of the Wayside.

Chris Antonetti

Executive Vice President and General Manager

Chris Antonetti enters his first season as Executive Vice President and General Manager of the Cleveland Indians since being elevated to the position following the 2010 season. It is his 13th season overall with the franchise after spending nine seasons as Assistant General Manager and, later, Vice President of Baseball Operations from 2002-10.

Antonetti, 36, joined the Indians organization prior to the 1999 season as an assistant in the Baseball Operations Department. He was promoted to Director of Major League Operations in August of 2001, elevated to Assistant General Manager in January of 2002 and to Vice President in March of 2007.

As Assistant General Manager, Chris helped Mark Shapiro orchestrate the team's historic rebuilding efforts between 2002 and 2004 that rapidly transformed an aging roster back to a playoff contender. Between 2005 and 2007, the club had baseball's fifth highest winning percentage, matched only by teams that spent on average $260 million more over those three years. In 2007, the Indians led the Major Leagues in wins and reached the ALCS for the first time since 1998.

Chris was instrumental in the acquisition process that built the 2007 Division Champions and has been similarly influential in engineering the club's more recent influx of championship-caliber talent, helping to acquire players like Shin-Soo Choo, Chris Perez, Carlos Santana, Asdrubal Cabrera, Michael Brantley, Matt LaPorta, Carlos Carrasco, Justin Masterson, Mitch Talbot, Jason Donald and Lou Marson.

Antonetti, along with John Mirabelli and Brad Grant, reframed the club's amateur scouting processes and acquisition strategies, and in the last three years alone the club has added Lonnie Chisenhall, Alex White, Jason Kipnis, Drew Pomeranz, LeVon Washington, Tony Wolters and Joe Gardner, all of whom were named top 10 prospects in the organization entering 2011 by Baseball America. The Tribe's 2010 First-Year Player Draft was hailed by Baseball America as the top draft in MLB.

As Assistant GM, the Orange, CT native continued the club's strong history of building from within, as he oversaw a competitive and productive Player Development system that ranked 3rd in Baseball America coming into the 2010 season. Indians' minor league teams captured two league titles in 2010 (AAA Columbus, A Lake County) with three of the club's four full-season affiliates qualifying for postseason play. Additionally, the minor league system has successfully transitioned a dozen players to the Major League level over the course of the past three seasons.

Chris began his career in professional baseball in the summer of 1997 with an internship with the Montreal Expos in West Palm Beach, FL. He was later hired as Assistant Director of Player Development with the Expos in November of 1997 and served in that position before joining the Indians staff.

He graduated magna cum laude from Georgetown University in 1996 with a degree in business administration and earned a master's degree from the University of Massachusetts in sports management the following year. At Georgetown he was a student manager for the men's basketball team for one and a half years under John Thompson Jr.

Chris and his wife, Sarah, live in Westlake, OH with their daughters, Mya and Ella.

Mike Chernoff

Assistant General Manager

Mike Chernoff is in his 8th season with the Cleveland Indians and his first as the club's Assistant General Manager after being elevated to the position in October of 2010.

Mike was previously the Tribe's Director of Baseball Operations over four seasons from 2007-10. Mike spent the 2005-06 seasons as the Assistant Director of Baseball Operations. Chernoff's tenure with the organization started in June of 2003 when he began an internship in Baseball Operations.

In his new role, Mike is involved in all aspects of baseball operations and primarily serves to assist Chris Antonetti in all player acquisitions, contract negotiations, player evaluations, and the day-to-day operations of the Baseball Operations Department. He also oversees the club's professional scouting, baseball analytics and video scouting within the Baseball Operations Department and is responsible for the interpretation and implementation of Major League waiver and option rules.

Mike played four years of varsity baseball as a middle infielder at Princeton University and served as captain of the team as a senior. He earned a degree in economics with a certificate in finance from the Ivy League institution in June of 2003.

Mike and his wife, Sarah, reside in Beachwood with their son, Brody. His father, Mark, is the Vice President of Programming at WFAN in New York City.

Ross Atkins

Vice President, Player Development

Ross Atkins begins his fifth season in charge of the club's Player Development system. He was recently promoted from Director to Vice President in October of 2010.

Ross oversees all elements of the Tribe's Player Development system, including the organization's six (6) minor league affiliates. The Indians player development system is based upon a holistic developmental philosophy that focuses upon providing Indians' players with cutting edge resources in the mental, physical and fundamental domains from the day they sign with the organization throughout their stay in the Tribe's minor league system.

In 2010 the Indians were the only organization in Major League Baseball to have two (2) full-season affiliates win league championships as three of the Tribe's four full-season affiliates (Columbus, Kinston, Lake County) each qualified for postseason play. The club's Player Development system has consistently ranked in the top 10 in combined winning percentage since 2000 and is generally regarded as among one of the deepest systems in the game today.

In addition to developing players, the Indians Player Development system has placed five of its staff members on Major League coaching staffs over the last two seasons in the form of Jon Nunnally and Scott Radinsky on Manny Acta's staff as well as Charles Nagy (Arizona), Dave Hudgens (New York-NL) and Joel Skinner (Oakland).

Atkins, 37, spent three seasons from 2004-06 as the club's Director of Latin American Operations, overseeing all aspects of the organization's operations in Latin America. During that tenure he was instrumental in the signing and development of currently top prospects Jeanmar Gomez, Hector Rondon and Kelvin De La Cruz. He also spent three seasons from 2001-03 as the Assistant Director of Player Development under Farrell.

Ross pitched for five seasons from 1995-99 in the Tribe's minor league system after being selected in the 38th round of the 1995 draft, spending his last two seasons at AA Akron. He compiled a career minor league mark of 37-32 with a 4.13 ERA in 141 games (66GS). Upon the completion of his playing career he spent the 2000 season as a pitching coach and translator/English instructor for Danys Baez during his transition from Cuba to the United States during his first pro season. He has also served as a pitching coach in the Florida Instructional League in 2000 and 2001.

He attended Coral Gables (FL) High School outside Miami where he played baseball and ran cross-country. Played baseball at Wake Forest for four years where he received a bachelor's degree in economics and was a member of the Atlantic Coast Conference Honor Roll.

Ross resides in Cleveland with his wife, Christine and their daughters, Jane and Marita.

John Mirabelli

Vice President, Scouting Operations

John Mirabelli begins his 12th season in charge of the club's Scouting Operations Department. He was recently elevated by Chris Antonetti to Vice President, Scouting Operations in October 2010 and was Assistant General Manager from 2002-10.

Mirabelli, 50, has taken on an expanded role in the procurement of amateur and professional talent, both in the United States and abroad. The club continues to operate heavily in Latin America and of late has been active in pursuing talent in the Pacific Rim, employing full-time scouts in Japan, Taiwan and Australia. An example of these efforts was the signings of Chen Chang Lee and Chun Chen out of Taiwan and the recent signing of Toru Murata out of Japan. John directly oversees and manages the scouting and acquisition efforts in the domestic and international markets for the club. Additionally, he assists General Manager Chris Antonetti in all player acquisitions relative to the 40-man roster and minor league system. He continues to oversee and assist Brad Grant in the First-Year Player Draft, the most recent of which was rated tops in Major League Baseball in 2010 by Baseball America.

From 2000-07 he coordinated and directed the club's endeavors in the June First Year Player Draft. During his tenure as the head of scouting the Indians drafted or signed players such as Trevor Crowe, Tony Sipp, Vinnie Pestano, Frank Herrmann, Jordan Brown, Aaron Laffey, David Huff and Jensen Lewis, to name a few.

The Pittsburgh, PA native spent the 1998-99 seasons as the National Crosschecker in the Detroit Tigers Scouting Department. Prior to his stint as crosschecker he spent the 1997 season as the South East Supervisor for the Tigers and before that was an Area Scout with Detroit from 1990-96. Detroit's 1997 & '98 first round picks (RHP Matt Anderson & RHP Jeff Weaver) each made it to the big leagues during their first professional seasons and in 1997 he signed the Tigers' 6th round pick, RHP Brian Moehler. He was named Detroit's Scout of the Year in 1996 and in 1997 the Tigers were named Organization of the Year by Baseball America.

John played his collegiate ball at North Carolina State University and played professionally in Italy for two seasons in 1983-84 before returning to his alma mater, spending six seasons from 1985-90 as the Pitching Coach/Recruiting Coordinator with the Wolfpack before becoming an area scout with the Tigers after the 1990 draft. While at North Carolina State, John received a bachelor's degree in business management.

He and his wife, Mirella, reside in Rocky River with the kids, Tina (20) and Tommy (17).

Brad Grant

Director, Amateur Scouting

Brad Grant begins his 18th season with the Indians and his fourth as Director of Amateur Scouting after being named to the position in November of 2007. He spent the previous eight seasons as the club's Assistant Director of Scouting.

Brad directs all elements of the First-Year Player Draft – providing evaluations and managing the club's fifteen (15) Area Scouts and five (5) Crosscheckers around the United States, Puerto Rico and Canada in advance of the June draft.

Grant's three drafts are generally regarded as some of the most successful for the club in the draft era, adding the likes of Lonnie Chisenhall (#1), Alex White (#2), Jason Kipnis (3), Drew Pomeranz (4), Levon Washington (7), Tony Wolters (8) and Joe Gardner (9), all of whom currently rank among Cleveland's top prospects according to Baseball America. In fact, Baseball America rated the Tribe's 2010 draft the best draft among baseball's 30 organizations. Cord Phelps, Jordan Henry, Matt Packer, Zach Putnam and Bryce Stowell, all upper level prospects, were also added since 2008 under Grant's watch.

Grant's tenure with the Indians began in 1994 as an intern in the marketing department. He started his career in the baseball operations department in 1995 as the intern in scouting and then moved to a full-time position as Assistant, Scouting Operations in 1996. In 1999 he was appointed to the position of Assistant Director of Scouting.

He graduated in 1994 from Miami University with a Bachelor of Arts degree in communications. He swam 4 years at Miami and was a high school All-American swimmer at University School in Hunting Valley, OH.

Brad resides in Rocky River, OH with his wife, Kate. They have a daughter, Margaret (9), and a son, Will (5). His brother-in-law, Lee MacPhail, is currently the Director of Professional Scouting for the Baltimore Orioles.

Wendy Hoppel

Director, Baseball Administration

Wendy Hoppel begins her 27th season in the Indians Baseball Operations department and her tenth season as the club's Director of Baseball Administration after being promoted to the position on May 31, 2000.

As Director of Baseball Administration she oversees all facets of the organization's administrative support, concentrating in the areas of minor league player contracts and financial administration. Specifically, she manages the budgets for the major league club and the Tribe's player development system, as well as the contract tenders/payroll of the minor league domestic and foreign players. In addition, she coordinates all of the travel and living arrangements among the six (6) minor league clubs and the organization's 150+ minor leaguer players during spring training and the regular season; processes the working visas for the club's foreign-born players; and coordinates and administers the Major League Baseball College Scholarship plan for former and current Cleveland Indians' players.

Wendy's tenure with the club began in June of 1984 when she was hired as an assistant to then Farm & Scouting Director Bob Quinn. Hoppel earned a degree in applied business from Bowling Green State University after graduating from Bowling Green Senior High School.

Wendy resides in Lakewood with her daughter, Grace.

Steve Lubratich

Director, Player Personnel

Steve begins his 10th year with the Indians organization as Director of Player Personnel as he enters his 35th year in professional baseball. He was named to the post on December 3, 2001.

As Director of Player Personnel the 55-year old Lubratich interacts and contributes to all personnel decisions throughout every level of the Indians organization – including the major and minor league levels as well advance scouting duties starting in 2005. He reports directly to Indians Executive Vice President and General Manager Chris Antonetti.

Prior to joining the Indians, Lubratich served as the Assistant General Manager for the Detroit Tigers for six seasons from 1996-2001. With the Tigers he assisted General Manager Randy Smith in all phases of the club's baseball operations department.

Lubratich's professional playing career began in 1977 out of the University of California-Riverside. He appeared in 64 games for the California Angels in 1981 and '83 while in between leading the Pacific Coast League in doubles (43) & hits (181) for Spokane in 1982. He joined the Padres organization in 1985 as a player/coach before launching into a minor league managerial career from 1988-91 in the San Diego system. During his tenure as coach and manager in the Padres minor league system he helped develop future major leaguers Roberto & Sandy Alomar, Joey Cora, Bip Roberts, Shane Mack, Jose Valentin, Doug Brocail & Ricky Bones.

In his first season of managing at Spokane in 1988, he led the club to the Northwest League title before moving on to Class A Riverside in 1989 and to AA Wichita in 1990-91. He was an advance scout with the San Diego Padres from 1992-94 before serving as Randy Smith's Assistant General Manager in 1995 before he and Smith moved on to the Tigers from San Diego.

Steve was a NCAA Division II All-American shortstop at the University of California-Riverside in 1977 and was later inducted into the UC-Riverside Sports Hall of Fame.

Lubratich and his wife, Deborah, reside in Lee, NH. Steve has two children, Brandt (31) and Natalie (28), and one grandson.

Ramon Pena

Director, Latin American Operations

Ramon Pena is beginning his second season as the club's Director of Latin American Operations after being named to the post on November 6, 2009.

Ramon is a veteran, respected scout with 28 years of scouting experience under his belt. He spent 21 years with the Detroit Tigers from 1985-2006 and the last 3 seasons with the New York Mets as Special Assistant to the General Manager, where he oversaw Latin American Operations. He has signed over 40 players that have reached the big league level, including Francisco Cordero, Bobby Higginson, Danny Bautista, Jose Lima, Fernando Rodney, Frank Catalanotto, Ramon Santiago and Omar Infante to name a few. He was the Detroit Tigers' 1997 Scout of the Year. He also currently serves as a Sports Advisor to Dominican Republic President Leonel Fernandez.

With Detroit he was the club's Assistant to Baseball Operations, Foreign Affairs for seven seasons from 1999-2005 where he coordinated Detroit's scouting efforts worldwide and also was in charge of the Tigers' baseball academy in San Cristobal, Dominican Republic. Before joining the Tigers, he served as a scout for the Kansas City Royals for four years where he signed major leaguers Melido Perez and Jose Nunez. Ramon played two seasons in the Pittsburgh Pirates minor league system as a shortstop and outfielder.

Ramon, 52, was born in Moca, Dominican Republic and moved to New York as a youngster. He graduated from DeWitt Clinton High School where he won letters in track and field and baseball. Pena also attended Central Arizona Junior College and the University of Tampa, where he played baseball.

Keith Woolner

Manager, Baseball Analytics

Keith enters his fifth season as Manager of Baseball Analytics with the Indians, having joined the organization in May of 2007. He is responsible for developing innovative ways to organize, analyze and present information to support baseball decision-making. He leads a team of analysts who study statistical data, scouting reports, medical histories and contract information to assist with in-game strategy, player acquisition and forecasting future performance.

Prior to joining the Indians, Keith was Director of Research & Development at Baseball Prospectus for 10 years. He has co-authored 10 books, including several editions of the Baseball Prospectus annual, and the award-winning Baseball Between The Numbers. His research spanned a variety of topics including player valuation, catcher's game-calling, the effects of high pitch counts, and win probability. Keith is the inventor of VORP (Value Over Replacement Player), a well-known sabermetric statistic. He worked in the software industry for 15 years before joining the Indians, including stints at Oracle and SAS Institute.

He holds dual Bachelor's degrees in Mathematics with Computer Science, and Management Science from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology (M.I.T.), and a Master's degree in Management Science & Engineering from Stanford University.

Derek Falvey

Assistant Director, Baseball Operations

Derek begins his 4th season with the Indians and 1st as the Assistant Director of Baseball Operations after being named to the position in October of 2010. In his three years with the club, Derek previously assisted in both the Amateur and International Scouting Departments. Falvey's tenure with the Indians started in November 2007 when he began an internship in Baseball Operations.

As Assistant Director of Baseball Operations Derek will support Chris Antonetti, Mike Chernoff and the Baseball Operations staff in day-to-day operations, along with all aspects of player procurement. He will continue to work with John Mirabelli to assist in the coordination, administration and information-gathering for the International Scouting Department.

Derek played varsity baseball as a pitcher at Trinity College in Hartford, CT where he earned a degree in economics in June of 2005. After graduating, Falvey returned home to the Boston, MA area where he worked as an independent small business technology consultant until joining the Indians in the fall of 2007. Derek resides in Rocky River, OH.

Alex Eckelman

Assistant Director, Professional Scouting

Eckelman moves into the full-time position of Assistant Director, Professional Scouting.

Alex, 36, played professional baseball for nine years from 1997-2005 in the Houston and St. Louis organizations and played parts of four seasons at the Triple-A level. He also coached for one season after graduating from The Ohio State University, where he played varsity baseball from 1994-97 and was elected to the Varsity "O" Hall of Fame in 2006 in a class that included Eddie George. He concluded his minor league career with a batting average of .274 (706-2578) in 804 games.

In 2010 Alex was the Tribe's Advance Scouting Intern, working to prepare the Major League advance reports on upcoming opponents. In his new role, Alex will manage the Advance Scouting process and will also assist in the management of the Professional Scouting Department.

Alex and his wife, Katie, have two children, Mason and Samantha.

Paul Gillispie

Assistant Director, Scouting

Paul Gillispie begins his fifth season with the Indians and third as the Assistant Director of Scouting after being named to the position in December 2008. He was most recently the Area Scout for Georgia, South Carolina and Northern Florida. Gillispie's tenure with the Indians started in November 2006 when he began an internship in Baseball Operations.

As the Assistant Director of Scouting, Paul supports the Indians' amateur scouting staff and assists Brad Grant in the day-to-day operations of the amateur scouting department. He also maintains the draft database, assists in all aspects in the coordination of the draft and provides player evaluations. The 2010 Indians draft received rave reviews and was rated the top draft among the 30 MLB organizations by Baseball America.

Paul graduated from the University of Virginia with a degree in American Politics and played for the Cavaliers baseball team, including being named the captain for the 2003-04 season. After graduating, Gillispie worked for Raytheon Company and the Players Edge Performance Center in Tysons Corner, VA.

Paul is single and resides in Cleveland. He was an assistant baseball coach for Oakton High School in 2006 when they were Virginia State runner-ups.

Carter Hawkins

Assistant Director, Player Development

Carter Hawkins begins his fourth season with the Indians and first as Assistant Director of Player Development after being named to the position in October of 2010. Carter began his tenure with the Indians in 2008 as the Advance Scouting Intern and progressed into a full-time role in Professional Scouting in 2009.

As the Assistant Director of Player Development, Carter will assist Ross Atkins in the design and execution of all elements of Player Development policies, procedures and processes as well as in the management of all Player Development Staff.

Carter graduated magna cum laude from Vanderbilt University in 2007 with a degree in Human and Organizational Development and was a four-year letter winner as a catcher for the Commodore baseball team.

Carter is single and resides in Cleveland.

Dr. Charles Maher

Sport Psychologist and Director of Psychological Services

Charlie enters his 16th season with the Cleveland Indians organization as Sport Psychologist and as Director of Psychological Services. Charlie oversees the mental and emotional development and performance enhancement of all players at the major league and minor league levels. In addition, he's involved in the leadership development of Indians staff and conducts psychological assessments of prospects for the annual draft. He also is director of the organization's Employee Assistance Program, coordinates organizational development projects, and conducts special psychological studies on team and related matters.

Charlie is a licensed psychologist and a fellow of a number of psychological societies, including the American Psychological Association and the American Psychological Society. He holds a Diplomate from the American Board of Administrative Psychology, another from the American Board of Sport Psychology, and he is a Certified Consultant of the Association of Applied Sport Psychology. He possesses a range of graduate degrees and professional certifications in psychology, education, and business.

Before coming to the Indians, Charlie worked for a decade as a sport psychologist for the Chicago White Sox and served as sport psychology consultant for the New York Yankees, Detroit Tigers and other teams. Currently, Charlie also is team psychologist for the Cleveland Cavaliers and the Cleveland Browns, and for Rutgers University football and its men's and women's basketball teams and sport psychology consultant for the Minnesota Wild. Previously, Charlie has served as team psychologist for the New York Jets and San Antonio Spurs. He also consults with the mental conditioning department at the IMG Academies in Bradenton, FL. His practice in sport psychology has included professional athletes in football, tennis, basketball, baseball, boxing, horse racing, and other sports.

Outside of professional sports, Charlie is a Full Professor of Psychology at the Graduate School of Applied and Professional Psychology, Rutgers University. He is editor of a professional journal, sits on the editorial board of several journals, and is author of numerous books and scientific publications in sport psychology.

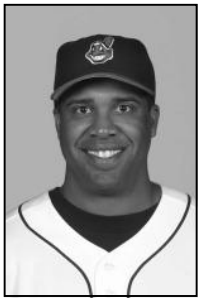
Charlie resides in Cleveland and New Jersey with his wife, Ann, who is a family nurse practitioner. They have two adult children, Dr. Jennifer Maher and Dr. Brian Maher, both of whom are psychologists, and three grandchildren.

Jason Bere

Special Assistant, Baseball Operations

Jason Bere returns as a Special Assistant to Baseball Operations. His primary responsibility with the organization is to evaluate pitchers within the Indians Player Development system during the regular season. Jason will spend most of spring training in uniform providing instruction and development at the major and minor league levels.

Bere, 39, pitched parts of 11 seasons in the big leagues from 1993-2003, posting a career Major League record of 71-65 with a 5.14 ERA in 211 games/203 starts (1111.0IP, 1095H, 634ER, 626BB, 920K) and was an All-Star in 1994 with the Chicago White Sox. In fact, Bere won 24 games in 1993 and '94 with the Sox and was the winning pitcher in the final game in Cleveland Stadium on October 3, 1993.



Eduardo Perez

Special Assistant, Baseball Operations

Eduardo begins his first season as Special Assistant to Baseball Operations. Eduardo will spend considerable time in uniform during spring training providing instruction and development at the major and minor league levels in addition to assisting the Player Development system during the regular season.

Perez, 41, played 13 seasons in the Major Leagues from 1993-2006 with the Angels, Cardinals, Reds, Devil Rays, Mariners and Indians where he compiled a career batting average of .237 (445-1800) with 79 homers and 294 RBI in 754 games. He played with the Indians the first half of the 2006 season, hitting .303 (30-99) with 8HR & 22 RBI before being traded to Seattle on June 30 for Asdrubal Cabrera.

Eduardo joined ESPN as a baseball analyst for the 2006 postseason and is beginning his 6th season with the network in 2011. He also managed the Ponce Lions in the Puerto Rican winter league in 2008-09 and was named Manager of the Year in the PR Baseball League in 2008. He is currently the manager and general manager of the Puerto Rican National Team.

BEHIND THE SCENES

Mike Seghi, Director of Team Travel

Mike Seghi begins his 38th season as the Tribe's Director of Team Travel. Mike's career with the ball club began in September of 1974 after he graduated from the University of Cincinnati in 1973 with a degree in education.

Mike coordinates all of the Major League club's travel plans during spring training, the regular season and post-season. His 37-year tenure is the longest in Major League Baseball today.

Mike served as the Traveling Secretary for the Major League Baseball All-Star Teams that toured Japan in 1990 and 1992. He was the winner of the Frank Gibbons/Steve Olin Good Guy Award in 1981.

Mike and his wife, Patty, reside in Rocky River, Ohio and have two daughters, Brittany and Michelle. Mike's father, Phil, was the Tribe's General Manager from 1973-85.

Tony Amato, Home Clubhouse and Equipment Manager

Tony Amato begins his ninth season as the Tribe's Home Clubhouse and Equipment Manager.

Amato worked in the home clubhouse as an assistant to the clubhouse manager for 15 seasons from 1988-2002, starting under Cy Buynak in Cleveland Stadium. He got his start with the Tribe by winning the last WWWE/Sun Newspapers BatBoy Essay Contest in 1988 and spent that season as a ball and bat boy. Along with working home games in the Indians clubhouse, Tony taught physical education to developmentally handicapped students at Our Lady of Angels/St. Joseph's for three years from 1999-2002.

The Normandy High School graduate earned a bachelor's degree in Marketing and a master's degree in Sports Administration from Cleveland State University in 1997. He is single and resides in Parma, OH. He is long-time fan of the Cleveland Browns and manages a small stable of harness racehorses.

Marty Bokovitz, Assistant Home Clubhouse and Equipment Manager

Marty Bokovitz begins his fifth season as the club's Assistant Home Clubhouse and Equipment Manager. Marty assists Home Clubhouse and Equipment Manager Tony Amato in all phases of the Indians home clubhouse operations. He also handles equipment acquisitions for the club's Player Development System.

Bokovitz, 39, has worked in the Indians home clubhouse for the last 22 seasons since joining Cy Buynak's staff during the 1989 season at Cleveland Stadium. Marty graduated from Parma Senior High School in 1990, attended the University of Akron and worked for the City of Parma for 16 years from 1991-2006.

Marty is single and resides in Avon Lake, OH.

Lonnie and his staff are widely respected around the professional sports industry and following the 2007 campaign the Indians Athletic Training and Medical staffs were recognized as MLB's best by a membership of their peers, PBATS, and Baseball Prospectus, a leading baseball research and content organization.

While attending St. Louis University, Lonnie received a bachelor's degree in exercise science, a master's degree in physical therapy and attained his certification in athletic training. Lonnie has taken an active role in teaching orthopedics and baseball sports medicine, which has enabled him to lecture nationally and participate in research studies. The 36-year old is a member of the NATA and APTA and began his career in baseball with the St. Louis Cardinals in 1996 as part of the PBATS internship program.

Lonnie, a native of New Orleans, resides in Avon Lake, OH with his wife and three children..

Rick Jameyson begins his 10th season as the Assistant Athletic Trainer of the Cleveland Indians.

Rick begins his 20th season as an Athletic Trainer in the Cleveland Indians organization after spending four seasons with the Buffalo Bisons from 1999-02. He also represented the organization as an Athletic Trainer in the Arizona Fall League after both the 1995 & 2000 seasons. Began his professional Athletic Training career in 1992 at A Watertown of the New York-Penn League, working in Watertown for two seasons before being promoted to A Columbus in 1994.

Jameyson, 40, is a native of Wellington, OH where he attended Wellington Senior High School, playing football and baseball. Graduated from Baldwin-Wallace (OH) in 1992 with a degree in Health Education. He resides in Tallmadge, OH with his wife Jennifer, and their daughter, Jessica, and son, Nicholas.

Jeff Desjardins, 37, is entering his second season at the Assistant Athletic Trainer on the Major League staff and is in his 11th season in the Indians organization after spending 9 seasons as a minor league athletic trainer in the Cleveland Indians Player Development System from 2001-09.

Desjardins spent three seasons (2007-2009) serving a dual role as the Indians athletic training coordinator and athletic trainer at the club's Triple-A affiliates in Buffalo, NY and Columbus, OH. In 2005 and 2006, he was the athletic trainer for the Indians AA Akron affiliate. In 2006 he was named the Eastern League Athletic Trainer of the Year and was selected to represent the Indians in the Arizona Fall League. He held the same position in Kinston, NC in 2004 and in Lake County, OH in 2003. Desjardins originally joined the Indians organization in 2001 as the athletic trainer in Burlington, NC and served in that role for two seasons.

A graduate of Plymouth State College in Plymouth, New Hampshire, Desjardins is a certified athletic trainer and a certified strength and conditioning specialist. He is also an American Red Cross First Aid and CPR Instructor for the professional rescuer.

The native of Gorham, Maine currently resides in Cleveland with his wife, Kate.

Jim Mehalik enters his 17th season with the Cleveland Indians, serving 2011 as a physical therapy consultant. Along with Lonnie Soloff and the Athletic Training Staff, Jim coordinates the rehabilitation and physical therapy programs for the organization's disabled and injured players. Since 1993 he has been practicing at Lutheran Hospital, and currently is the Director of Rehabilitation Services.

After graduating from The Ohio State University in 1988 with a degree in Allied Health Sciences, Mehalik was a staff therapist at Lorain Community Hospital for two years from 1988-90. He went on to work three years in Columbus, OH in a private physical therapy practice from 1990-93 before assuming his current role with Lutheran Hospital in 1993.

Mehalik, 44, resides in Brunswick Hills, OH with his wife, Lisa, and their three children, Haley, Jacob and Hannah.

HISTORY OF TRIBE ATHLETIC TRAINERS

According to The Cleveland Indians Encyclopedia, Fred Weisman was the first full-time athletic trainer for the Indians. Starting with Weisman (1921-49), just five men have served as head trainer of the Tribe since 1921. Wally Bock (1950-70) followed Weisman. Jim Warfield (1971-96) followed Bock. Paul Spicuzza was head athletic trainer from 1996-2003.

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

Joe Kessler is in his second season as the Major League Strength and Conditioning Coach after being named to the position on January 8, 2010.

Kessler, 29, originally joined the Indians organization in March of 2009. He spent the 2009 season as an Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach in Goodyear, Arizona where he worked with players based out of the Goodyear complex and assisted those who were rehabilitating from previous injuries. Kessler's previous experience includes two years as the Director of Athletic Development for OAK Athletic Development in Bourbonnais, IL and also spent two seasons as a Strength and Conditioning Assistant with the Indianapolis Colts from 2005-07 after interning with the Chicago Bears in 2004.

Joe is a 2004 graduate of Illinois State University where he majored in kinesiology with a concentration in exercise science. He resides in Fairview Park with his wife and daughter.

Jake Beiting begins his 7th season with the Indians organization and 4th as the Minor League Strength & Conditioning Coordinator. Jake is based out of the Goodyear, AZ complex and has spent the last two off-seasons conditioning the club's big league players who reside in the Valley of the Sun.

Jake served as the GCL Indians strength coach in 2007. He spent the 2004 and 2005 seasons in Cleveland working as the major league strength & conditioning intern and graduated from John Carroll University with a bachelor's degree in physical education in 2006.

Upon graduation the Akron, OH native worked as a graduate assistant strength coach at the University of South Florida, while completing his masters degree in exercise science.

Jake resides in Phoenix, AZ with his wife, Maggie.

2010 Season Highlights

- Ended the year in the Tribe rotation and made a very good impression during his 11 start tenure in the big leagues, his first experience at the Major League level...Gomez went 0-0 with a 0.00ERA in three relief appearances for Cleveland during spring training (5.1IP, 3H, 0R, 0ER, 1BB, 4K) and was optioned to Columbus on March 19, where he spent the first 3 ½ months of the season.
- On May 23 at Charlotte, Gomez went the distance in a 5-0 loss, throwing a Clippers season-high 8.0IP...In four starts from June 15-July 1, went 3-0 with a 1.04ERA (26.0IP, 16H, 4R, 3ER, 6BB, 20K)...Gomez allowed 2ER or less in all four starts, lowering his ERA over a run (6.96 to 5.26) in the process.
- Recalled from AAA Columbus on July 18 to make a spot start and his Major League debut vs. the Detroit Tigers that day and picked up his first big league win in the process...Was a 7-2 win over the Tigers and Andy Oliver...7.0IP, 5H, 2R/0ER, 1BB, 4K...93P...Returned to Columbus the next day and over his next 2 starts on July 23 & 28 he was 2-0 w/a 1.80 ERA (15.0IP, 13H, 4R/3ER, 1BB, 11K).

- Recalled for 2nd time to Cleveland August 1 where he spent the remainder of the season in the Indians rotation...At the time of his second call-up he was T9th in starts (20), 12th in innings (116) and T11th in win (8) among International League pitchers...Triple-A batters hit .284 (129-455) off him with 16HR...LH hitters hit .300 (67-223, 12HR, .912ops) and RH hitters batted .267 (62-232, 4HR, .689 ops).
- Made/won his 2nd career start on August 1 against the Blue Jays and Jesse Litsch (5.0IP, 5H, 2R/ER, 3BB, 6K)... The following Tribe pitchers have won their first 2 career Major League games (as a starter) since 1922: Jeanmar Gomez 2010, Scott Lewis 2008, Roy Smith 1984, Luis Tiant 1964, and Dewey Metivier 1922...Improved to 3-0 in start of August 12 vs. BAL (6.0IP, 6H, 1R/ER)...Was just the 4th Indians pitcher since 1920 to win 3 of his first 4 ML games (all starts), joining Scott Lewis (2008), Wynn Hawkins (1960), and Mudcat Grant (1958)...His 1.54ERA was the lowest among any Indians starting pitcher through their first 4 games, all being starts (23.1IP, 20H, 6R/4ER, 5BB, 12K) since 1920 (baseball-reference.com)...Since 1920, just 8 Indians pitchers (including relievers) have begun their career with 3 wins in their first 4 games: Scott Lewis (4-0, 4gs), Frank Funk (3-0, 4g), Gene Bearden (3-0, 4g/3gs), John Farrell (3-0, 4g/3gs), Luis Tiant (3-1, 4g/3gs), GOMEZ, Mudcat Grant (3-0, 4gs), Wynn Hawkins (3-1).
- Went 2-2 w/a 3.77 ERA (31.0IP, 38H, 16R/13ER, 11BB, 16K) in 6 August starts...Winless over 6 starts since from 8/17 to 9/20, going 0-5 w/a 7.67ERA over the span (29.1IP, 47H, 25ER)...Snapped the 5-game losing streak during his last start of the season on Sept. 25 vs. KC (5.0IP, 6H, 1R/ER, 4BB, 5K)...Opponents hit .318 (35-110) w/ runners on and .333 (22-66) w/RISP...ERA in the first inning was 6.55 (11.0IP, 15H, 8ER)...Was T7th in AL among rookies in wins (4) and 7th in starts (11)...LH MLB batters hit .268 (37-138) off him with 3HR...Indians were 6-5 (.545) in his starts...Starts of 6.0IP or more: 4 of 11 (36%)

Pro Career

- 2009 Combined on the year he was 12-6 w/a 3.30 ERA in 26 starts for A Kinston and AA Akron (147.1IP, 134H, 54ER, 45BB, 124K)...Made final 22 starts of the year at AA Akron after his 4/27 promotion from Kinston and was named Eastern League Pitcher of the Year after going 10-4 w/a 3.43 ERA in 22 starts (123.1IP, 117H, 47ER, 109K)...He finished 3rd in the EL in ERA, T5th in K, T6th in wins and 3rd in WHIP (1.27)...Among organizational pitchers he was 9th in ERA, 5th in strikeouts and 2nd in wins...Was named to the Eastern League mid-season and postseason All-Star teams... Season highlight came in his 4th Double-A start on 5/21 at Trenton, tossing a 9.0 inning, perfect game (87P, 9.0IP, 0H, 8K)...It was the first perfect game and individual no-hitter in Aeros franchise history and the first perfect game in MiLB since 7/15/2007 (Guillermo Moscoso, Oneonta)...Was the 7th nine-inning perfect game in the Eastern League's 87-year history...Won his first four starts for Akron, allowing just one run in 29.0 innings for an ERA of 0.31 (1BB, 26K, 9H, 93AB, .097AVG)...Tossed 27.0 consecutive scoreless IP at one point and over his last 6 starts between Akron (first 4) and Kinston (last 2), he was 6-0 w/a 0.21 ERA (42.0IP, 15H, 1ER, 4BB, 37K)...Followed that up by going 2-0 w/a 2.83 ERA in 5 June starts (28.2IP, 28H, 9ER) and was 2-1 w/a 3.00ERA in 5 August starts (24.0IP, 26H, 8ER)...Was 1-0 w/a 2.45 ERA in 2 Eastern League playoff starts (11.0IP, 12H, 3ER)...Added to 40-man roster on 11/20.

◆ 2005 Had a tremendous offensive season, putting himself into elite status among the Major League's best hitters as he was named Tribe "Man of the Year" by the Cleveland BBWAA and finished 5th in the AL MVP voting (highest finish since R.Alomar's 4th place in 2001)...Became the 10th hitter in franchise history to hit at least .300 with 30HR & 100RBI as he finished 3rd in the American League in on-base (.408) and slugging % (.595) while his combined on-base+slugging % (OPS of 1.003) ranked 2nd behind Alex Rodriguez' 1.031 (ahead of Oritz/1.001 & M. Ramirez/.982)...Again drove in 106 runs as a DH, which was 2nd in the AL behind David Ortiz' 141 and is tied for the 2nd highest season ever by an Indians DH with his 2004 campaign...His 32HR as a DH tied Ellis Burks' 2002 single-season club mark...Finished in the Top 10 in several other department among AL hitters, including: batting average (.305, 9th), doubles (42, T5th), walks (79, 7th), RBI ratio (4.5 per at bat, 4th), HR ratio (14.7 per at bat, 7th), extra base hits (75, 8th), RISP average (.333, 10th), average vs. RHP (.321, 7th) and clean-up slugging % (.589, 3rd behind Ramirez/Guerrero)...Homered in a career-high 6 straight games from 9/18-24, the 2nd longest streak in the history of the franchise behind Jim Thome's 7 straight in 2002 and the longest in MLB in 2005...The streak was the longest in the big leagues since Barry Bonds in 2004 and the longest in the AL since Thome's club record...At one point during the stretch he had a string of 10 straight hits that went for extra bases...Since 1980 (according to Elias), only two other Cleveland players have had streaks in double digits: Albert Belle (11 straight in 1995) and Jim Thome (12 in 2001)...Indians were 43-16 (.729) in games he recorded an RBI...Made 129 starts at the DH spot and 1 start at first base on 6/8 at San Diego...Reached base safely in 122 of 137 games...Hit his 2nd career grand slam and equaled his single-game career high w/6RBI (3rd time) on 6/28 at Boston (off Keith Foulke)...Was named AL Player of the Month for June, hitting .345 (30-87) with 10 2B, 8HR & 29RBI in 24 games...Followed up June by winning AL Player of the Week, 7/4-10, after hitting .480 (12-25) with 4HR & 12 RBI in 8 games, including a memorable day/night DH vs. Detroit on 7/4 (6-10, 3HR, 6RBI)...Was hit in the face on 7/16 by Chicago-AL's Mark Buehrle in the 1st inning and was placed on the 15-day DL on 7/26 (retro to 7/17) due to post-concussive symptoms...Was activated from the DL on 8/4 and following his activation he hit .296 (59-199) with 15 HR & 45 RBI in 54G...Was on fire to end the season, hitting .351 (20-57) from 9/17 thru the end of the season with 6 2B, 8 HR & 20 RBI in 15 games and at one point HR'd in 6 straight games (see above)...Was named AL player of the week for the 2nd time in 2005, 9/19-25 (10-26, 6HR, 16RBI, 7G).

◆ 2004 Enjoyed a breakout offensive season, compiling one of the finest offensive seasons in the history of the organization by a DH...Finished 2nd to Boston's David Ortiz in RBI by a DH (109 to 106) as his 106RBI as a DH were the 2nd most in franchise history behind Andre Thornton's 109 in 1982...Overall for the year his 109RBI were 9th among all AL hitters and after the season he received a 9th place vote on the AL MVP ballot and was runner-up to Ortiz in the AL DH Award balloting (Edgar Martinez Award)...Also ranked 3rd in the league in on-base % (.410), 4th in slugging % (.583), 7th in extra base hits (72), 10th in batting average (team-high .311), 4th in RBI ratio (4.4 per at bat) and tied for 6th in doubles...His OPS of .993 was 2nd in the AL only to Manny Ramirez (1.009)...Led the AL in slugging (.690) and on-base % (.433) while his .344 batting average was 4th off RHP...Hit above the .300 mark in each month with the exception of August (.274, 26-95) and enjoyed his most success in July (31-86, .360, 8HR, 28RBI) when he received consideration for AL Player of the Month honors...Tied the franchise record for RBI in consecutive games with 11 on 7/19-20 at Anaheim...Hall of Famer Earl Averill initially set the record in 1930...Had a career day on 7/20 against the Angels, going 4 for 4 w/3HR, 6RBI and 3RS...The 3HR established a new career-high as did the 6RBI, a mark he equaled on 8/4 at Toronto (4-5, 3RS, 2HR, 6RBI)...On the year he had three 2-homer games and one 3-homer game...Overall he had seven (7) 4-RBI games in 2004...Hit first career grand slam in the home opener of 4/12 vs. Minnesota (off Lohse)...Set a new career-high with 3 doubles on 5/16 vs. Tampa Bay...Tied club record by getting hit by 17 pitches, which was tied for first in the AL w/Kevin Millar...Minnie Minoso was also hit by 17 in 1959...His 21 road HRs ranked 2nd in the league as he hit just 7HR at Jacobs Field in 252 at bats...His road batting average of .322 was 7th best in the AL and his .344 batting average against RHP was 5th highest in the junior circuit...Season ended a tad prematurely, missing the final 7 games of the season with right elbow inflammation...The condition in his right elbow, which bothered him periodically throughout the season, required surgery following the season on 10/6 to remove bone spurs and loose bodies from the elbow joint.

◆ 2003 Made a positive impression in his first season in the Indians organization, spending most of the season in the big leagues save a stint on the disabled list followed by a stint in AAA Buffalo...Was the Tribe's opening day first baseman and became just the second North Dakota-native to play for the Indians (Floyd Stromme, 1939)...He and Darin Erstad are the only big leaguers to be born in Jamestown, ND & is one of 14 players in Major League history born in North Dakota...Hit .206 (20-97) over his first 30 games (6 2B, 4HR, 11RBI) of the season before suffering a broken left big toe in Texas on 5/9 after being hit by a pitch in the foot...Was placed on the 15-day DL on 5/10 and was activated and optioned to AAA Buffalo on 5/26 after short rehab assignment with the Bisons...Travis hit for just the 7th cycle in club history on 8/14 in Minnesota, going 4 for 5 w/a 2B, 3B, HR, 3RS & 2 RBI...Tripled in the 8th inning off James Baldwin to complete the cycle...It was the first Indians cycle in 25 years after Andre Thornton last did it on 4/22/78 at Boston...Was a season-high 4 hits and just his 2nd career 4-hit game...Was just the 3rd Indians cycle since the 1953 season...Went through an 0 for 27 string from 4/2-13...Collected his first career 2-HR game on 8/23 at Tampa Bay...Made 40 starts at first base (42G) and 43 starts at DH...Among AL rookies he finished 2nd in slugging % (.485) & 7th in on-base % (.327).

◆ 2002 Spent most of the year at AAA Oklahoma and began the season on the active roster after recovering quicker than expected from off-season surgery on his right wrist...Hit .272 (22-81) in April with 3HR & 11 RBI before exploding from 4/30 thru the rest of his tenure in AAA, hitting .363 (118-325) w/19 HR & 71 RBI over the season's final 89 games...Overall he finished 3rd in the Pacific Coast League in batting average (.342), 1st in on-base % (.463) and 4th in slugging % (.559)...Was recalled by Texas to the big leagues for the first time on 8/6 and made his debut that night at Detroit, striking out in his first at bat...Hit safely in his next 5 games after his debut (.450, 9-20) and collected his first ML hit and RBI with an RBI triple at Detroit on 8/7 off Mark Redman (4th inning)...Had a career day at Cleveland on 8/11, going 4 for 5 w/2 2B, his first major league homer (off Jason Phillips) and a career-high 3 RBI...Was thrown out at third base in the 7th inning that robbed him of a cycle.

◆ 2001 Had surgery on 3/12 to remove hamate bone from right wrist and began season on Tulsa's disabled list...Was activated on 5/11 and went on to finish 3rd in the Texas League in slugging (.545) and 4th in on-base percentage (.396)...His HR to at bat ratio of 1 per 16.15AB was 4th best in the league...Led the Drillers in walks (59) and was 2nd on the club in homers (20), RBI (74), and doubles (25)...Tied for 3rd in Texas minor league system in homers...Was the Rangers minor league player of the month for July, batting .330 (34-103) with 8 homers and 24 RBI...Had 3 homers and 7 RBI on 8/17 at Round Rock, drove in 6 runs on 7/13 vs. Wichita...Hit .348 with a homer and 5 RBI in 6 games at Peoria in Arizona Fall League before being sidelined with wrist injury...Underwent arthroscopy surgery on right wrist on 10/24 to remove torn cartilage and scar tissue from right wrist.

2010 Season Highlights

◆ Mathis split the 2010 season between the AL Champion Texas Rangers and the Triple-A Oklahoma City Redhawks in his sixth season in the Texas organization…He went 1-1 w/ a 6.04 ERA in 13 Major League relief appearances (22.1IP, 30H, 15ER, 11BB, 10K) over two stints in Texas, recording an ERA of 3.00 (21.0IP, 23H, 7ER, 4HR) in 12 of the outings excluding his appearance of May 14 at Toronto (1.1IP, 7H, 8ER)…Worked relief career-high 4.1 shutout innings on April 24 vs. Detroit.

◆ His second stint in Texas in July resulted in four scoreless 1.0 inning outings (2H). He went 5-7 w/a 5.66 ERA in 18 games/15 starts at Triple-A (89.0IP, 116H, 56ER, 31BB, 54K)...Recorded a relief ERA of 1.13 in 3 games at Triple-A (8.0IP, 6H, 1ER)…Pitched for Este in the Dominican Winter League after the season and went 2-1 w/a 3.29 ERA in 7 games (4GS, 27.1IP, 33H, 10ER)

Pro Career

◆ 2009 Spent most of the final 4 months of the season with the Rangers, a pair of stints from 6/5-7/28 and 8/2-end of season…Began year at Oklahoma City (AAA)…Made 2 spot starts, going 0-1 with a 7.00 ERA (7 ER/9.0 IP), and 22 relief appearances at 0-0, 2.14 (8 ER/33.2 IP) for Texas…Held opposition scoreless in 15 of 22 relief outings…Tossed 2.0+ innings 9 times in relief, posting 0.83 ERA (2 ER/21.2 IP) in those contests…Opponents batted .244 (39-160), with right-handers at .239 (22-92) and lefties at .250 (17-68)…Had contract purchased from Oklahoma City on 6/5…Made spot start 6/9 vs. Toronto in place of injured Brandon McCarthy and took the loss in a 9-0 defeat (5.0IP, 5 R/4 ER)…Returned to the bullpen and made 9 consecutive scoreless relief appearances from 6/-7/22…Finished a 3-1 victory with 3.1 scoreless innings on 7/22 vs. Boston for his first career save, teaming with only starter Dustin Nippert to beat the Red Sox …Was the longest save by a Texas pitcher since C.J. Wilson had a 4.0-inning save on 8/26/05 vs. Minnesota…Was the 3rd-longest save in the A.L. in 2009 and was one of just 8 in the league to go 3.0-or-more innings.

◆ 2008 Initially called up due to injuries on pitching staff, Mathis spent just over a month with Texas before having his own season cut short by arm troubles…Went 2-1, 6.85 in 8 games/4 starts with the Rangers in 2008…Was 1-0, 0.00 (0 ER/5.0 IP) over 4 relief appearances and 1-1, 8.83 (17 ER/17.1 IP) in 4 starts…Tossed a scoreless 10th in the Rangers' 13-12 victory on 5/12 vs. Seattle, becoming the first pitcher in the 48-year history of the Washington/Texas franchise to post a relief win in his first major league appearance…Mathis became the 15th pitcher in franchise history, and 11th in Texas history, to win his major league debut, but was the first to do so in relief…Earned first win as starter 6/8 vs. Tampa Bay…Last appearance in majors was 6/15 at New York-NL (G2)…Was 5-0, 3.55 (18 ER/45.2 IP) in 7 games/starts for Oklahoma (AAA) when contract was purchased on 5/11…Was placed on the Texas 15-day disabled list on 6/16 with right shoulder inflammation…Began rehab assignment on 8/2, making one start with the Arizona Rangers (Rookie) and one with Oklahoma (AAA)…Activated from disabled list on 8/11 and optioned to Oklahoma…Option was later voided after Mathis made 2 additional starts with Oklahoma and it was discovered he was not fully recovered from previous injury…Was subsequently recalled from Oklahoma and reinstated on major league disabled list, where he resided for the remainder of the season…Had surgery in early September to remove an inflamed bursa sac in his right shoulder.

◆ 2007 Spent most of the season at Frisco (AA), in addition to brief stints with Oklahoma and Arizona (Rookie)...Began the year with Oklahoma...Transferred to Frisco on 4/19...Selected to the Texas League South Division All-Star Team...Made one start after the break before being placed on the DL with a muscle strain in his back, 7/4...Earned the victory and notched a season-high 10 strikeouts in a 9.0-inning complete game shutout on 8/25 vs. Midland, allowing just 4 hits and no walks...Ranked among Frisco staff leaders in ERA (1st - min. 90.0 innings), innings, wins (2nd), starts (T2nd) and strikeouts (3rd)...His 3.76 ERA ranked 8th in the Texas League.

◆ 2006 Spent the majority of the season with Bakersfield (High-A) and appeared in 2 games at Frisco...Combined to go 10-7, 4.14 (74 ER/160.2 IP) with 119 strikeouts and only 52 walks over 28 games/27 starts...Ranked 3rd among all Texas minor leaguers in wins and 7th with an ERA of 4.15...Ranked among California League leaders in complete games (T1st, 2), shutouts (2nd, one) and ERA (5th, 4.18)...Led the Bakersfield staff in complete games, innings pitched and T1st in strikeouts...Received Rangers Minor League Pitcher of the Month honors for July...Named California League Pitcher of the Week honors for the week of 7/17-23 and 8/7-13.

◆ 2005 Led all Texas minor leaguers with a 2.68 ERA (25 ER/84.0IP)...Spent first professional season with Spokane (Rookie-Advanced)...Tied for Northwest League lead in games started...Ranked 2nd in the circuit in innings, 4th in losses, 5th in strikeouts and 7th in ERA...Led Spokane staff in starts, innings pitched, strikeouts and ERA.

2010 Season Highlights

◆ Spent the season rehabbing from reconstructive right elbow surgery in June of 2009...Rehabbed in Goodyear, AZ all spring and into the summer before making 2 rehab starts for the AZ Rookie League Indians on July 17 and 22...

◆ Also made a pair of starts for AA Akron on that same rehab on July 27 and August 1 (1.2IP, 6H, 9R/ER, 4BB, 1K) before being shutdown for 10 days with mid-back soreness...Made 1 more start, August 11 at AA Akron (1.0IP, 1H, 7R/ER, 6BB, 1K), before being shutdown from competitive action in order to work on his mechanics and delivery with the Major League staff for the rest of the 2010 regular season.

Pro Career

◆ 2009 Opened the season in the Indians rotation before being shut down for the season after walking a career-high 6 batters at Cincinnati in his final start of 5/22 that eventually led to season-ending reconstructive right elbow surgery on 6/12 in Anaheim, CA (Dr. Lewis Yocum)...Rehabbed in Cleveland the remainder of the regular season...Improved to 1-0 in his first start of the season on 4/12 vs. the Toronto Blue Jays in Cleveland...6.0IP, 3H, 4R/ER, 3BB, 2K.... Was his only win of the year and was winless over his final 7 starts...Did not get a decision in his 2nd start at NYY on 4/17 (5.0IP, 5H, 3R/ER, 3HR)...3HR all'd equaled a career-high (3rd time)...Last 5GS: 0-1 w/a 8.05 ERA (21.1IP, 28H, 19ER)...Non-tendered on 12/12 and signed to minor league deal the following day.

◆ 2008 Was acquired in late July and was a solid member of the rotation for 6 turns in August and early September before being shut down for the season with a sore right elbow after his final start on 9/5 at Kansas City...Was optioned to Buffalo after the 7/26 trade and went 2-0 w/a 2.77 ERA in 2 starts for AAA Buffalo before being recalled from Buffalo on 8/8 and made his Indians debut that night in Toronto, picking up his first win as a starter on the season in the 5-2 win (6.1IP, 7H, 1R/ER, 1BB, 4K)...Tossed a season-high 7.0IP in a ND at Texas on 8/24 (7.0IP, 4H, 1R/ER)...Also tossed 7.0IP in start of 8/30 vs. Seattle...With Cleveland he was 2-1 w/a 1.83 ERA in 6 starts (34.1IP, 31H, 7R/7ER, 12BB, 15K)...His 2.01 ERA during the month of August was 3rd best in the AL (min 30.0IP, 31.1IP, 30H, 7R/ER)...His minor league career record is 27-13 w/a 3.24 ERA in 74 starts (428.0IP, 366H, 155ER), including a career Triple-A ERA of 3.15 (55GS, 317.0IP, 263H, 111ER)....Combined on the year for Cleveland and St. Louis he was 4-2-1 w/a 2.76 ERA in 16 games (6GS, 49.0IP, 47H, 15ER, 15BB, 25K)...Prior to his 7/26 acquisition he split the 2008 season between the St. Louis bullpen and AAA Memphis rotation...He was on the Cardinals' opening day roster and posted a mark of 2-1 w/a save and a 4.91 ERA in 10 relief outings (14.2IP, 16H, 8R/ER, 2HR, 3BB, 10K), recording scoreless outings in 6 of 10 appearances...Earned first Major League save on April 12 @SF...Between his 2 stints in St. Louis and the DL he went 2-3 w/a 3.25 ERA in 11 starts for Memphis (52.2IP, 51H, 19ER, 4HR, 21BB, 47K) and limited PCL hitters to a .250 (51-195) average against...Was with the Cardinals from opening day until 5/4 option and recalled again on 6/14...

Placed on DL with a right elbow strain after outing of 6/15 vs. PHI w/a right elbow strain and was on DL from 6/16-7/5 (activated and optioned to Memphis).

- 2007 Had tough second season in the big leagues, enduring a tough-luck 2-14 season...Became the first Cardinals pitcher to lose 10 straight games to begin a season since 1898 when Kid Carsey lost his first 10 games...His 12-game losing streak from 9/8/06-6/27/07 tied a franchise record held by Bill Kissinger who lost a club-high 12-straight decisions from 1896-97...The last ML pitcher to lose 12-straight was Russ Ortiz (9/4/05-4/7/07) with ARI, BAL & SF...His .125 winning percentage tied for lowest in Cardinals history with Bill Kissinger, who also went 2-14 in 1896...The team scored 65 total runs in his 20 starts and only 34 while he was on the mound...Six of the Cards 12 shutout losses came in games started by Reyes...His 34 runs of support while on the mound was the lowest in the majors among pitchers with 20-or-more starts since 1989 when the Phillies Don Carman also received 34 runs.
- 2006 Promising rookie joined the starting rotation where he made 17 Major League starts, as well as Game 1 of the World Series...Made a spot start for injured Sidney Ponson on 5/20 before joining the rotation for good on 5/30...Fanned 9 batters in two of his last five starts and totaled 28 K's in his last 20.2 IP (five starts)...Started the season at Memphis and was the Redbirds Opening Day starter 4/6 at Oklahoma... Worked the Cardinals first complete game of the season 6/22 at CWS, posting the 23rd one-hitter in franchise history...However, the lone White Sox hit (one-out Jim Thome solo HR in 7th) led to a 1-0 defeat ..According to the Elias Sports Bureau, that loss - while holding the opposition to just one hit - was the first by a Cardinals team since 7/30/1914 when they lost 2-1 to the Boston Braves on a one-hit CG performance by Cardinals pitcher Dan Griner...Was optioned to Triple-A on 8/18 to make room for OF Preston Wilson on the 25-man roster...Was recalled from Memphis (AAA) for his start on 9/3 and fanned a career high nine in 6-3 win over the Pirates...Drew starting assignment in Game 1 of World Series at Detroit, and made history by owning the fewest career wins (6) of any pitcher to start the opening game of the Series...Was outstanding in his World Series debut, allowing a run on two hits and a walk in the first, then retired 17-straight Tigers before allowing another hit, a single in the 7th...Allowed a lead-off homer in the 9th to Craig Monroe before leaving the game after 8.0+ IP (4H, 2R, BB, 4K) and just 90 pitches thrown as he posted a 7-2 win...Had no-decision in NLCS Game 4 start vs. the Mets, a 12-5 loss.
- 2005 Made his Major League debut for the Cardinals in a start on 8/9 and made three additional appearances in relief after a September call-up...Became the first player to reach the Majors from the Cardinals 2003 draft class...Was 7-6 in 24 starts at Memphis and threw one complete game and one shutout...His 3.57 ERA was 2nd in the Pacific Coast League and he finished 3rd in the PCL with 136 strikeouts...Struck out 12 batters in his 13.1 IP over four appearances for the Cardinals...Made a spot start in his debut on 8/9 at MIL and worked 6.1 IP for his first M.L. win...Ranked 1st in the PCL by averaging 10 baserunners per nine innings...His 9.5 strikeouts per nine innings ranked 2nd best in the league and a .222 batting average against ranked 3rd best...Was named Cardinals Minor League Pitcher of the Month for May, when he went 3-1 with a 2.06 ERA (39.1 IP / 9 ER) in six starts...In his first start at Memphis following his major league debut on 8/9, Anthony set a Memphis club record with 15 strikeouts as he dealt 7.0 innings of shutout ball on 8/14 vs. Nashville.
- 2004 Had a successful first year with the Cardinals, going 9-2 with a 3.49 ERA in 19 starts between A Palm Beach and AA Tennessee...Was named the organization's Minor League Pitcher of the Year...His 140 total strikeouts were 2nd-most in the team's minor league system and his nine wins ranked T-6th...Struck out a season-high 10 batters in his last start at Palm Beach on 6/27...Was placed on Palm Beach's 7-day DL on 4/14 with right shoulder tendinitis.
- 2003 Selected in the 15th round (455th overall) of the June 2003 free-agent draft.

2010 Season Highlights

- Had another prolific season as he made his way to the big leagues for the first time, but did not play after August 2nd after a season-ending injury in Boston...Began the season in AAA Columbus and dominated the International League, earning a spot in the mid-season Triple-A All-Star Game (did not play).
- At the time of his June 11 recall from Columbus he was leading Indians minor league players in home runs (13) and RBI (51) and among International League leaders ranked 1st in on-base percentage (.447), walks (45) and OPS (1.044), T2nd in RBI (51), T3rd in home runs (13), 4th in slugging percentage (.597) and total bases (117), 5th in average (.316) and T6th in runs scored (39).
- Opened the season with 2 HR & 4RBI on April 8 vs. Indianapolis and had 4HR & 8 RBI over the season's first 4 games... Named IL player of the week during the season's first week...Also hit 2HR /5RBI on May 17 vs. Durham...Overall he hit .303 in April (5HR, 23RBI, 1.043OPS) and .324 in May (33-102, 5HR, 23RBI)...With runners in scoring position (RISP) he batted .390 (23-59) with 3HR and 39RBI and against right-handed pitching he hit .350 (48-137) with 10HR and 41RBI...Hit .237 (14-59) off LHH w/an .811 OPS...Over his last 12 games at Columbus from May 28-June 10 he hit .341 (14-41) with 9 runs scored, 5 doubles, a triple, 3HR and 11RBI.

- Recalled on June 11 and made Major League debut that night vs. Washington in Progressive Field (0-3, RS, BB)... Became the first Indians hitter since 1977 (Jim Norris, RF) to make his Major League debut hitting 3rd in the lineup... Earned his first Major League hit/RBI w/a second inning double off Washington's JD Martin and hit his first home run, also off Martin, in the 5th inning of that game...Overall with Cleveland he made 40 starts at catcher, 5 at DH, 35 starts in the 3-hole and 10 starts at cleanup.
- Hit .345 (20-58) in June with 9 2B, 4HR & 15 RBI in 18 games (.1.165OPS) with Cleveland and from July 1st on he hit .207 (19-92) with 4 2B, 2HR & 7 RBI in 28 games but did draw 24 walks over that span for an OB% of .367 (21SO)... Hit .314 (32-102) off RHP and .146 (7-48) off LHP with Cleveland...Overall had a .401 on-base % in 46 games with Cleveland, which would have been tied for the 4th best mark in the American League in 2010 with enough at-bats...Did not start outside the 3-4-5 hole in the batting order the entire season at either level...Threw out 29% (9-31) as Indians pitchers recorded a 4.42 ERA with him behind the plate (340.0IP, 342H, 167ER).
- Season ended prematurely after a 7th inning collision at home plate with Boston's Ryan Kalish in Fenway Park on August 2nd...Sustained damage to his lateral collateral ligament (LCL) that ended his season and later underwent surgery to repair the ligament in Cleveland by Dr. Rick Parker on August 6th...Rehabbed the rest of season and off-season between Cleveland and Arizona and should be ready for the start of the 2011 regular season.

2010 Season Highlights

- Season never quite got started as he was limited to just 33 games due to a left knee injury that eventually required season-ending surgery in June...Originally injured the knee in an exhibition game on April 1 in Los Angeles against the Dodgers and it bothered him the entire year...Final game came on May 16 in Baltimore after re-aggravating the injury sliding back into a base.
- Placed on the 15-day DL on May 19 with a bone bruise in his left knee and did not play again the rest of the season... Underwent micro-fracture surgery on his left knee on June 4 in Vail, Colorado by Dr. Richard Steadman with the intention of being ready for the beginning of the 2011 regular season...Was scratched from the lineup on April11 at Detroit with mid-back soreness and played again 3 days later.
- On the year he made 31 starts in center field, making just 1 error in 65 total chances....Error on May 14 ended a 157-game errorless streak dating back to 2008…Made all 31 starts in the #2 spot in the order, mainly hitting behind Asdrubal Cabrera…At the time of his injury he was tied for second in the AL with 2 triples…Did not homer on the season, but did homer off Detroit's Jeremy Bonderman on May 7 that was nullified by a rainout...Reached base safely in 22 of 33 games…Hit .263 (15-57) with runners on, .276 (8-29) with RISP and .266 (21-79) off RHP.

Pro Career

- 2009 Injuries took their toll on Sizemore's season, which forced him onto the disabled list for the first time in his career in May and shutdown his season four (4) weeks prematurely on 9/4...Was placed on the disabled list on 5/31 with inflammation in his left elbow, which he originally injured in spring training…At the time of the injury he was hitting .223 (46-206) w/11 2B, 9HR & 31 RBI in 49 games (.309OB/.417SLG/.726OPS)…Following his activation on 6/23 he hit .270 (62-230) w/9 2B, 5 3B, 9HR & 33 RBI in 57 games (.373OB/.470SLG/.843OPS) to raise his average from .223 to .248…From 7/3 until his season ended on 9/3 he hit .281 (56-199) with 8 2B, 4 3B, 8HR & 24RBI in 49 games (.386OB/.482SLG/.869OPS), percentages which met or exceed the totals from his 2007 and 2008 campaigns…Had left elbow surgery on 9/9 at the Cleveland Clinic by Dr. Mark Schickendantz to remove the inflammation and another surgery on 9/16 in Philadelphia (Dr. Bill Meyers) to address instability in his lower left abdominal wall (athletic pubalgia) that initially shut him down in spring training for a week and bothered him the entire regular season…The injury in spring training also forced him to withdrawal from the World Baseball Classic....Was limited to 13 steals in 21 attempts (62%) due to the groin soreness…Had a pair of two-homer games, giving him 8 on his career (last coming on 7/7 @CWS)… Also led off games with home runs 3 times, giving him a franchise record 21 lead-off homers (Kenny Lofton is 2nd with 18)…Last lead off HR came on 8/27 at BAL…Hit his 3rd career grand slam on 4/16 at New Yankee Stadium vs. the Yankees, the first slam ever in the new park…Also made 14 starts at DH…Was T14th in the league with 6 triples… Was the 6th hardest player in the AL to double up (109AB per GIDP).
- 2008 Had another outstanding season offensively as he joined Joe Carter (1987) as the only two players in club history to hit 30HR and steal 30 bases…Compiled a career-high 33 home runs (T6th in the AL) and 38 steals (5th in the AL)…10th American League player (14th time) to hit 30HR and steal 30 bases (33rd player/53rd time)…Hanley Ramirez did it in the NL this year and Alfonso Soriano in 2005 was the last AL player…First Indian since "Shoeless" Joe Jackson (1911-14) to lead the team in hits in 4 straight seasons (2005-08)…Won his second consecutive Rawlings Gold Glove Award (Lofton in 1995-96 last Tribe OF with consecutive awards) and won his first career Silver Slugger Award, the first by a Tribe OF since Juan Gonzalez in 2001…At 26 was the youngest Tribe SS winner since Jim Thome in 1996…Also named to the Sporting News Post-Season All-Star Team w/Cliff Lee…Made 151 starts in CF, making just 2 errors in 386 total chances (.995 fielding % was 8th among AL outfielders and 2nd best among AL CFs for the 2007 Rawlings Gold Glove winner)…Hit his 100th home run (7/5 at MIN) and stole his 100th career base (7/8 @DET) to become just the 2nd player in club history along with Carter to hit 100 career HR and steal 100 career bases as an Indian…Only Indian in 108-year history of the franchise to hit 30 doubles, 30HR and steal 30 bases within the same season…His 32 HR as a CF tied Earl Averill (1931-32) and Larry Doby (1952, '54) for the most in a single season by an Indians CF…Finished 6th in the league in total bases (318), t2nd in extra base hits (77), 3rd in walks (98), 14th in slugging % (.502), 15th in on-base % (.375), 12th in on-base+ slugging % (OPS of .876), 10th in runs scored (101) and t17th in RBI (career-high/ team-high equaling 90)…Was 7th in the league w/a .548 slugging % vs. RHP and 9th w/a .386 OB% off RHP…Had a career-best 7RBI on 8/21 vs. KC (4-5, 3B, HR)…Had five 2HR games in 2008 (most in AL)…Led off 7 games with home runs (4/30, 5/10, 5/14, 5/30, 6/14, 7/22, 8/25) to give him 18 for his career…Led Major League lead- off hitters in HR (33) and RBI (90)…Was successful on 38 of his 43 stolen base attempts (88%, 4th best % in the AL)…Was the 2nd hardest player in the AL to double up (1GIDP per 126.8) behind TB's Iwamura…Also finished 3rd in the AL with 18 intentional walks…Decreased his strikeouts 155 in 2007 to 130 in 2008…Played in 382 straight games from 8/26/2005-4/26/2008 before streak was snapped on 4/27 after spraining his right ankle the day before vs. New York-AL while running the bases…At the time it was the longest active streak in the Majors and was the longest by an Indian since Toby Harrah (473G) from 1979-83…Was also T14th in the AL in doubles (39) and his 3043 pitches seen led AL hitters…Was 11th in the AL with 4.08 pitches per PA.

◆ 2007 Had another outstanding season offensively and ranked among the American League leaders in several categories and won his first career Rawlings Gold Glove Award…Finished 4th in the league in runs scored (118), 5th in walks (101), T6th in stolen bases, (career-high 33 in 43 attempts, 77%), T17th in home runs, 14th in total bases (290), T16th in extra base hits (63) and 5th in HBP (17)…Finished 12th in AL MVP voting after the season…Doubles went from 53 in 2006 to 34 in 2007 (EB hits from 92 to 63)…Amassed single-season career highs in homers, steals and walks.... Stole a career-high 3 bases on 4/10 vs. LAA…Joined OF Joe Carter is just the 4th Indian with at least 20 home runs and 25 stolen bases in the same season…JOE CARTER (1986-88), ROBERTO ALOMAR (1999, 2001) & BOBBY BONDS (1979) had done it previously…Hit lead-off in the first 118 games of the season before starting in the #3 spot on 8/14 vs. Detroit…Was the first time he did not start in the lead-off spot since May 13, 2005…Hitting in the #3 hole he hit .258 (8-31) with 7RS, 2 2B 2 HR & 4 RBI in 8 games…Moved back to the lead-off spot on 8/25 as the Indians went 26-9 from that point on…Made 150 starts in thelead-off spot, 157 starts in CF and 1 start at DH…Among Major League lead-off hitters he was T4th in HR (22), 2nd in RBI (74) and 6th w/a .388 on-base %...Made 2 errors in 405 total chances (.995), the 4th best fielding % among AL outfielders (4 assists)…Led off the season with a HR, becoming the 30th Major Leaguer to hit a lead-off homer on opening day and the third Indian along with Julio Franco (1988) and Charlie Jamieson (1925)…Sizemore also became the first player in the club's 107-year history to homer in each of the franchise's first three games of the season…Lead-off games with home runs 4 times…Hit his 2nd career inside the park HR on 4/27 vs. Baltimore…Hit in 12 straight games (equaled a career-high) from 7/23-8/4 (.370, 17-46, 12RBI)…Played in his 2nd straight/career All-Star Game…Collected his 500th career hit and 2nd career grand slam on 7/2 vs. Tampa Bay off Al Reyes…Enjoyed 2nd career inside-the-park HR on 4/27 vs. Baltimore…Was also 3rd in times on base (292), 1st in most pitches seen,12th in pitches per at bat (4.14) and 16th in on-base plus slugging %(.852)…When Sizemore scored a run: 59-26 (.694)…Hit .279 (12-43) in the playoffs with 2HR, 3RBI, 2 SB and a team-high 9RS in 11 games.

◆ 2006 Had an historic season on the club and Major League level as he became just the 2nd Major League Player, and first Indian/AL player, with 50 doubles, 10 triples, 20 homers and 20 steals in the same season (HOF OF Chuck Klein in 1932 for Philadelphia is the only other player to ever do it)…Became just the 4th player in MLB history with 50 doubles, 10 triples & 25 homers in the same season and the first to do it since Joe "Ducky" Medwick in 1937…Lou Gehrig (1927) & Chuck Klein (1932) also did it (all three are in the Hall of Fame)…His American League-best 53 doubles were the 3rd highest single-season total in franchise history behind only Ed Burns & Tris Speaker as he became the first Indian

◆ Had a very solid rookie campaign, finished T2nd among AL rookie pitchers in wins (10), 3rd in starts (28), strikeouts (88) and innings pitched (159.1) and 4th in ERA (4.41)...Earned his 1st Major League victory in his 2nd start of the year as he tossed a complete game in his start of April 16 vs. the Chicago White Sox in Progressive Field, a 6-2 Indians win...9.0IP, 6H, 2R/1ER, 0BB, 2K, HR to Konerko...According to ELIAS it was the first time that an Indians pitcher notched his first big-league win by going the distance since May 24, 1993, when TOM KRAMER did that against Texas.

- Won 3 straight starts, April 16-27, and was 3-0 w/a 0.84 ERA over those starts (21.1IP, 14H, 2ER)...Was 3-1 w/a 2.05 ERA in 4 April starts (26.1IP, 20H, 6ER) and was runner up for AL Rookie of the Month to Detroit's Austin Jackson... Worked 8.0IP in his start of May 15 at Baltimore (8.0IP, 5H, 2R/ER) to notch his 5th win...Went 3-3 w/a 4.91 ERA in 6 May starts (40.1IP, 42H, 22ER).
- Beat the Sox for the 3rd time in his start of June 5 @CWS (7.0IP, 6H, 1R)...According to ELIAS Talbot is the first rookie with three victories against the White Sox in one season since CC Sabathia went 3-0 versus Chicago in 2001, and he's the first rookie with three wins against the White Sox through June 5 since 1928, when Jack Ogden of the St. Louis Browns did it...Went 2-2 w/a 4.11 ERA in 5 June starts (30.2IP, 32H, 14ER).
- Left his start of July 29 vNYY in the 3rd inning of a 11-4 loss to the Yankees...2.0+IP, 1H, 1R/ER, 4BB, K...Placed on the 15-day DL next day with a mid-back strain...Made a rehab start at Mahoning Valley on Aug 9 (3.0IP, 2H, 1R/ER) and was activated from the disabled list on August 14...Started that night vs. Seattle as he suffered 10th loss to the M's in Progressive Field...4.0IP, 8H, 6R/4ER.
- Lost 5 straight decisions from July 2 to August 30 as he was 0-5 w/a 6.23 ERA (43.1IP, 58H, 34R/30ER, 27BB, 30K in 9 starts...Over his last 16GS since June 10 he was 2-9 w/a 5.61 ERA (78.2IP, 96H, 49ER)...Lost 7 of 8 decisions from July 2-Sept 23 before winning his final start of the year on Sept 29 vs. DET-G1 (7.0IP, 5H, 0R, 0BB, 5K)...Was T11th in the AL w/8 wins thru the end of June...Struck out career-high 8 batters on July 24 vs. TB.
- From July 2nd thru the end of the season he was 2-7 w/a 5.23 ERA (61.0IP, 75H, 6ER) and went 2-2 w/a 2.89 ERA in 4 September starts (18.2IP, 17H, 6ER) in his last 4 starts of the season...Did not record an out in start vs. Minnesota on Sept 12 and was pulled after 3 hitters with right shoulder inflammation...Made next start on Sept. 23...Batters were just 4 for 15 (27%) off him in SB attempts and his 11CS were T2nd in the AL...Was T21st in the AL with 18 GIDP's induced... Was one of three AL rookies to throw a CG with the other being fellow teammates Josh Tomlin & Carlos Carrasco... LHH batted .255 (74-290, 5HR) off him...Tribe Record: 13-15 (.464)...Tribe avg. RS in GS: 4.1 (115RS/28GS)...Starts of 6.0IP or more: 14 of 26 (54%).

Pro Career

- 2009 The Cedar City, Utah native was limited to 10 starts for Triple-A Durham due to a right elbow sprain which sidelined him for over two months in June, July and into August...Went 4-4 with a 4.47 ERA in 10 starts for the Bulls (54.1IP, 67H, 27ER, 18BB, 40K) and ended the year healthy, making 2 starts in the International League playoffs and went 3-0 w/a 4.37 ERA in 6 Arizona Fall League starts (22.2IP, 27H, 11ER, 6BB, 15K)...Opened season in Durham rotation before being sidelined on 5/27...Was 2-1 w/a 3.38 ERA in 4 April starts (21.1IP, 26H, 8ER, 5BB, 15K)...Made 4 rehab starts for GCL Rays in August and 1 start at Class-A Charlotte on 9/5 prior to the IL playoffs...He entered the 2009 season as the 16th overall prospect in the Tampa Bay organization according to Baseball America...His change-up was tabbed the best in the International League and tops in the TB system after the 2008 season by BA.
- 2008 Spent the year with AAA Durham, where he earned Pitcher of the Year honors and posted his 2nd consecutive 13-9 season, tying the Bulls season win record...Received two call-ups, first on 7/2 with Boston in town but was optioned back the next day without pitching in a game...Was called up again on 9/13 after the Bulls completed their postseason run...Made his major league debut 9/15 vs. BOS, tossing 3.0 innings in relief of Scott Kazmir in the Rays 13-5 loss... Made his first major league start on 9/23 at BAL in the second game of a doubleheader...Lasted 4.1 innings, allowing 3 runs on 6 hits and 3 walks, striking out a pair of Orioles...Over his final 10 starts at Durham, went 6-2 with a 2.05 ERA (57-IP, 13-ER), compared to a 7-7 mark with a 4.85 ERA (104-IP, 56-ER) in 18 starts prior...Won 6 straight decisions from 7/11-8/14...Baseball America rated his change-up the best in the IL...His change-up was ranked No. 1 in his organization in each of the 4 previous years.
- 2007 Spent the entire 2007 season at Triple-A Durham, compiling a 13-9 record to tie for the International League lead in wins...13 wins tied for 3rd in the organization and matched a Durham record also held by former Ray RHP Dave Eiland in 1998...Twenty-three-year-old led the IL with 29 starts and ranked 3rd with 161.0 IP, both career highs... Led the Bulls staff in IP.
- 2006 With Double-A Corpus Christi (Astros) of the Texas League...Made 18 appearances (17 starts) for the Hooks, going 6-4 with a team-best 3.39 ERA, 8th lowest in the league...Recorded his lone career save 6/11 vs. San Antonio (Mariners) throwing 3.0 scoreless innings to close out the 5-1 Hooks win...Entered the game in relief of Roger Clemens who was tuning up for a return to the majors...Struck out a regular season career-high 12 in 7.0 IP on 6/22 against Arkansas (Angels) in an 8-2 win...Set the Hooks' single-game franchise record, breaking the mark shared by Jason Hirsh and Clemens...Acquired by the Rays organization with Ben Zobrist for Aubrey Huff on 7/12 and help lead Montgomery to Southern League Championship...Named Rays Minor League Pitcher of the Month in August after going 2-1 with a 1.96

ERA in 6 starts and leading all Double-A pitchers with 47 SO…During Montgomery's championship run in the postseason, he tossed two complete-game, 5-hit shutouts (18.0-IP, 0-ER, 2-BB, 24-SO)…On 9/9 vs. Jacksonville (LAD), he was perfect through the first 6.0 IP and struck out a team-record 14 to seal the 3-game sweep for the Biscuits…Repeated the feat September 14 against Huntsville (Brewers) fanning 10 to give Montgomery a 2-1 lead in the 5-game series.

LOU BOUDREAU AND BOB FELLER AWARD RECIPIENTS FOR 2010

INF JASON KIPNIS was named the 2010 winner of the Lou Boudreau Award as the top minor league position player in the Indians Player Development System. Additionally, RHP ALEX WHITE was selected as the Bob Feller Award winner for 2010 as the organization's top minor league pitcher.

Kipnis, 23, in just his second professional season, hit a combined .307 (159-518) with 96 runs scored, 32 doubles, 8 triples, 16 home runs and 74RBI in 133 games between Kinston and Akron in 2010. Following the completion of the Aeros season, Kipnis joined the AAA Columbus Clippers for their playoffs and batted .455 (10-22) with 9 runs scored, 3 doubles, 2 triples, 2 home runs and 3RBI in 5 games as the Clippers were International League and Triple-A Champions.

Jason began his season at Kinston where he batted .300 (61-203) with 33 runs scored, 12 doubles, 3 triples, 6 home runs and 31RBI in 54 games before being promoted to AA Akron in early June. While at Akron he hit .311 (98-315) with 63 runs scored, 20 doubles, 5 triples, 10 home runs and 32RBI in 79 games. Kipnis led the entire Indians minor league system in hits (159) and runs scored (96) and ranked T3rd in triples (8), 4th in doubles (32), T5th in HR (16) and T5th in RBI (74). Following the season he was named the 9th best prospect in the Eastern League by Baseball America.

A second round selection by the Indians in the 2009 draft out of Arizona State University, Kipnis was converted to second base at the beginning of the 2010 season after playing exclusively in the outfield in 2009. Entering the 2011 season he was named the 3rd best prospect in the Indians organization by Baseball America.

White, 22, the Indians first round selection (15th overall) in the 2009 draft, combined to go 10-10 with a 2.45 ERA in 26 games/25 starts (150.2IP, 123H, 63R/41ER, 46BB, 117K) between Kinston and Akron in just his first professional season. On the year he limited opponents to a .220 (123-559) average against and led the Indians Player Development System in innings pitched (150.2), was 2nd in ERA (2.45), T4th in wins (10) and 6th in strikeouts (117).

White began the 2010 season at Kinston going 2-3 with a 2.86 ERA (44.0IP, 32H, 18R/14ER, 19BB, 41K, .204 avg) in 8 starts before being promoted to Akron at the end of May. While at Akron he posted a record of 8-7 with a 2.28 ERA (106.2IP, 91H, 45R/27ER, 27BB, 76K, .226 avg) in 18 games/17 starts. His 2.28 ERA would have led the Eastern League however it did not qualify. Following the season he was ranked by Baseball America as the 8th best prospect in the Eastern League and the 2nd best prospect in the Indians organization entering the 2011 season.

GOODYEAR COMPLEX STAFF

Ryan Lantz — Manager, Arizona Operations

Ryan enters his eighth season with the Cleveland Indians and his fifth as Manager of Spring Training Operations. In this capacity, he is responsible for all business aspects of the organization out west at the Development Complex in Goodyear, AZ such as facility operations, sponsorships, ticket sales, marketing initiatives, and serves as the local liaison between the organization and the community. Ryan previously was the Manager of Spring Training in Winter Haven, Florida before being permanently relocated to oversee the Arizona Operations.

He began his career with the organization in 2001 as an intern in the Sales & Marketing Department and then spent two seasons in the group sales department.

This Champion High School graduate earned his marketing degree from Ohio State in 2002, and currently resides with his wife, Lisa, in Goodyear, AZ.

Fletcher Wilkes — Clubhouse Manager

Fletcher enters his third season as the Clubhouse Manager of the Indians Player Development Complex in Goodyear, Arizona and his 18th year as a member of the Cleveland Indians organization. Wilkes is responsible for the day-to-day operations of the clubhouse in Arizona year round while also overseeing the minor league clubhouse during spring training.

Originally from Phenix City, Alabama, he began his career in the Indians organization as the Clubhouse Manager of the Columbus RedStixx in 1994 before moving on to Canton-Akron in 1996 and eventually Akron in 1997. In 2007, Wilkes served as the Assistant Visiting Clubhouse Manager in Cleveland before moving out to Arizona to assume his newly created duties. He has been responsible for running the minor league clubhouse in spring training since 1996.

A native of Phenix City, AL, Fletcher resides in Goodyear, AZ with his wife, Allison, and two sons, Mason and Jackson. He graduated from Columbus (GA) College with a degree in Parks and Administration in 1994 and is an avid Alabama Crimson Tide fan.

*19th in MLB over that span

- NICE AUDITION…RHP CARLOS CARRASCO was 2-2 w/a 3.83 ERA in 7 Sept./Oct. starts (44.2IP, 47H, 19ER, 14BB, 38K) and went at least 6.0IP in all 7 of the starts…Went 2-1 w/a 3.26 ERA in 6GS (38.2IP, 42H, 14ER, 29K) in September, all of which were quality starts…Was 12th in the AL in ERA among pitchers w/30.0IP, 7th in IP and 11th in SO in September…Fanned a career-high 9 batters in his final start of the season at Chicago on Oct. 2 in his first complete game of his career, a rain-shortened 6.0IP game (6.0IP, 5H, 6R/5ER, 3BB, 9K).

- OH MICHAEL…After his 3rd and final recall from AAA Columbus on Aug. 6th, OF MICHAEL BRANTLEY rebounded to hit .292 (57-195) with 26RS, 7 2B, 3 3B,2HR & 15 RBI in 46 games (.332OB/.390SLG /.721OPS) to raise his avg. from .157 over his first two stints to season-ending .246…Hit in 37 of his last 41 games (.295, 52-176)…Overall he finished 7th among AL rookies in runs (38), 8th in hits (73), T3rd in triples (3) and T2nd in SB (10)…Defining moment of his season came during a career-best 19-game hitting streak from Aug. 30-Sept. 19 over which he hit .286 (26-91) w/1RBI…Was tied for the 4th longest streak in the AL this year…Was the longest hitting streak by an Indians rookie batter since LARRY DOBY (21G) in 1948 and longest overall since CASEY BLAKE in 2007 (26G)…Overall he hit safely in 27 of his last 29 games from Aug. 30th-on (.283, 36-127).

- ROCKING DEBUT…Highly touted CA CARLOS SANTANA lived up to expectations after being recalled on June 11 from AAA Columbus…Became the first Indians hitter since 1977 (Jim Norris, RF) to make his Major League debut hitting 3rd in the lineup…Overall with Cleveland he made 40 starts at catcher, 5 at DH, 35 starts in the 3-hole and 10 starts at cleanup…Hit .345 (20-58) in June with 9 2B, 4HR & 15 RBI in 18 games (.1.165OPS) with Cleveland and from July 1st on he hit .207 (19-92) with 4 2B, 2HR & 7 RBI in 28 games but did draw 24 walks over that span for an OB% of .367 (21SO)…Reached base safely in 15 straight games via hit or walk from July 13-20…Overall had a .401 on-base % in 46 games with Cleveland, which would have been the 5th best mark in the American League in 2010 with enough at bats…Did not start outside the 3-4-5 hole in the batting order the entire season at either level…Threw out 29% (9-31) as Indians pitchers recorded a 4.42 ERA with him behind the plate (340.0IP, 342H, 167ER)…At the time of his June 11 recall from Columbus he was leading Indians minor league players in home runs (13) and RBI (51) and among International League leaders ranked 1st in on-base percentage (.447), walks (45) and OPS (1.044), T2nd in RBI (51), T3rd in home runs (13), 4th in slugging percentage (.597) and total bases (117), 5th in average (.316) and T6th in runs scored (39).

- NICE IMPRESSION…RHP JOSH TOMLIN tossed at least 5.0 innings in each of his first 12 career starts, becoming just the 2nd Indian pitcher since 1920 to have started their career with that such streak: Steve Dunning went 3-5 w/a 4.08ERA in his 12G streak during 1970…Josh won his last 2 starts to finish the season…Among AL rookie pitchers was T4th in wins (6), 6th in GS (12) and innings (73) and 9th in K.

- SOLID 2ND HALF…Indians DH TRAVIS HAFNER hit .329 (51-155) in the 2nd half with 15 2B, 5HR & 21 RBI in 44 2nd half games…He has an OPS of .932 (.409OB/ .523SLG)…He is 4th in the AL in batting avg. & 11th in OPS in the 2nd half (min 150PA)…Season OPS was .823 & on-base % would be 10th in AL w/enough PAs.

◆ FOUNTAIN OF YOUTH…The Indians ended the 2010 season with the youngest roster in the Major Leagues with an average of 26.06 per player on the 31-man roster to end the season…Also had the youngest pitching staff in MLB (25.61, 6 rookies) to end the season and the 3rd youngest position player in the Majors (26.46), which was the youngest set of non-pitchers in the American League.

 Cleveland had the youngest position player roster in the American League to end the season in addition to having the youngest roster and pitchers in MLB.*

◆ SLICK SECOND HALF…Indians have made just 3 errors in their last 17 games (1 unearned run allowed during that span from Sept. 16 thru the end of the season covering 154 IP)…The Indians finished with the 9th best fielding % in the American League at .982 (110E, 6223TC) and led the AL with 179 double plays (Colorado led MLB with 182)...Indians outfielders recorded 33 outfield assists as SHIN-SOO CHOO led the Majors with 14…TREVOR CROWE was T8th with 9 among AL outfielders…LOU MARSON threw out 26 of 77 (33.8%) of basestealers, which was the best % in the AL…The Indians were a combined 60-65 (.480) when Carlos Santana, Lou Marson or Luke Carlin started at catcher.

◆ HEALTHY TRIBE…The Indians used the disabled list 14 times this season and lost a total of 672 man days to injury…That figure, while ranking 14th in MLB among days missed jumps to 2nd in the Majors in days when figuring in RHP ANTHONY REYES' 183 days missed while rehabbing from 2009 elbow surgery…Only the Chicago White Sox had fewer days missed (285) than the Tribe's 489 days missed minus Reyes…Since the 2006 season the Indians have missed an aggregate total of 2,773 days on the disabled list, the 2nd lowest figure in Major League Baseball behind the Chicago White Sox (2,032).

◆ WHAT MIGHT HAVE BEEN…The Indians enjoyed the presence of OF GRADY SIZEMORE, OF SHIN-SOO CHOO & INF ASDRUBAL CABRERA in the starting lineup at the same time this year only 28 times…The threesome did not appear in a game together after Sizemore's year ended on May 16…In fact, Choo and Cabrera were only in the starting lineup at the same time a total of 92 times throughout the season.

INDIANS RETIRED UNIFORM NUMBERS

BOB FELLER — #19

Arguably the greatest right-handed pitcher of all-time, the Van Meter, Iowa native joined the Indians as a 17 year-old in 1936 and played 18 years with the Tribe. Feller compiled a lifetime record of 266-162 with a 3.25 ERA. He is the Indians all-time leader in shutouts (46), innings pitched (3,827), wins and strikeouts (2,581).

Bob appeared in 8 All-Star games, more than any player in the history of the Indians and started the 1941 and 1946 games.

Feller won twenty or more games six times and won a career-best 27 games in 1940. Bob also led the league in strikeouts seven times and in 1946 he won 26 games and struck out 348 in 371.1 innings and the 348 strikeouts is still a single-season team record.

"Rapid Robert" tossed three no-hitters in his career. Feller's first no-hitter came on April 16, 1940 in a 1-0 victory at Chicago in 30-degree weather and it remains as major league baseball's only opening day, no-hitter.

Bob lost three years of his career serving in the military (1942-44) and saw limited action in 1945.

Bob Feller's #19 was retired by the Indians in 1957, the first number retired by the club, and he was elected to baseball's Hall of Fame in 1962. Bob passed away on December 15, 2010 at the age of 92.

FELLER DEBUT

July 19, 2001 marked the 65th anniversary of Bob Feller's debut with the Indians on July 19, 1936. Bob took his big league bow in a relief appearance at Washington. The next month, Bob made his starting debut and recorded 15 strikeouts as Cleveland beat the St. Louis Browns 4-1 at League Park.

Mel Harder's career spanned 20 seasons, the most by any Indians player in history. The Beemer, Nebraska native broke into the majors with the Indians in 1928 and he concluded his career after the 1947 season with a 223-186 record and a 3.80 ERA. He appeared in 582 games, more than any other Indians player and his 223 victories trails only Feller on the Indians all-time list.

Harder, a four-time A.L. All-Star played in the mid-summer classic in 1934 through 1937. Mel collected twenty victories twice, in 1934 (20-12) and 1935 (22-11) and reached double figures in victories 14 times. From 1932-39 Harder tossed more than 200 innings and won at least 15 games in each of those years. Mel is in the Indians all-time top ten in IP, shutouts, wins, strikeouts and games.

Harder led the Indians in innings pitched four times (1933-35 and 1937), wins five times (1934-35, 1937, 1938 and 1944), ERA four times (1933-35 and 1938), strikeouts three times (1933, 1935 and 1942) and complete games twice (1935 and 1944). After his playing career, he was the pitching coach for the Tribe from 1948-63.

Mel Harder's #18 was retired by the Indians in 1990. Mel passed away at the age of 93 on October 20, 2002.

EARL AVERILL — #3

Earl Averill played 13 seasons in the majors, 11 of those with the Indians. The Snohomish, Washington native broke into the league with the Tribe in 1929 and homered in his first plate appearance on April 16, 1929 and he batted .331 his rookie year. Earl retired after the 1941 season with a .318 lifetime average.

Averill was a six-time A.L. All-Star and started in the mid-summer classic three times, in 1936, '37 and '38. The left-handed hitting outfielder led the league with 232 hits and 15 triples in 1936. In 1931 he scored 140 runs which still represents an Indians single-season record.

Earl is the Indians all-time leader in runs scored (1,154), triples (121), home runs (226), extra-base hits (724), and total bases (3,200). Averill is one of six Tribe players to have hit for the cycle. He did it on August 17, 1933 vs. Philadelphia.

Earl was the first Indians player to homer three times in one game as he cracked three round-trippers on September 17, 1930 in consecutive at-bats. He collected 32 homers in 1931 and '32 and 143 RBIs in 1931. Both represent season-highs by a Tribe centerfielder.

Earl Averill's #3 was retired by the Indians in 1975, the same year that he was elected to the Baseball Hall of Fame. He passed away on August 16, 1983 at the age of 81.

LOU BOUDREAU — #5

The Hall of Fame shortstop played in the majors for 15 seasons, 13 of those with the Indians, two with Boston. Lou was the Indians player-manager from 1942-1950 and led the Indians to their last World Championship in 1948.

With Boudreau at the helm, the Indians went 728-649 and he remains the all-time winningest manager in Tribe history. Lou also managed in Boston from 1952-54, in Kansas City from 1955-57 and he managed the Cubs in 1960.

Boudreau appeared in seven All-Star games, including three starting assignments in 1942, 1947 and 1948. In 1944 he led the A.L. with a .327 average and led the league in doubles three times with 45 two-baggers in 1941, 1944 and 1947.

Lou is in the Indians all-time top ten in games, ABs, hits, runs, doubles, RBI and extra-base hits.

In the championship season of 1948, Lou enjoyed his best season. He batted .355 with 18 home runs and 116 RBI. He collected 98 walks and struck out only 9 times in 560 at-bats.

Lou Boudreau's #5 was retired by the Indians in 1970, the same year that the Harvey, Illinois native was elected into baseball's Hall of Fame. Boudreau died on August 10, 2001 in Frankfort, IL at the age of 83.

MOST VALUABLE PLAYER VOTES

Since the establishment of the current Most Valuable Player awards in 1931, six players have accumulated 400 or more MVP votes in a Tribe uniform. The group is led by Hall of Famers Lou Boudreau and Bob Feller. Boudreau garnered 896 votes from 1940-1949 and won the award in 1948. Feller earned 838 votes from 1939-1951. Albert Belle gained 835 votes from 1992-1996. Bob Lemon had 559 votes from 1948-1956. Manny Ramirez had 480 votes from 1995-2000. Al Rosen had 414 votes from 1950-1954 and won the award in 1953.

LARRY DOBY— #14

On July 3, 1947, Indians owner Bill Veeck signed Larry Doby to a major league contract. Two days later he appeared in his first American League game, becoming the first African American player in the league. This trailblazer enjoyed a magnificent 13-year big league career, ten of those seasons were spent in Cleveland with the Tribe.

Larry helped lead the Indians to their last World Championship in 1948. In the '48 W.S. he batted a team-leading .318 and his 400-foot homer off the Braves Johnny Sain won Game 4 for the Indians. In 1950 he was recognized as the game's best centerfielder by The Sporting News. He led the AL in home runs (32) and RBI (126) in 1954 and Larry was a six-time All-Star spanning 1949-1954.

Prior to joining the Indians, Doby was a standout for the Newark Eagles of the Negro National League. In 1946, Doby led the Eagles to the World Championship, batting .397. He was hitting .414 with the Eagles in '47 before signing with the Indians.

Larry finished his outstanding major league career following the 1959 season. In his career he clubbed 253 home runs, collected 970 RBI and owned a .283 (1515-5348) batting average.

Larry Doby's #14 was retired by the Indians on July 3, 1994, exactly 47 years after he shattered the race barrier in the American League. Was enshrined into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1998. Larry passed away at the age of 79 on June 18, 2003.

BOB LEMON — #21

Bob Lemon spent his entire 15 year major league career with the Cleveland Indians. Lemon was converted to a pitcher after serving in the Navy in World War II after a stint at third base in the big leagues with the Tribe in 1941 & '42. After converting to pitcher, Lemon was a member of "The Big Four" and became one of the dominant AL starters over his 13 year pitching career during the late 1940s and 1950s.

Lemon's pitching prowess left him as one of the best pitchers in the history of the Indians franchise. His seven (7) 20-win seasons are the most by any pitcher in the history of the franchise. He currently ranks 3rd in Indians history in wins (207), innings (2850.0IP), strikeouts (1277), starts (350) and shutouts (31). He is 4th in club history in appearances (460) and complete games (188) and is 5th in winning percentage (207-128, .618).

During the Tribe's last World Championship campaign of 1948, "Lem" went 20-14 with a 2.82 ERA and led the American League in complete games (20), shutouts (10) and innings pitched (293.2IP). The sinkerballer followed his regular season performance up with a 2-0 record in the World Series vs. the Boston Braves w/a 1.65 ERA in 2 starts. Overall, Lemon led the American League in wins three times, complete games five times, innings pitched four times and shutouts and strikeouts one time each. A 7-time AL All-Star, Lemon was named The Sporting News Pitcher of the Year in 1948, 1950 & 1954. An outstanding hitting pitcher, Lemon compiled a career average of .232 (274-1183) with 37 HR, which is one short of the All-Time record by a pitcher (Wes Ferrell-38). He owned a .284 (31-109) mark as a pinch-hitter.

After his playing career was over in 1958, Lemon managed for eight seasons in the majors with the KC Royals, Chicago White Sox and New York Yankees, compiling a mark of 430-403 (.516). He managed the New York Yankees to the World Series title in 1978 and the AL crown in 1981.

He was elected into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1976 and his number 21 was retired by the Indians on June 20, 1998.

Lemon passed away in Long Beach, California on January 11, 2000 after a lengthy illness.

BEST OWNERSHIP START

The Indians have never finished first in the first year of a new ownership. The Dolan ownership was only the second in club history to debut with a second place finish. Cleveland finished second in 1953 under the new ownership group with Myron H. "Mike" Wilson, Jr. as its president.

A CLEAN SWEEP

Prior to the 2001 Seattle Mariners, the last team to lead its league in batting average, earned run average, and fielding average in the same season was the 1948 World Champion Cleveland Indians. Cleveland also led the AL in all three categories in 1906. The only other teams to accomplish this feat are the New York Giants (1904, 1931), Chicago Cubs (1906, 1945), Philadelphia Athletics (1910), and St. Louis Cardinals (1944, 1946). (Based on data from Total Baseball, Sixth Edition.)

EDITOR'S NOTE: Former Indians General Manager Billy Evans was elected to the Hall of Fame in January, 1973. Former owner Bill Veeck was elected in 1991. Walter Johnson managed the club from 1933-35 and Hank Greenberg was General Manager from 1950-57.

GOLD AT SECOND, SHORT, AND THIRD

With 3 Gold Glove infielders in 2000 (Robbie Alomar, Omar Vizquel, and Travis Fryman), the Indians joined a select circle. Only one other franchise has had the Gold Glove winners at second base, shortstop, and third base in the same season. In 1969 and 1971, the Orioles captured Gold Gloves at all three positions (Second Baseman Dave Johnson, Third Baseman Brooks Robinson, Shortstop Mark Belanger) and did so again from 1973-75 (Second Baseman Bobby Grich, Robinson, Belanger).

STADIUM INFORMATION

FIRST FULL SEASON AT THE STADIUM — 1933, after which the Indians returned to League Park—playing occasionally at the Stadium. They returned to the Stadium on a permanent basis in 1947 and remained there through the 1993 season.

LEAGUE PARK — Constructed in 1891 at Lexington Avenue and East 66th Street as the home field of Cleveland's professional baseball team. A capacity crowd of 9,000 jammed into the new park on opening day, May 1, 1891, to watch Cy Young beat Cincinnati 12-3. The wooden park was dismantled, following the 1909 season and replaced by a steel and concrete structure which was still known as League Park.

DUNN FIELD — League Park was rechristened Dunn Field in 1920 in honor of owner James Dunn. The name reverted to League Park following Dunn's death in 1927.

FIRST GAME AT LEAGUE PARK — April 21, 1910, Detroit 5, Cleveland 0, (Attendance 19,867) League Park Capacity: 23,000 (after park was rebuilt).

LAST GAME AT LEAGUE PARK — September 21, 1946, Detroit 5, Cleveland 3.

FIRST YEAR FOR OUTFIELD FENCE AT THE STADIUM — 1947.

NO BALL WAS EVER HIT INTO THE CENTERFIELD BLEACHERS.

LONGEST BALL hit in the Stadium was by Indian first baseman Luke Easter on June 23, 1950. The ball landed in the upper deck, section 4 in right field a total of 477 feet from home plate. Mickey Mantle, Frank Howard and Rocky Colavito have hit balls that bounced near the bleacher wall in left center field, some 465 feet from home plate.

TOTAL FIELD AREA at the Stadium covered 183,000 square feet, some $3^{1}/_{2}$ acres.

FIRST DH IN CLUB HISTORY

The first regular season designated hitter for the Indians was John Ellis. Ellis batted clean-up on April 7, 1973 when the Tribe opened the season against the Tigers at Cleveland Stadium. In his first at-bat, in the first inning, Ellis grounded out from pitcher Mickey Lolich to first baseman NormCash. He went 0 for 4, but Cleveland won the game 2-1 behind starting pitcher Gaylord Perry. Oscar Gamble was Cleveland's most frequent DH in1973 (259 at-bats). Others to DH for Cleveland in 1973 were Dave Duncan, Ron Lolich, John Lowenstein, Charlie Spikes, and Walt Williams.

3000 HITS IN TRIBE UNIFORM

Of the 25 players in major league baseball history with 3,000 or more hits, three of them reached the hallowed mark in a Cleveland uniform: Nap Lajoie, Tris Speaker, Eddie Murray. Murray joined the 3,000 hit Club on June 30, 1995 against the Twins at the Metrodome in Minnesota. Speaker reached 3,000 hits on May 17, 1925 against the Washington Senators at League Park. Lajoie's 3,000th hit is less clear. Initially, his 3,000th hit was reported on September 27, 1914. Subsequent research found that Lajoie had nine hits in 1901 not previously recorded. Consequently, his 3,000th hit actually came on September 17, 1914 against Boston at League Park.

THE WINNINGEST DECADE

Cleveland won 904 games during the 1950s (1950-1959), the winningest decade in club history. Cleveland's 823 wins in the 1990s (1990-1999) were one win short of matching the 1930s (1930-1939) as the second winningest decade in franchise history.

OTHER NO-HITTERS

Earl Moore's 1901 no hitter (5/9/01) was one of those affected by a 1991 ruling regarding no-hitters. Moore pitched nine no-hit innings, but allowed hits in the 10th inning in a 4-2 loss against Chicago. One no hitter pitched against Cleveland prior to 1991 was also affected by the 1991 ruling. Tom Hughes (8/30/10) allowed a hit in the 10th and lost the game, 5-0, in the 11th. On April 12, 1992 Matt Young did not allow a hit in a 2-1 Tribe win over Boston at Cleveland Stadium. Young pitched the entire eight innings for Boston (Cleveland did not bat in the ninth), but, based on the 1991 ruling, did not receive credit for a no-hitter.

PINCH HITTING LEMON

According to The Great Book of Baseball Knowledge by David Nemec, Bob Lemon holds the record for highest career pinch-hit batting average by a pitcher (minimum 100 Pinch At-bats). Lemon had 31 pinch hits in 109 pinch-hit at bats for a .284 batting average from 1941 through 1958. Lemon spent his entire major league playing career with the Indians.

DID YOU KNOW?

According to the Elias Sports Bureau the 33 years without a 20-game winner (1975-2007) was the longest gap in Major League history, one year longer than the Phillies' 32-year streak from 1918 to 1949...The last Indians pitcher to be the first pitcher in the Majors to reach 20 wins was BOB LEMON in 1954 (August 29).

FELLER'S TRIPLE CROWN

For pitchers, an equivalent of batting's Triple Crown is leading the league in wins, strikeouts, and ERA in a single season. Bob Feller accomplished this feat in 1940 with 27 wins, 261 strikeouts, and a 2.61 ERA. Feller captured two legs of this Triple Crown in 1939 (24 wins, 246 strikeouts), 1941 (25 wins, 260 strikeouts), 1946 (26 wins, 348 strikeouts), and 1947 (20 wins, 196 strikeouts). Bob Lemon (23 wins, 170 strikeouts) in 1950 and Sam McDowell (2.18 ERA, 325 strikeouts) in 1965 also came within one title of the Triple Crown.

LIKE FATHER, LIKE SON

Three members of the 1948 World Champion Cleveland Indians fathered sons who later also played in the World Series. Jim Hegan's son, Mike, played for the Yankees in the 1964 World Series, Ray Boone's son, Bob, played in the 1980 World Series, and Bob Kennedy's son, Terry, played in the 1984 World Series. Ray's grandson, Bret, appeared in the 1999 World Series for the Braves.

1948 AMERICAN LEAGUE PENNANT PLAYOFF GAME

vs. BOSTON RED SOX - INDIANS win A.L. pennant with an 8-3 victory

The 1948 regular season came to a close with the Indians and Boston Red Sox in a first-place tie with identical records of 96-58. This made necessary the first championship playoff game in American League history, and only the second ever playoff in major league history.

Monday, October 4 - at Boston (AL)

Rookie southpaw Gene Bearden, pitching with just one day's rest, fired a five-hitter, enabling the Indians to advance to the World Series with an 8-3 championship playoff victory. Lou Boudreau went four for four at the plate, belting two home runs and scoring three times. Third baseman Ken Keltner had three hits including a homer, double and three RBI. Larry Doby doubled twice and Jim Hegan drove in a run with an infield out. Second baseman Bobby Doerr had a two run homer for the Red Sox.

1954 WORLD SERIES REVIEW

vs. NEW YORK GIANTS - GIANTS win best-of-seven series, 4-0

Game #1 - Wednesday, September 29 - at NEW YORK
A pinch-hit home run with one out in the tenth inning by Dusty Rhodes lifted the Giants to a 5-2 victory. The blast spoiled a four for five plate performance by the Indians Vic Wertz. Willie Mays helped send the game into extra frames with his famous over-the-shoulder catch of Wertz' 460-foot drive in the eighth inning.

1995 DIVISION SERIES REVIEW

vs. BOSTON RED SOX - INDIANS win best-of-five series, 3-0

Game #1 - Tuesday, October 3 (N) - at CLEVELAND
Tony Pena's 2-out, 13th inning solo homer off Zane Smith gave the Tribe the 5-4 victory in their first playoff game since October 2, 1954. Game also featured home runs by John Valentin, Tim Naehring and Luis Alicea. Albert Belle's homer in the 11th inning tied the game, 4-4, and led to Boston manager Kevin Kennedy claiming Belle's bat for illegalities (bat later found clean). Roger Clemens and Dennis Martinez started. Belle went 2-5 with a 2B, HR and 3 RBI. Luis Alicea was 4-5 with a 2B, HR and an RBI.

LONG TIME BETWEEN STARTS

When Dennis Martinez started in the second game for Cleveland in the 1995 World Series, he set a record for the longest time between his first and second World Series starts. His first World Series start came 16 years earlier with the Orioles in 1979. Another former Tribe pitcher, Steve Carlton, had held the record with 13 seasons between his first World Series start (with the Cardinals in 1967) and his second (with the Phillies in 1980). (Source: The Great Book of Baseball Knowledge by David Nemec, 1999)

MISSING TWENTY

The 1995 Indians are one of just four teams in AL history to win 100 or more games without a 20-game winner. The others were the 1984 Tigers, 1941 Yankees, and 1915 Red Sox. Cleveland's win leaders in 1995 were Charles Nagy and Dennis Martinez, each with 16 wins. Nine NL teams have won 100 or more games without a 20-game winner. UNASSISTED TRIPLE PLAYS INVOLVING THE INDIANS

From 1901 until 1994, every unassisted triple play in American League history involved the Cleveland Indians. Cleveland's Neal Ball was credited with the first unassisted triple play in AL history on July 19, 1909. Three Tribe players (Frank Brower on September 14, 1923; Homer Summa on May 31, 1927; and Joe Azcue on July 29, 1968) have hit into unassisted triple plays. Cleveland's Bill Wambsganass turned the only unassisted triple play in World Series history on October 10, 1920. The first unassisted triple play in AL history not involving the Indians was on July 15, 1994 when Boston's John Valentin turned three against Minnesota.

OTHER ALL-TIME TEAMS

Several all-time Indians teams have been chosen over the years. In 1951, an all-time team was chosen in conjunction with the 50th anniversary of the American League. The players chosen for that team were: Hal Trosky (1B), Nap Lajoie (2B), Joe Sewell (SS), Ken Keltner (3B), Tris Speaker (OF), Earl Averill (OF), Joe Jackson (OF), Steve O'Neill (C), Cy Young (P), and Mel Harder (P). These players also comprised the first 10 inductees to the Cleveland Indians Hall of Fame.

vs. NEW YORK YANKEES - YANKEES win best-of-seven series, 4-2

Game #1 - Tuesday, October 6 (N) at NEW YORK
Indians drop their 8th straight opening game of a playoff series dating back to the 1995 ALCS at Seattle. Yankees scored 5 runs in the 1st inning (new ALCS record) off Jaret Wright (0.2IP, 5H, 5R/ER) in the shortest start of his major league career. David Wells was masterful, taking a 3-hit shutout into the 9th inning before yielding a 2-run HR to Manny Ramirez.

ALL-STAR FRANCHISE

Cleveland is the only franchise to host five all-star games since the inception of the mid-summer classic in 1933. The San Francisco/New York Giants, Chicago White Sox, Pittsburgh Pirates, Cincinnati Reds, and Minnesota Twins/Washington Senators have all hosted the game four times. Only two cities, New York (7) and Chicago (6) have played host to the All-Star Game more often than Cleveland.

vs. BOSTON RED SOX - RED SOX win best-of-five series, 3-2

Game #1 - Wednesday, October 6 (N) at CLEVELAND
The Indians defeated the Red Sox, 3-2, on a dramatic, 9th inning single by Travis Fryman off Rich Garces that scored Manny Ramirez (0-3, 2RS) to snap the infamous Game 1 losing streak at 8 games ('95 ALCS to '98 ALCS). It was Fryman's first career postseason RBI in his 11th career contest. Pedro Martinez (4.0IP, 3H, 0R) & Bartolo Colon (8.0IP, 5H, 2R/ER, 11SO) were locked in a classic pitchers duel before Martinez left before the top of the 5th with a muscle strain in his back.

GAME ONE AT CLEVELAND STADIUM - July 8, 1935, American League 4, National League 1

A crowd of 69,831 - the largest throng to see an All-Star Game (until 1981 in Cleveland) - packed the lakefront Stadium for just the third mid-summer classic in history. The partial American League crowd was thrilled to a 4-1 junior circuit victory, the A.L.'s third straight All-Star win.

Jimmy Foxx belted a two-run homer in the first inning and the American Leaguers coasted to the win as Lefty Gomez and Mel Harder baffled the National League hitters.

GAME TWO AT CLEVELAND STADIUM - July 13, 1954, American League 11, National League 9

In a spectacular slugfest that set All-Star marks for runs and hits by the two clubs, the American League edged the National 11-9. The slugfest produced six home runs, including four by the A.L. The Indians' Al Rosen clubbed a pair of homers while he and his Cleveland teammates Bobby Avila and Larry Doby combined for eight RBI.

The 1954 contest was a wild seesaw contest which saw the lead change six times before the A.L. pulled out the 11-9 win with a three run rally in the eighth. Ironically, it was Nellie Fox's broken bat single over second base with the bases loaded in the eighth that provided the margin of victory.

GAME THREE AT CLEVELAND STADIUM - July 9, 1963, National League 5, American League 3

After four years as a double feature, the All-Star Game went to a single performance and saw the National League utilize its speed and gain its first Cleveland Stadium win, 5-3.

Willie Mays was easily the game's outstanding performer, going 1-for-3 with two RBI, two runs scored, two stolen bases, a walk and the game's most scintillating catch. 44,160 fans saw the action.

GAME FOUR AT CLEVELAND STADIUM - August 9, 1981, National League 5, American League 4

An all-time record All-Star Game crowd of 72,086 welcomed back baseball from the 50-day players strike and saw the National League edge the American 5-4. The 72,086 fans gave Cleveland the top three crowds in All-Star history.

Gary Carter clubbed two home runs, including a seventh inning solo shot to put the National Leaguers ahead to stay. Cleveland's Lenny Barker faced just six batters in his two innings of work, striking out one.

GAME FIVE AT JACOBS FIELD - July 8, 1997, American League 3, National League 1

Indians host the 68th Mid-Summer Classic for a record 5th time as Sandy Alomar hit a 2-out, 2-run homer off SF LHP Shawn Estes in the 7th inning, breaking a 1-1 tie. Alomar sent 44,945 fans home happy, becoming the first Indian ever to win an ASG MVP and the first player in MLB history to be named MVP in his home park.

Randy Johnson and Greg Maddux started the contest and a total of 14 pitchers were used. Edgar Martinez and Javy Lopez also homered in the game, which took just 2:36 minutes to play.

OTHER ALL-TIME TEAMS

Several all-time Indians teams have been chosen over the years. In 1951, an all-time team was chosen in conjunction with the 50th anniversary of the American League.The players chosen for that team were: Hal Trosky (1B), Nap Lajoie (2B), Joe Sewell (SS), Ken Keltner (3B), Tris Speaker (OF), Earl Averill (OF), Joe Jackson (OF), Steve O'Neill (C), Cy Young (P), and Mel Harder (P). These players also comprised the first 10 inductees to the Cleveland Indians Hall of Fame.

INDIANS BROADCAST HISTORY

The early days of baseball play-by-play broadcasting in Cleveland were highlighted by change. Broadcasting legend Tom Manning, known for his field announcing at League Park, was heard over radio station WTAM from 1929-31 covering most home games. Ellis Vander Pyl started the 1932 season on WHK, but was quickly replaced by another broadcasting legend, former Tribe player Jack Graney. For the next decade, when Tribe baseball was on the air, Graney was at the mike. His noteworthy partners included Gil Gibbons, Pinky Hunter and Lou Henry. In 1945, no Cleveland baseball broadcasts were heard because of radio network committments. Permanent radio play-by-play of Indians games was established in 1946 when Bill Veeck purchased the team. Before the sale, no games were broadcast in 1946. Soon after the Veeck purchase, four stations carried the Tribe game of June 28, 1946 (Graney and Bob Neal on WGAR, Earl Harper on WJW, Don Campbell on WHK, and Manning on WTAM).

TRIBE BROADCASTERS

TOM HAMILTON, the "Voice of the Indians," will enter his 22nd season of calling Cleveland Indians baseball games on radio in 2011. In his 21 seasons since 1990, Hamilton has called 68 postseason games for the Tribe from 1994-99, 2001 and 2007, including all six (6) games from the 1995 World Series and all seven (7) games from the 1997 World Series.

Hamilton will be joined in the booth along with Mike Hegan and Jim Rosenhaus to provide commentary for all 162 regular season games and 20 spring training contests on WTAM News Radio, 1100 on the AM dial and the Indians Radio Network.

Tom came to the Indians after spending three seasons as a broadcaster for the AAA Columbus Clippers, the top farm club of the New York Yankees. Previously, Tom worked in Milwaukee, Appleton, Watertown and Shell Lake, Wisconsin.

Some of his broadcasting credits include the University of Wisconsin football games, University of Colorado basketball games, the Appleton Foxes minor league baseball games and work for ABC radio. He is a five-time recipient of the Ohio Sportscaster of the Year Award (1997, 2000, 2001, 2004 and 2006). During the off-season, Tom does television basketball broadcasts for the Big Ten Conference on ESPN and the Big Ten Network. In honor of his 20th season with the Indians, Tom was given the Cleveland Association of Broadcasters Hall of Fame Award for 2009.

Hamilton is a native of Waterloo, Wisconsin. He resides in Avon Lake, Ohio with his wife, Wendy. The Hamilton's have four children: Two boys, Nicholas and Bradley, and two girls, Kelsey and Katie. Nick is a sophomore at Kent St. University where he is a member of the baseball team.

MIKE HEGAN is in his 23rd season as a Tribe broadcaster in 2011, teaming up with Tom Hamilton for a 14th straight year in the Indians radio booth. Jim Rosenhaus will once again join Hegan and Hamilton in the Indians radio booth during the 2011 season.

Mike spent 18 seasons providing analysis for Tribe games on WUAB-TV43, FSN Ohio and SportsTime Ohio from 1989-2006, as well as playing a part on the radio team the past 11 years. Prior to joining the Indians in 1989, he spent 12 seasons as a television announcer for the Milwaukee Brewers. Hegan played 12 years in the Major Leagues (1964-77) with the New York Yankees, Seattle Pilots, Milwaukee Brewers, and the Oakland Athletics. The former first baseman/outfielder represented Seattle in the 1969 All-Star Game and played on the 1972 World Championship Oakland Athletics team.

Mike is the son of former Indians catcher, Jim Hegan, who played with the Tribe for 14 seasons. Mike and his wife, Nancy, reside in Hilton Head, S.C. They have two sons, Shawn and J.J. and four grandchildren.

2011 marks the fifth season for JIM ROSENHAUS as host of Indians Warm Up on the Indians Radio Network. Jim also serves as the engineer/producer of each broadcast and will team with Tom Hamilton on selected road broadcasts this season and will call play-by-play for one inning of every game. This spring, Jim will provide the call on webcasts (Indians.com) of Indians baseball when the games are not heard on the Indians Radio Network.

Rosenhaus joined the Indians prior to the 2007 season after spending 11 years as the play by play voice of the AAA Buffalo Bisons. In addition to his baseball broadcasting work, Rosenhaus spent 11 years as the voice of University for the Buffalo men's basketball team.

In the baseball off season, Jim also works various televised events (high school football playoffs and college and high school basketball) for SportsTime Ohio.

Jim resides in Bay Village, Ohio with his wife Carole and son Nathan.

Former Tribe center fielder RICK MANNING returns for his 22nd season as color commentator for Indians baseball telecasts, now on SportsTime Ohio and on WKYC- TV.

He began his professional baseball career with the Cleveland Indians as the #1 selection in the 1972 June draft. The first 8 1/2 years of his 13-year major league career were spent in Cleveland (1975-1983) where he won a Gold Glove in 1976 for his fielding prowess. Manning was also selected as the BBWAA "Good Guy" award winner for the 1980 season.

Rick and his wife, Sue, reside in Scottsdale, AZ. He has two children, Kyle and Jessica, and five grandchildren.

MATT UNDERWOOD begins his fifth season in the TV booth calling the play-by-play with partner Rick Manning on SportsTime Ohio and WKYC- TV. He spent seven seasons as a member of the Tribe radio broadcast team and 13 seasons, from 1994-2006 as host of Indians Warm Up, the pre-game show heard on the Cleveland Indians Radio Network. He also hosted the Emmy Award winning TV pre-game show for Indians baseball for nine seasons from 1998-2006.

Matt spent 17 years in various capacities with local ABC affiliate WEWS-TV5. He continued that relationship for six years in a part-time role after joining the Tribe radio broadcast team for the 2000 season. He served as the station's sports director from 1997-2000 and was nominated for an Emmy Award twice. In addition to anchoring the 6pm and 11pm sports, he also hosted the weekly half-hour show, Sports Sunday. Underwood also co-hosted a daily talk show on SportsRadio WKNR (1993-94).

Matt makes numerous appearances on behalf of Cleveland Indians Charities and has served as the Chairman for the Nev Chandler Charity Golf Classic, raising money to fight cancer in honor of his late mentor.

In 2010 Matt was inducted into the Ashland County Sports Hall of Fame.

The Ashland, OH native graduated from Baldwin-Wallace College in 1990. Matt currently resides in Avon Lake with his wife, Shelley. They have two children, Max and Devan.

AL PAWLOWSKI is slated to provide the play-by-play with Rick Manning for 10 games on SportsTime Ohio this year. He joined SportsTime Ohio in 2007 and currently serves as the host of Tribe pre-game show Indians On-Deck and is the co-host of The Tribe Report on STO.

A graduate of John Carroll University where he played baseball, Al also is the current play-by-play radio broadcaster for the Cleveland State men's basketball. He has also appeared on ESPN and ESPN2 doing play-by-play for the MISL soccer as well as Little League World Series games.

Prior to joining STO he served as the radio/TV play-by-play broadcaster for the Cleveland Crunch/Force for seven seasons from 1998-2005 and was the Indians in park host/reporter at Jacobs Field from 1999-2006.

Al resides in Sagamore Hills with his wife Jessica and son Chase.

THE FIRST TELECAST

The first local telecast of an Indians' game took place on May 15, 1948 as Cleveland met the White Sox in an afternoon game at Cleveland Municipal Stadium. The game was telecast on WEWS-TV, Cleveland's only TV station at the time. The announcer was Van Patrick.

ITEMS OF INTEREST

FIRST-YEAR PLAYER DRAFT

Major League Clubs meet once a year for the purpose of drafting high school, college, and junior college eligible players. High school players become eligible following completion of their senior year or after withdrawing from and remaining out of school for at least 365 days; college players become eligible following completion of their junior or senior years or if they are at least 21 years old and between school years; and junior college players become eligible following their freshmen or sophomore years.

Selection of a player in the first-year player draft entitles the Club to the exclusive right of negotiation with that player through August 15, the signing deadline, for all draft picks other than college seniors (or other players who have utilized all of their NCAA eligibility) for whom the Club has the exclusive right of negotiation for approximately one year.

If a first or second round draft pick (or a free agent compensation pick between the first and second rounds) does not sign by the August 15 signing deadline, the selecting Club receives a "same-slot" compensation pick in the next year's draft. If a third round pick does not sign, the selecting Club receives a sandwich pick between the third and fourth rounds in the next year's draft.

Clubs choose players in reverse order of Major League standings, and the draft concludes after 50 selection rounds, in addition to up to two compensation rounds—one following the first round and one following the third round. Approximate date of draft meetings: Summer (early June).

ASSIGNMENT REGULATIONS

- Major to Major: Waivers are required for any Major League assignment between August 1 and the day following the conclusion of the season. During the other ten months of the year, waivers are not required for assignments from one Major League Club to another.
- Major to Minor: A player may be optioned with right of recall to a Minor League Club for not more than three seasons, and waivers are only required if the date of assignment is three or more years after the date the player first reported to a Major League Club (less one year for each option charged prior to his first report date). If a player is optioned for less than 20 aggregate days in a season, that player is not charged with an option during that season. A Major League Club may also outright a player to a Minor League Club without right of recall, but waivers are required for all outright assignments to minor league clubs.

The procedure for assignment waiver requirements are as follows:

CLUB FROM/TO SEASON	31ST DAY OF SEASON TO 7/31	8/1 TO 8/31	9/1 TO LAST DAY OF SEASON	END OF SEASON TO 30TH DAY OF
ML to ML	NONE	Trade	Trade	NONE
ML to NA (opt)	Optional	Optional	Optional	Optional
ML to NA	Outright	Outright	Outright	Outright

There are four different types of waiver requests:

Trade Waivers, Optional Waivers, Outright Waivers (irrevocable), and Unconditional Release Waivers.

Outright Waivers (OR), Trade Waivers, and Optional Waivers expire at the end of the waiver period in which they were secured MLR 10 (a).

ROOKIE QUALIFICATIONS

A player shall be considered a rookie unless, during a previous season or seasons, he has (a) exceeded 130 at bats or 50 innings pitched in the major leagues; or (b) accumulated more than 45 days on the active roster of a major league club or clubs during the period of the 25-player limit (excluding time in military service).

SAVE RULE

A relief pitcher shall be credited with a save when he meets all three of the following conditions: (1) he is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club, (2) he is not the winning pitcher, and (3) he qualifies under one of the following conditions: (a)

he enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning, or (b) he enters the game with the potential tying run either on base, at bat or on deck (i.e., the potential tying run is either on base or is one of the firs two batsmen he faces), or (c) he pitched effectively in the last three innings.

MAJOR LEAGUE SERVICE

- Is credited for each day a player appears on an active roster or major league disabled or suspended list.
- In the case of a player called up from the minor leagues, is credited beginning with the date he physically reports.
- In the case of a major league player who is traded and reports in the normal course, service is not interrupted.
- In the case of a major league player sent down to the minor leagues, is credited through the date of the assignment.
- In the case of a player who is unconditionally released, is credited through the date waivers are requested.
- In the case of the player designated for release or assignment (MLR 2), is credited after the designation, through the date of the actual assignment or the request for unconditional release waivers.
- For a player who appears on his club's opening day roster, is credited as of the earliest scheduled opener, without regard to the actual opening date of his own club.
- Is credited at the rate of 172 days per "year," through the season is actually 183 days long
- Is not credited during any period or periods of optional assignment totaling 20 days or more during a single season.

MAJOR LEAGUE ROSTER LIMITS

The Major League Active Roster is limited to 25 players from opening day through August 31 and 40 players from September 1 through the end of season. The maximum number of players on the Major League Reserve List is limited to 40.

DISABLED LISTS

- 15-Day Disabled List: There is no limit to the number of players on this list. Players on the 15-day DL count against Reserve List but not Active List. The minimum period of inactivity for a player on this list is 15 days.
- 60-Day Disabled List: There is no limit to the number of players on this list, but a player can only be placed on the 60-Day DL if the club's Reserve List is at the maximum limit of 40 players. Players carried on this list do not count against 40-man Reserve List limit. The minimum period of inactivity for a player on this list is 60 days, but if he is placed or transferred to the 60-Day DL after 8/1, the player must remain on the list through the end of post season.

BATTING-PITCHING QUALIFICATIONS

To qualify for the American League batting championship, a player must have 502 or more plate appearances. (This is equivalent to at least 3.1 for each of the 162 scheduled games.) Pitchers must work 162 or more innings to qualify for the earned run average title.

PINCH HITTER RULE

A player shall be considered a pinch hitter if he enters the game as a substitute batter and then only on his first time at bat which must be before he becomes a fielder. (If the team bats around and a pinch hitter comes up a second time in the inning in which he first appeared, he will not be considered a pinch hitter during that second time up). A substitute hitter for a designated hitter is both a pinch hitter and a designated hitter on his first time at bat. On subsequent trips to the plate, he is a designated hitter only.

DESIGNATED HITTER RULE

A hitter may be designated to bat for the pitcher in any spot in the batting order in any game without affecting the status of the pitcher.The designated hitter must be selected and be included in the lineup cards presented to the umpire-in chief prior to the game.Failure to do so precludes the use of a designated hitter for that game.The designated hitter is "locked" into the batting order, but may be removed for a pinch-hitter or a pinch-runner, who in turn becomes the designated hitter. The designated hitter, while still in the game, may be used defensively but the pitcher then assumes the batting order of the replaced defensive player, thus terminating the designated hitter role.

DEFINITION OF A NIGHT GAME

Any game scheduled to start after 6:00pm will be considered a night game. If a game is scheduled to start at 6:00pm and is delayed by rain, or for any reason, it will be considered a day game; if a game is scheduled to start at 6:01pm, it will be considered a night game. Twi-night doubleheaders shall be included in doubleheader statistics and shall be considered two night games. When afternoon and night games are played on the same date with separate admissions, the games shall be day and night and count as single games.

CONSECUTIVE GAME HITTING STREAKS

A consecutive-game hitting streak shall not be terminated if all the player's plate appearances (one or more) result in a base on balls, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit. The player's individual consecutive-game hitting streak shall be determined by the consecutive games in which the player appears and is not determined by his club's games.

HOW TO FIGURE

BATTING AVERAGE

Divide the total number of hits collected by a player by the total number of at bats (i.e.Player A is 12-for-40 or .300).

SLUGGING PERCENTAGE

Divide the number of total bases by the total number of at-bats (i.e. Player A's 12 hits include six singles (6), one double (2), two triples (6) and three home runs (12) for 26 total bases in 40 at bats and a .650 slugging percentage).

EARNED RUN AVERAGE

The total number of earned runs allowed by a pitcher is divided by the total number of innings pitched and then multiplied by nine for his per game average (i.e. Pitcher B has allowed 12 earned runs in 45 innings of work for a 2.40 ERA).

FIELDING AVERAGE

The sum of putouts and assists is divided by the sum of putouts, assists and errors (i.e. Player C has made 16 putouts and 24 assists and two errors. That's 40 putouts and assists divided by 42 chances for a fielding average of .952).

WON-LOST PERCENTAGE

Divide the number of victories by the total number of games played (i.e. 22 wins and 18 losses produce a winning percentage of .550).

ON-BASE PERCENTAGE

The sum of hits plus total bases on balls plus hit-by-pitches is divided by the sum of at bats plus total bases on balls, hit-by-pitches and sacrifice flies (Does not include being awarded first base on interference or obstruction).

MAGIC NUMBER

Determine the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the the loss column of the standings from the closest opponent.

OPS

OPS equals On-Base Percentage plus Slugging Percentage. OPS is a simple way to get an overall summary of a batter's production. It combines the two most important factors in offense - reaching base (OBP) and advancing runners (SLG), and as a result it tracks with very closely with runs scored, better than using just OBP or SLG by itself.

MEDIA GAME DAY INFORMATION

MEDIA RELATIONS DEPARTMENT

Tel: 216/420-4380, Fax: 216/420-4396

ADMISSION TO PROGRESSIVE FIELD

Media must enter the park through the Media Gate, located at the east corner of Gate A on Eagle Avenue, on the north side of the ballpark facing the arena.

CLUBHOUSES

The Indians' clubhouse and the visitors' clubhouse are located on the Service Level of the ballpark.

Pre-game: All working media with clubhouse credentials will be admitted from 3½ hours until 1 hour prior to game time.

Post-game: Clubhouses will be open to working media with clubhouse credentials no later than ten minutes after the final out has been made.

Doubleheaders: In between games of a traditional doubleheader the clubhouse will be closed to the media. However, the manager's office will be open. Clubhouse is open for 45 minutes between games of a "day/night" doubleheader.

CREDENTIALS

To obtain credentials your initial request must be made on letterhead and faxed to the Media Relations Department at (216) 420-4396. Credentials will be issued only to legitimate newsgathering agencies. Requests must be made at least 24 hours in advance of the day of the game. Credentials must be picked up at the Media Gate. No credentials will be mailed.

FIELD

Properly credentialed media will be permitted on the field until one-half hour prior to game time. Media should enter the field through the gates located at the outfield side of the first and third base dugouts. Media must stay on the track surrounding the batting cage during batting practice. Photographers with field photo credentials will be permitted in the first and third base photo boxes during the game.

GAME NOTES

Game notes and statistics are available in the Press Box two hours prior to game time.

MEDIA GUIDES

Indians media guides and media guides of other clubs (while supplies last) are available upon request in the press box.

PRESS BOX

Located in the center of the Press Suite Level. Take the Ontario Street Elevator to Level 4 (the Press Level). Enter through glass double doors and the Press Box entrance is the single door to the right.

PRESS CLUB

Located in the center of the Press Suite Level behind the Main Press Box.

Pre-game: The media dining room will be open two hours prior to the game until one hour after scheduled game time serving a full meal. Any credentialed media will have access to the Press Club at a cost of $10.00 per person. Call the Media Relations Department for more information.

During game: Beverages, along with chips, pretzels and/or popcorn will be served at no cost throughout the game.

TELEPHONES

There are complimentary courtesy phones throughout the main press box that have access to 216, 440 and 330 local calls, in addition to toll free numbers.

If you need access to long distance, have specific broadcast needs or need the ability to receive incoming calls, you can order a telephone through AT&T. Please contact AT&T Business Office at (800) 480-8088. Please allow at least five days for them to have your line installed.

CLEVELAND INDIANS CHARITIES

Established in 1989, CLEVELAND INDIANS CHARITIES (CIC) is the self-sustaining charitable arm of the Cleveland Indians that concentrates on creative partnerships with select organizations that focus on youth education and recreation. Since its inception, CIC has donated more than $7.0 million to youth-oriented agencies and organizations throughout Northeast Ohio. CIC has established and enhanced its relationships with several of these organizations, with the focus on the following beneficiaries and grant programs for 2011:

Cleveland Metropolitan School District: to provide funding for high school baseball and softball programs.

Boys & Girls Clubs of Cleveland: to provide educational outreach programs.

Cleveland Baseball Federation: to grow youth participation in baseball and softball by administering the Reviving Baseball in Inner Cities (RBI) and Rookie League, free of charge to youth.

Diamond Improvement Grant: to assist in league funding, programming and renovation of playing fields.

The relationships CIC maintains with these youth-service agencies provide the opportunity to jointly create, design and execute programs and activities. The result is programming which helps young people develop necessary life skills, learn responsibility and cooperation, and develop courage and confidence to face today's hurdles. CIC impacts over 20,000 children throughout Northeast Ohio on an annual basis.

The monies donated by CIC have been raised through a variety of fundraising activities that fans can get involved with. In addition, a significant portion of the total amount raised is through the generosity of Cleveland Indians players, coaches, front office and corporate partners.

The Cleveland Indians organization and its players have a unique opportunity to make a positive impact on the youth of Northeast Ohio. It is an opportunity and responsibility we embrace.

How To Get Involved With CIC

Indians fans can help generate funds for CIC by participating in various fundraising initiatives spearheaded by CIC each season. In 2011, CIC will host the following events and programs:

Friday, May 6, Saturday, May 7, 2011 – CIC High School Hardball Classic

Progressive Field will be the site of the 8th Annual CIC High School Hardball Classic. Twelve (12) area high schools will compete during the two-day event. Fans interested in attending the Hardball Classic can purchase a $5 ticket at any participating high school prior to the event or a $7 ticket at Progressive Field the day of the event. Visit www.indians.com/community for a complete list of participating schools.

Thursday, July 28, 2011 – CIC Celebrity Golf Classic, presented by Medical Mutual

This year's event will again be held at Quail Hollow Country Club. Spend the day golfing with Indians players, coaches, alumni and broadcasters. The day includes great gifts, prizes, breakfast, lunch, cocktail dinner party, live and silent auction and more. Individual registration, teams of five golfers and sponsorships are available.

Progressive Field Tours (April – September), presented by Panera Bread

Experience a behind-the-scenes tour of Cleveland's crown jewel. Beginning April 2011, visit areas from the Dugout to the Batting Cages to the Press Box. Tickets are $7.50 for adults and $5.50 for youths 14 and under and senior citizens 60 and over. Special School and Group Rates available. Visit www.indians.com/community for complete schedule and pricing. Book your school or group tour today!

Clubhouse Collectibles – Year Round

Purchase a variety of Indians memorabilia from the Clubhouse Collectibles section at the Progressive Field Team Shop. Choose from game used and team issued autographed helmets, cleats, caps, jerseys, baseballs and bats to baseball cards to autographed photos. Visit the Progressive Field Team Shop for a collection of assorted Indians treasures!
